Patrician John Galsworthy, 2016-01-05 CHAPTER I Light entering the vast room a room so high that its carved ceiling refused itself to exact scrutiny travelled with the wistful cold curiosity of the dawn over a fantastic storehouse of Time Light unaccompanied by the prejudice of human eyes made strange revelation of incongruities as though illuminating the dispassionate march of history For in this dining hall one of the finest in England the Caradoc family had for centuries assembled the trophies and records of their existence Round about this dining hall they had built and pulled down and restored until the rest of Monkland Court presented some aspect of homogeneity Here alone they had left virgin the work of the old quasi monastic builders and within it unconsciously deposited their souls For there were here meeting the eyes of light all those rather touching evidences of man's desire to persist for ever those shells of his former bodies the fetishes and queer proofs of his faiths together with the remorseless demonstration of their treatment at the hands of Time The annalist might here have found all his needed confirmations the analyst from this material formed the due equation of high birth the philosopher traced the course of aristocracy from its primeval rise in crude strength or subtlety through centuries of power to picturesque decadence and the beginnings of its last stand Even the artist might here perchance have seized on the dry ineffable pervading spirit as one visiting an old cathedral seems to scent out the constriction of its heart

Vlad C.C. Humphreys, 2011-05-01 Vlad The Last Confession is a novel about the real man behind the Bram Stoker myth. It tells of the Prince, the warrior, the lover, the torturer, the survivor, and ultimately the hero, Dracula. A name of horror, depravity, and the darkest sensuality. Yet the real Dracula was just as alluring, just as terrifying, his tale not one of a monster but of a man and a contradiction. His tale is told by those who knew him best. The only woman he ever loved and whom he has to sacrifice. His closest comrade and traitor. And his priest betraying the secrets of the confessional to reveal the mind of the man history would forever remember as The Impaler. This is the story of the man behind the legend, as it has never been told before. Trust nothing that you've heard. Winter 1431, a son is born to the Prince of Transylvania. His father christened him Vlad. His people knew him as The Dragon's Son. His enemies reviled him as Tepes, The Impaler. He became the hero of a nation. We know him as Dracula.
