The 52nd Floor: Thinking Deeply About Leadership David A. Levy, James E. Parco, Fred R. Blass, 2010-05 Anyone who has worked for a large organization understands that all bureaucracies demand to be fed Some of these bureaucracies can develop insatiable appetites and when they do the defining aspect between success and failure is often good leadership But what is good leadership Leaders are responsible for making sense of the ambiguity that emerges from the complex relationships that define organizations They provide the frames to help us understand what we see But when meaning and purpose begin to fade from the day to day tasks special projects and reports we are left to wonder whether we are observing mere nonsense or something else we just don't understand How can we know We must ask questions good questions Any meaningful attempt to understand the complexities of organizational life requires considerable reflection upon one's own thinking Through a collection of stories The 52nd Floor Thinking Deeply About Leadership takes readers on a reflective journey where they can discover for themselves the right questions to ask to create a path to become a better leader Welcome to the 52nd Floor Treasury of Presidential Quotations William J. Federer, 2004 Handsomely displayed quotations in an easy to read format this inspiring collection contains quotations from every U S President from George Washington to George W Bush drawn from various addresses memoirs proclamations correspondence and other sources

The President's Accidental Wife Blue Fruity, After getting drunk at a wedding party Summer Hart had spent a night with a man She then found herself pregnant after that She wanted to keep the child but the man had other plans She tried to run away but was caught If you want to keep the child marry me We'll divorce after two years and meanwhile don't touch me not even holding hands the man said backing her into a corner She found the man utterly shameless Holding hands Dream on After the marriage the man said I know you are scared Let's sleep together tonight I'm not scared I saw you in a dream and heard you say you're scared and want to sleep with me Have you no shame Mark Valentine Shame What is shame
