The Abandoned Bride:

The Abandoned Bride Edith Layton, 1985 The Abandoned Bride Jane Toombs, 1998 The Abandoned Bride by Jane Toombs released on Jul 25 1995 is available now for purchase The Abandoned Bride: My Baby's Daddy Is In Love With Us Dinnah, Stop the car Shouted Albert Boss I said stop the car or you are fired Albert said coldly Screeeeeeeech the driver stepped on the emergency break Before he could react his boss had already flung the door and was running towards a certain direction Let s go home Hearing the word home Velma looked at the man before her dumbly Let s go home Albert repeated himself Before waiting for Velma to reply he took her hand and led her to the car Marriage, Divorce, and the Abandoned Wife in Jewish Law Michael J. Broyde, 2001 One of the most vexing problems to confront American Orthodox Jewry is where a wife is abandoned by her husband who refuses to give her a Jewish divorce This work seeks to explain the agunah problem in the United States It notes that the contemporary agunah problem in America is radically different than that of contemporary Israel and completely different than the talmudic agunah problem The thesis of this book is that the agunah problem in contemporary America is part of a more general dispute in classical Jewish law as to when marriage should end Thus this book surveys how Jewish law seeks to respond to the consent of the other party or without a finding of fault It concludes by noting that prenuptial agreements can successfully address the agunah problem in the United States since they provide a way for couples to create an image of marriage and divorce by which they can agree to live Michael J Broyde is an Associate Professor of Law at Emory University and the Academic Director of Law and Religion Program at Emory University He is a member dayan in the Beth Din of America and was the director of that Beth Din while on sabbatical from Emory In addition he is the founding rabbi of the Young Israel synagogue in Atlanta Professor Broyde is the author of The Pursuit of Justice in Jewish Law and co author of Human Rights in Judaism Amazon com Abandoned Bride Bryan Thompson, 2017-12-13 The Ohio State Reformatory is the mecca that Bryan and Little Alice have made annual trips to in the mission of stretching their boundaries in dark romantic art On the final excursion they took together Little Alice expressed the anguish of her failing marriage through photographic story telling Short stories pull the reader down into the darkness of despair that arises when a marriage is falling apart Poetry reveals the raw hurt and bitterness of a betrayed heart Personal journal entries lay bare the confusion of a life in transition Abandoned Brides is a collection that showcases how painful it can be when you realize soul mate was truly a monster in disguise This collection features photos by photographer Bryan Thompson of Graffiti Photographic with model Little Alice at the Ohio State Reformatory in Mansfield OH Short stories and poems written by Little Alice drape a shroud of darkness over the tragedy that is divorce The Honor of the Name Émile Gaboriau, 1908 Floodpath Jon Wilkman, 2018-01-16 Floodpath attempts to rescue the disaster from obscurity The author captures many heartbreaking stories of survivors The effect is powerful The Wall Street Journal Just before midnight on March 12 1928 the St Francis Dam a twenty story high concrete structure just fifty miles north of Los Angeles suddenly collapsed releasing a devastating flood that roared fifty four miles to the Pacific Ocean destroying everything in its path It was a horrific catastrophe yet one which today is virtually forgotten With research gathered over more than two decades award winning writer and filmmaker Jon Wilkman revisits the deluge that claimed nearly five hundred lives A key figure is William Mulholland the self taught engineer who created an unprecedented water system allowing Los Angeles to become America s second largest city and who was also responsible for the design and construction of the St Francis Dam Driven by eyewitness accounts and combining urban history with a life and death drama and a technological detective story Floodpath grippingly reanimates the reality behind L A noir fictions like the classic film Chinatown In an era of climate change increasing demand on water resources and a neglected American infrastructure the tragedy of the St Francis Dam has never been more relevant

Women and War in Antiquity Jacqueline Fabre-Serris,Alison Keith,2015-12-15 Women in ancient Greece and Rome played a much more active role in battle than previously assumed The martial virtues courage loyalty cunning and strength were central to male identity in the ancient world and antique literature is replete with depictions of men cultivating and exercising these virtues on the battlefield In Women and War in Antiquity sixteen scholars reexamine classical sources to uncover the complex but hitherto unexplored relationship between women and war in ancient Greece and Rome They reveal that women played a much more active role in battle than previously assumed embodying martial virtues in both real and mythological combat The essays in the collection taken from the first meeting of the European Research Network on Gender Studies in Antiquity approach the topic from philological historical and material culture perspectives The contributors examine discussions of women and war in works that span the ancient canon from Homer s epics and the major tragedies in Greece to Seneca s stoic writings in first century Rome They consider a vast panorama of scenes in which women are portrayed as spectators critics victims causes and beneficiaries of war This deft volume which ultimately challenges the conventional scholarly opposition of standards of masculinity and femininity will appeal to scholars and students of the classical world European warfare and gender studies
