Reference Review City of Blood and Tears Angela Harrison, Fire Control Notes ,1964 Slashburner Nick Raeside,2020-09-19 Nick Raeside worked at many jobs in the logging business but the one that he specialized in was starting fires small hopefully controlled fires used to clean up logging slash or debris laden sites left after the merchantable timber had been removed It was a crude way of reducing fire hazard and clearing the ground for replanting and there was a constant danger that the controlled burns would get away and become real wildfires destroying millions of dollars worth of standing timber Raeside found this challenge irresistible In Slashburner Raeside recounts many hilarious anecdotes from his career in the woods during the 1970s 80s and 90s when he and his slashburning crews rampaged throughout southeastern BC armed with drip torches chainsaws and explosives They lit fires They put some of them out They survived rockslides animal encounters and flare fights Slashburner is a rollicking tale capturing the good old times in the logging business when danger and excitement were the order of the day and almost everyone you met was a memorable character
