From That Place in My Heart Gianina Sipitca, 2013-03-12 I started writing poetry in my early forties When I was younger I was much shier in my writings and never would have imagined I would someday write my own poems I used to read a lot of poetry mostly the Romanian classics like Mihai Eminescu George Cosbuc Topirceanu Alexandri the French poets Baudelaire La Fontaine or the likes of Pablo Neruda whom I later discovered My poetry is inspired by life yet just like the classics when I write I like to let my imagination go and pretend that I am composing a fictional piece This is why sometimes even the rhythm changes not only the rhyme of each verse within the poem I have a poetic nature and I am drawn to metaphors but I can also use description to depict a story in the most honest direct way while allowing for the poetical value to be revealed within the content of the whole poem I do not like to be constrained in any way and my poetry is generally free verse with some rhyme I get my inspiration from love spirituality or politics I write directly in Romanian or English and sometimes

French Some of my poems can be very closely drawn from my life such as those dedicated to my brother Catalin or to my husband Mihai Others can have a link or be inspired by the work of others In both cases I tend to maintain a close involvement and satisfy my need for deeper spirituality closer relationship to God and love for those close to me or generally for fellow man I would not consider myself an erudite and my poetry is simple Hardship pain love sheer joy despair or anxiousness they all inspired me at one point or another I have lived them all and all those experiences made me what I am today In my poem Never Bowed or in Key To The West I talk about my pride and difficulties I felt when trying to integrate in the American society while a first generation emigrant We Had to Get Out of That Place Steven Grzesik,2022-09-20 Steven Grzesik s counter culture experience in Greenwich Village ended with a bad acid trip followed by a draft notice The Vietnam War then at its height seemed doomed to failure by cynical politicians and a skeptical public a prediction he weighed against his sense of duty to himself and to his country Through a variety of combat duties with the infantry the 36th Engineer Battalion F Co 75th Rangers and the 174th Assault Helicopter Co and several close calls with death Grzesik s detailed memoir recounts his two tours in country where he hoped merely to survive with a semblance of heroism yet ultimately redefined himself Margate!!!
