Dictionary of Deities and Demons in the Bible Karel van der Toorn, 1999 The Dictionary of Deities and Demons in the Bible DDD is the single major reference work on the gods angels demons spirits and semidivine heroes whose names occur in the biblical books Book jacket Facing the Fiend Eva Marta Baillie, 2014-09-25 Satan is not a theological concept but a literary construct Facing the Fiend places the character within a well defined literary tradition Satan is established to be a highly ambiguous figure who plays a central narrative role in a wide variety of texts Acknowledging that the character of the devil is inherently problematic Eva Marta Baillie deftly argues that the Satan of the Christian faith can be best understood phenomenologically through his roles and functions in stories The author goes on to construct a detailed and wide ranging picture of Satan's depictions in literature presented with persuasive flair and a strong command of the subject matter Discourse similarly touches upon wider issues of evil and how it too is best understood in a literary context Facing the Fiend offers an intriguing insight into the cultural representations of Satan making for a thought provoking and engaging read Such a comprehensive study will appeal to those with an academic interest in the relationship between theology and literature as well as to the general reader curious about the portrayal of religion in works of fiction

Tragedy and Comedy from Dante to Pseudo-Dante H.A. Kelly, 2004-01-30 In this study Professor Kelly analyzes Dante's understanding of the meanings of tragedy and comedy in his undisputed works especially the De vulgari eloquentia and the Comedia He finds that Dante's criteria concerned subject matter and style not emotions like happiness and sorrow or plot movement from one mood to another or humor or the lack of it He considered Vergil's Aeneid and his own lyric poems to be tragedies because of their sublime subjects and their use of elevated style and vocabulary He considered the Inferno along with the Purgatorio and the Paradiso to be a comedy because of the range of subjects and styles Dante's commentators in contrast tended to have a plot based understanding of these genres and they attributed similar views to Dante himself On the basis of both content and style Kelly concludes that the Epistle to Cangrande is not by Dante except possibly for the first three paragraphs and therefore ascribes it to Pseudo Dante It was not compiled as we have it until the last quarter of the fourteenth century but it incorporated an earlier anonymous accessus to the Comedia This accessus drew heavily on Guido da Pisa's commentary and it in turn was used by Boccaccio

Prayer, Magic, and the Stars in the Ancient and Late Antique World Scott Noegel, Joel Walker Walker, 2010-11-01 In the religious systems of ancient Mesopotamia Egypt and the Mediterranean gods and demigods were neither abstract nor distant but communicated with mankind through signs and active intervention Men and women were thus eager to interpret appeal to and even control the gods and their agents In Prayer Magic and the Stars in the Ancient and Late Antique World a distinguished array of scholars explores the many ways in which people in the ancient world sought to gain access to or in some cases to bind or escape from the divine powers of heaven and earth Grounded in a variety of disciplines including Assyriology Classics and early Islamic history the fifteen essays in this volume cover a broad geographic area Greece Egypt Syria Palestine Mesopotamia and Persia Topics include celestial divination in early Mesopotamia the civic festivals of classical Athens and Christian magical papyri from Coptic Egypt Moving forward to Late Antiquity we see how Judaism Christianity and Islam each incorporated many aspects of ancient Near Eastern and Graeco Roman religion into their own prayers rituals and conceptions Even if they no longer conceived of the sun moon and the stars as eternal or divine Christians Jews and Muslims often continued to study the movements of the heavens as a map on which divine power could be read The reader already familiar with studies of ancient religion will find in Prayer Magic and the Stars both old friends and new faces Contributors include Gideon Bohak Nicola Denzey Jacco Dieleman Radcliffe Edmonds Marvin Meyer Michael G Morony Ian Moyer Francesca Rochberg Jonathan Z Smith Mark S Smith Peter Struck Michael Swartz and Kasia Szpakowska Published as part of Penn State s Magic in History series Prayer Magic and the Stars appears at a time of renewed interest in divination and occult practices in the ancient world It will interest a wide audience in the field of comparative religion as well as students of the ancient world and late antiquity Lords of the Left-Hand creative transformation of a wide range of existing theological concepts      Jesus and Myth Peter John Barber, 2021-02-15 Is Jesus mythological And is he a mere product of his cultural milieu Through narratological and social scientific analysis of the gospel account Barber systematically demonstrates that there are two opposing patterns structuring the gospel The first is the pattern of this world which is the combat myth with a typical sequence of motifs having mythological meanings It is lived out by everyone else in the accounts except Jesus because this pattern of the world is the pattern of myth culture which is the pattern of the old Adam and sin nature The pattern of Jesus is the pattern intended for Adam to walk in and is the unique pattern of the new Adam Jesus Christ Jesus s pattern inverts the sequence and subverts the significance of each and every motif and episode of the myth culture s pattern Barber shows that Jesus s failure to conform to this world s mythological pattern establishes that he is not mythological and not a product of his culture As the apostle Peter states we did not follow cleverly devised tales myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty 2 Pet 1 16      Playing with Dragons Andy Angel, 2014-03-13 There be dragons all over the Bible From the great sea monsters of Genesis to the great dragon of Revelation dragons appear as the Bible opens and closes and they pop their grisly heads up at various junctures in between How did they get there and what on earth or indeed in heaven are they doing there This is a book for those who find standard discussions of faith and suffering frustrating Andy Angel opens up the rich biblical tradition of living with God in the midst of suffering He takes the reader on a journey of exploration through biblical texts that are often overlooked on account of their strangeness texts about dragons He shows how these peculiar passages open up a language of prayer through suffering in which people share their anger weariness disillusionment and even joy in suffering with God Angel explores how such weird Scriptures open up a whole new way of praying and reveal a God who approves of honest spirituality a spirituality that the Bible holds open but too many of its interpreters do not      Theology for the Community of God Stanley J. Grenz, 2000-01-31 This proven systematic theology represents the very best in evangelical theology Stanley Grenz presents the traditional themes of Christian doctrine God humankind Christ the Holy Spirit the church and the last things all within an emphasis on God s central program for creation namely the establishment of community Masterfully blending biblical historical and contemporary concerns Grenz s respected work provides a coherent vision of the faith that is both intellectually satisfying and expressible in Christian living Available for the first time in paperback      The Eschatological Imagination Wietse de Boer, Christine Göttler, 2024-10-21 How did the early modern Christian West conceive of the spaces and times of the afterlife The answer to this question is not obvious for a period that saw profound changes in theology when the telescope revealed the heavens to be as changeable and imperfect as the earth and when archaeological and geological investigations made the earth and what lies beneath it another privileged site for the acquisition of new knowledge With its focus on the eschatological imagination at a time of transformation in cosmology this volume opens up new ways of studying early modern religious ideas representations and practices The individual chapters explore a wealth of at times little known visual and textual sources Together they highlight how closely concepts and imaginaries of the hereafter were intertwined with the realities of the here and now Contributors Matteo Al Kalak Monica Azzolini Wietse de Boer Christine G ttler Luke Holloway Martha McGill Walter S Melion Mia M Mochizuki Laurent Paya Rapha le Preisinger Aviva Rothman Minou Schraven Anna Claire Stinebring Jane Tylus and Antoinina Bevan Zlatar
