

RULERSHIPS: WHAT ARE THEY?

by Douglas Noblehorse

When we study astrology we first learn the basics - the meanings of signs, houses, planets and aspects - which is no small undertaking! But then the hard part begins... how to assemble and make sense of it all. This process can take years for many of us... years of buying and reading books alongside years of actual horoscope interpretation for family, friends and eventually clients.

Mastering this kind of synthesis is an achievement for anyone who is seriously interested in astrology, but it is only the first step in becoming fluent in the language of the horoscope. At this point in our study we know and can articulate what for instance best. So how does the student of astrology penetrate to the deeper levels of meaning hidden in the horoscope?

This is where the doctrine of astrological rulerships comes in to play. Modern astrologers by and large understand the notion of rulership through the idea of dispositorship. Simply put the planet that rules the sign of a particular planet or point disposes or colors that particular planet. For instance in the example above, the Moon would disposit Jupiter (as Cancer is ruled by the Moon) while Mars would disposit the Sun in Aries. Somehow by virtue of this relationship the disposing planet molds or shapes the outcome of the disposed planet - the Cancerian Jupiter would be more emotional (Moon) than a normal Jupiter; the Arian Sun would be more aggressive and confrontational than a normal Sun.

This explanation however doesn't address the fundamental question that appears - what's the difference between Jupiter being in Cancer and Jupiter being disposed by the Moon? In other words, what's the difference between a planet in a sign and Planetary rulers are not simple affinities...

Jupiter at 20° Cancer in the 1st house square the Sun at 20° Aries in the 10th house means (i.e. conflicts with the father over education, etc.)... but is real life that simple or black-and-white? Even if you can give voice to the various manifestations of such a planetary combination (which if overdone can confuse and alienate your client) the ensuing character description is one-dimensional at
