The Organizing Property Of Communication Pragmatics And Beyond New Series:

The Organizing Property of Communication François Cooren, 2000 What is an organization What are the building blocks that ultimately constitute this social form so pervasive in our daily life Like Augustine facing the problem of time we all know what an organization is but we seem unable to explain it This book brings an original answer by mobilizing concepts traditionally reserved to linguistics analytical philosophy and semiotics Based on Algirdas Julien Greimas semio narrative model of action and Jacques Derrida's concept of critique a reconceptualization of speech act theory is proposed in which communication is treated as an act of delegation where human and nonhuman agents are mobilized texts machines employees architectural elements managers etc Perfectly congruent with the last development of the sociology of translation developed by Michel Callon and Bruno Latour this perspective illustrates the organizing property of communication through a process called interactoriality Jacques Lacan used to say that the unconscious is structured like a language This book shows that a social organization is structured like a narrative

Pragmatics

, 2001 Studies in Language, 2000 The Situated Organization James R. Taylor, Elizabeth J. Van Every, 2010-09-13

The Situated Organization explores recent research in organizational communication emphasizing the organization as constructed in and emerging out of communication practices Working from the tradition of the Montreal School in its approach it focuses not only on how an organization's members understand the purposes of the organization through communication but also on how they realize and recognize the organization itself as they work within it The text breaks through with an alternative viewpoint to the currently popular idea of organization as network viewing organization instead as a configuration of agencies and their fields of practice It serves as an original comprehensive and well written text elaborated by case studies that make the theory come to life The substantial ideas and insights are presented in a deep and meaningful way while remaining comprehensible for student readers This text has been developed for students at all levels of study in organizational communication who need a systematic introduction to conducting empirical field research It will serve as an invaluable sourcebook in planning and conducting research Action and Agency in Dialogue François Cooren, 2010-06-11 What happens when people communicate or dialogue with each other This is the daunting question that this book proposes to address by starting from a controversial hypothesis What if human interactants were not the only ones to be considered paraphrasing Austin 1962 as doing things with words That is what if other things could also be granted the status of agents in a dialogical situation Action and Agency in Dialogue Passion incarnation and ventriloquism proposes to explore this unique hypothesis by mobilizing metaphorically the notion of ventriloquism According to this ventriloquial perspective interactions are never purely local but dislocal that is they constantly mobilize figures collectives principles values emotions etc that incarnate themselves in people s discussions This highly original book which develops the analytical practical and ethical dimensions of such a theoretical positioning may be of interest to communication scholars linguists sociologists conversation analysts management and organizational scholars as well as philosophers interested in language action and ethics Teaching and Learning (Im)Politeness Barbara Pizziconi, Miriam A. Locher, 2015-11-13 This collection combines research from the field of im politeness studies with research on language pedagogy and language learning It aims to engender a useful dialogue between im politeness theorists language teachers and SLA researchers and also to broaden the enquiry to naturalistic contexts other than L2 acquisition classrooms by formulating teaching and learning as processes of socialization cultural transmission and adaptation Handbücher zur Sprach- und Kommunikationswissenschaft Hans Goebel, Herbert Ernst Wiegand, 1996 Beyond the Rapist Kate Lockwood Harris, 2019-03-04 In Beyond the Rapist Kate Lockwood Harris demonstrates how universities and colleges fighting against sexual violence on their campuses may simply be reproducing that violence in other forms She uses feminist new materialist theory to analyze how a particular college deals with rape and other sexual assaults while complying with federal laws Ultimately she shows why universities should broaden their concern beyond individual perpetrators to organizational processes International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 2001 Pragmatic Variation in First and Second Language Contexts J. César Félix-Brasdefer, Dale A. Koike, 2012-09-12 Departing from Schneider and Barron 2008 representing the emerging field of Variational Pragmatics this volume examines pragmatic variation focusing on methods utilized to collect and analyze data in a variety of first L1 and second L2 language contexts The objectives are to 1 examine variation in such areas of pragmatics as speech acts conventional expressions metapragmatics stance frames mitigation communicative action im politeness and implicature and 2 critically review central methodological concerns relevant for research in pragmatic variation such as coding ethical issues qualitative and quantitative methods and individual variation Theoretical frameworks vary from variationist and interactional sociolinguistics to variational pragmatics This collection contains eleven chapters by leading scholars including two state of the art chapters on key methodological issues of pragmatic variation study Given the theoretical perspectives methodological
