Versification Frog,Satu Grünthal,Kati Kallio,Jarkko Niemi,2021-12-24 Versification describes the marriage of language and poetic form through which poetry is produced Formal principles such as metre alliteration rhyme or parallelism take precedence over syntax and prosody resulting in expressions becoming organised as verse rather than prose The aesthetic appeal of poetry is often linked to the potential for this process to seem mysterious or almost magical not to mention the interplay of particular expressions with forms and expectations The dynamics of versification thus draw a general interest for everyone from enthusiasts of poetry or forms of verbal art to researchers of folklore ethnomusicology linguistics literature philology and more The authors of the works in the present volume explore versification from a variety of angles and in diverse cultural milieus The focus is on metrics in practice meaning that the authors concentrate not so much on the analysis of the metrical systems per se as on the ways that metres are used and varied in performance by individual poets and in relationship to language A History of Twentieth-century African Literatures Oyekan Owomoyela,1993-01-01 African literatures says volume editor Oyekan Owomoyela testify to the great and continuing impact of the colonizing project on the African universe African writers must struggle constantly to define for themselves and other just what Africa is and who they are in a continent constructed as a geographic and cultural entity largely by Europeans This study reflects the legacy of colonialism by devoting nine of its thirteen chapters to literature in Europhone languages English French and Portuguese Foremost among the Anglophone writers discussed are Nigerians Amos Tutuola Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka Writers from East Africa are also represented as are those from South Africa Contributors for this section include Jonathan A Peters Arlene A Elder John F Povey Thomas Knipp and J Ndukaku Amankulor In African Francophone literature we see both writers inspired by the French assimilationist system and those influenced by Negritude the African culture affirmation movement Contributors here include Servanne Woodward Edris Makward and Alain Ricard African literature in Portuguese reflecting the nature of one of the most oppressive colonizing projects in Africa is treated by Russell G Hamilton Robert Cancel
