The Other Side of the Crisis Cindy White, MS, PCC, 2008-05 There is a quiet crisis and we each know it when we get there We've tried to keep busy working shopping being socially active getting high or focusing on anything else so we wouldn't have to face the terrifying feelings and thoughts that come when we slow down for a moment The crisis comes when we've done everything we can to feel safe and happy and we still feel sad alone and empty as we lie in bed exhausted each night The question we each have to answer is Who do you think you are Because we've mistaken our identity as being only human we've accepted limits that do not allow for the realization of our highest potential Up until now we've been missing incredible opportunities to live prosperous loving joy filled lives An Emergency Department crisis counselor demonstrates that we are powerful sacred human beings with the ability to focus our thoughts and feelings in ways that will absolutely transform our lives With awareness and practice we can become our sacred Selves For those who are hungry for change it's time to joyfully move to The Other Side of the Crisis
