had it not been lost for some fifty years Scholars in communication cultural and museum studies will benefit from this exploration of Parker s thought as will those interested in sensory studies and the enduring value of McLuhan s ideas

Airport Aura Lilia Mironov,2020-02-26 Throughout the 20th century and into the 21st the emergence of airports as gateways for their cities has turned into one of the most important architectural undertakings Ever since the first manned flight by the Brothers Orville and Wilbur Wright on December 17th 1903 utilitarian sheds next to landing strips on cow pastures evolved into a completely new building type over the next few decades into places of Modernism as envisioned by Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright who themselves never built an airport to eventually turn into icons of cultural identity progress and prosperity Many of these airports have become architectural branding devices of their respective cities regions and countries created by some of the most notable contemporary architects This interdisciplinary cultural study deals with the historical formation and transformation of the architectural typology of airports under the aspect of spatial theories This includes the shift from early spaces of transportation such as train stations the synesthetic effect of travel and mobility and the effects of material innovations on the development occupation and use of such spaces The changing uses from mere utilitarian transportation spaces to ones centered on the spectacular culture of late capitalism consumption and identity formation in a rapidly changing global culture are analyzed with examples both from architectural and philosophical points of view The future of airport architecture and design very much looks like the original idea of the Crystal Palace and Parisian Arcades to provide a stage for consumption social theatre and art exhibition The Promise of Sociology Rob Beamish, 2016-01-01 The second edition of this award winning introduction to sociology has been substantially revised throughout including improved connections between the discussion of millennials and Mills's concept of the sociological imagination Transferred Illusions Marilyn Deegan, Kathryn Sutherland, 2016-02-24 This is a study of the forms and institutions of print newspapers books scholarly editions publishing libraries as they relate to and are changed by emergent digital forms and institutions In the early 1990s hypertext was briefly hailed as a liberating writing tool for non linear creation Fast forward no more than a decade and we are reading old books from screens It is however the newspaper for around two hundred years print's most powerful mass vehicle whose economy persuasively shapes its electronic remediation through huge digitization initiatives dominated by a handful of centralizing service providers funded and wrapped round by online advertising The error is to assume a culture of total replacement The Internet is just another information space sharing characteristics that have always defined such spaces wonderfully effective and unstable loaded with valuable resources and misinformation that is both good and bad This is why it is important that writers critics publishers and librarians in modern parlance the knowledge providers be critically engaged in shaping and regulating cyberspace and not merely the passive instruments or unreflecting users of the digital tools in our hands Literature After Globalization Philip Leonard, 2013-02-14 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2014 Literature after Globalization offers a detailed study of recent literary and theoretical responses to technology globalization and national identity Focusing on texts of the the 1990s and 2000s particularly novels and other writing by Mark Danielewski Hari Kunzru Indra Sinha and Neal Stephenson it charts a departure from narratives of globalization which declare the collapse of national cultures and it considers how national sovereignty has been reinvented and reasserted in the face of technology's transnational effects Drawing upon recent theoretical responses to technology and culture including work by Yochai Benkler Manuel Castells Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida N Katherine Hayles Paul Virilio and McKenzie Wark this book will explore how in these novels the notion of an inclusive globalization has been replaced by a sense of national globalism AI and Language in the Urban Context Richard Coyne, 2025-04-08 In a world influenced increasingly by artificial intelligence AI the city emerges as a dynamic hub of digital

The Digital Nexus Raphael Foshay, 2016-02-01 Over half a century ago in The Gutenberg Galaxy 1962 Marshall McLuhan noted that the overlap of traditional print and new electronic media like radio and television produced widespread upheaval in personal and public life Even without collision such co-existence of technologies and awareness brings trauma and tension to every living person Our most ordinary and conventional attitudes seem suddenly twisted into gargoyles and grotesques Familiar institutions and associations seem at times menacing and malignant These multiple transformations which are the normal consequence of introducing new media into any society whatever need special study The trauma and tension in the daily lives of citizens as described here by McLuhan was only intensified by the arrival of digital media and the Web in the following decades The rapidly evolving digital realm held a powerful promise for creative and constructive good a promise so alluring that much of the inquiry into this new environment focused on its potential rather than its profound impact on every sphere of civic commercial and private life The totalizing scope of the combined effects of computerization and the worldwide network are the subject of the essays in The Digital Nexus a volume that responds to McLuhan s request for a special study of the tsunami like transformation of the communication landscape These critical excursions provide analysis of and insight into the way new media technologies change the workings of social engagement for personal expression social interaction and political engagement The contributors investigate the terms and conditions under which our digital society is unfolding and provide compelling arguments for the need to develop an accurate grasp of the architecture of the Web and the challenges that ubiquitous connectivity undoubtedly delivers to both public and private life Contributions by Ian Angus Maria Bakardjieva Daryl Campbell Sharone Daniel Andrew Feenberg Raphael Foshay Carolyn Guertin David J Gunkel Bob Hanke Leslie Lindballe Mark McCutcheon Roman Onufrijchuk Josipa G Petruni Peter J Smith Lorna Stefanick Karen Wall Refresh the Book ,2021-04-26 Refresh the Book contains reflections on the multimodal nature of the book focusing on its changing perception functions forms and potential in the digital age Offering an overview of key concepts and approaches such as liberature technotexts and bookishness this volume of essays addresses the specificity of the printed book as a complex cultural phenomenon It discusses diverse forms of representation and expression both in literary and non literary texts as well as in artist s books Of special interest are these aspects of the book which resist remediation into the digital form Finally the volume contains an extensive section devoted to artistic practice as research discussing the book as the synthesis of the arts and site for performative aesthetic activity Christin Barbarino Katarzyna Bazarnik Christoph Bl si Sarah Bodman Zenon Fajfer Annette Gilbert Susanne Gramatzki Mareike Herbstreit Viola Hildebrand Schat Thomas Hvid Kromann Monika J ger Eva Linhart Bettina Lockemann Patrizia Meinert Bernhard Metz Sebastian Schmideler Monika Schmitz Emans Christoph Benjamin Schulz usus Uta Schneider Ulrike Stoltz Anne Thurmman Jajes Sakine Weikert Gabriele Wix
