International Abstracts of Surgery, 1914 Lloyd's Register of Shipping 1874 Lloyd's Register

Foundation, 1874-01-01 The Lloyd's Register of Shipping records the details of merchant vessels over 100 gross tonnes which are self-propelled and sea-going regardless of classification. Before the time only those vessels classed by Lloyd's Register were listed. Vessels are listed alphabetically by their current name. Print Prices Current, 1924 Being a complete alphabetical record of all engravings and etchings sold by auction in London, each item annotated with the date of sale and price realised. Landscapes and the Augustan Revolution Sergio España-Chamorro, María del Carmen Moreno

Escobar, 2025-07-09 This book centres on the transformation of landscapes focusing on the Western Mediterranean during the end of the Roman Republic and the Early Roman Empire. This volume brings together diverse contributions that utilise both theoretical and practical approaches from landscape studies and archaeology to examine the transitions to the Empire in the provincial landscapes of the western Roman Empire. Focusing on wider processes of change and continuity identified through diverse approaches e.g. settlement patterns, mobility and communication and military expansion and methods e.g. spatial analysis, remote sensing and GIS, the contributions highlight the profound socio-economic, political and environmental factors whose interplay shaped the region. In doing so, the book underscores the agency of local communities in shaping their landscapes and their varied responses to Imperial policies, thus generating new insights into the processes of social and political change brought about by Augustan reforms and how these were implemented and experienced at the local level. This book will be of interest to students and researchers of archaeology and ancient history, particularly those focused on Roman and landscape archaeology. Transatlantic Broadway M. Schweitzer, 2015-03-03 Transatlantic Broadway traces the infrastructural networks and technological advances that supported the globalization of popular entertainment in the pre-World War I period, with a specific focus on the production and performance of Broadway as physical space, dream factory and glorious machine. Nothing Less Than War Justus D. Doenecke, 2011-04-22 When war broke out in Europe in 1914, political leaders in the United States were swayed by popular opinion to remain neutral; yet less than three years later the nation declared war on Germany. In Nothing Less Than War: A New History of America's Entry into World War I, Justus D. Doenecke examines the clash of opinions over the war during this transformative period and offers a fresh perspective on America's decision to enter World War I. Doenecke reappraises the public and private diplomacy of President Woodrow Wilson and his closest advisors and explores in great depth the response of Congress to the war. He also investigates the debates that raged in the popular media and among citizen groups that sprang up across the country as the U.S. economy was threatened by European blockades and as Americans died on ships sunk by German U-boats. The decision to engage in battle ultimately belonged to Wilson, but as Doenecke demonstrates, Wilson's choice was not made in isolation. Nothing Less Than War provides a comprehensive examination of America's internal political climate and its changing international role during
