The Hallelujah Flight:

The Hallelujah Flight Phil Bildner, 2010-01-07 The extraordinary story of James Banning the first African American pilot to fly across country During the Great Depression the ace black pilot James Banning decided to fly from coast to coast to serve as an inspiration to people everywhere So with a little ingenuity and a whole lot of heart he fixed up the dilapidated OXX6 Eagle Rock plane with his co pilot and mechanic Thomas Allen earning them the derisive nickname The Flying Hobos But with the help of friends and family along the way who signed their names on the wings of the plane in exchange for food fuel and supplies Banning and Allen made it through treacherous weather and overcame ruthless prejudice to receive a heroes welcome upon landing in New York on October 9 1932 This exceptional story of determination and pride shown through John Holyfield s energetic flight scenes and sweeping landscapes will put you in the cockpit right alongside Banning and Allen as they complete the journey of a lifetime The Hallelujah Flight Jack Lynn, 1989 The Hallelujah Flight Jack Lynn, 1998-03 Without sponsorship or ceremony united only by their passion for flying James H Banning Thomas C Allen two black aviators took off from Dycer Airport Los Angeles in their extraordinary ancient patched up aircraft with only 25 00 to their names to make aviation history to become the first black Americans to fly across America from coast to coast Beset by overwhelming odds facing ridicule racial bigotry enduring hostility outright violence this duo begged borrowed their way across the continent making over 20 scheduled unscheduled stops on their action packed journey Flight, 1922 Up in the Air Philip S. Hart, 2009-08-01 When she was growing up in Waxahachie Texas in the early 1900s young Bessie Coleman had to do without a lot of things Because she was black she went to inferior schools Because her mother worked to support the family Bessie often had to stay at home to watch her younger sisters But Bessie Coleman always knew she would make something of her life In 1920 she became the first African American woman to fly an airplane Struggling against prejudice and lack of funds Coleman built a career as a barn storming pilot in the 1920s Although she did not live to realize her dream of opening a school for black aviators she was by her example a source of inspiration to generations of flyers dreamers and achievers to come American Historical Fiction Lynda G. Adamson, 1998-10-21 This publication will fill a gap in the bibliographic reference shelf by identifying historical novels for both adult and young adult readers I American Historical Fiction R contains over 3 000 titles set in states and historical regions of the United States Entries are organized by time period The newest titles as well as old favorites are covered The volume is indexed by author title genre subject and geographic setting Getting at the Core of the Common Core with Social Studies Thomas N. Turner, Jeremiah Clabough, William Cole, 2014-11-01 For social studies teachers reeling from the buffeting of top down educational reforms this volume offers answers to questions about dealing with the Common Core State Standards CCSS Each chapter presents and reviews pertinent standards that relate to the social studies Each chapter also deals with significant topics in the social studies from various social sciences to processes such as inquiry to key skills needed for success in social studies such as analysis and literacy The most important aspect of these chapters though is the array of adaptable activities that is included in each chapter Teachers can find practical approaches to dealing with CCSS across the social studies panorama The multiple authorships of the various chapters mean a variety of perspectives and viewpoints are presented All of the authors have fought in the trenches of K 12 public education Their activities reflect this in a way that will be useful to novice or veteran teachers

Knights in Training Heather Haupt,2017-05-30 Bringing chivalry back into our modern day world this book shows us how to inspire today s generation of young boys to pursue honor courage and compassion In an age when respect and honor seem like distant and antiquated relics how can we equip boys to pursue valor and courageously put the needs of others before their own This book helps parents to inspire their boys by captivating their imagination and honoring their love for adventure Heather Haupt explores how knights historically lived out various aspects of the knights Code of Chivalry as depicted in the French epic Song of Roland and how boys can embody these same ideals now When we issue the challenge and give boys the reasons why it is worth pursuing we step forward on an incredible journey towards raising the kind of boys who just like the knights of old make an impact in their world now and for the rest of their lives A to Zoo

Duke,2013-12-02 Librarians can use this book to become leaders in their schools collaborating with teachers to keep them abreast of resources that will facilitate the inclusion of STEM in the curriculum Teaching STEM and Common Core with Mentor Text explains the basics of STEM Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics and shows how librarians can become a key component in STEM education guiding teachers and sparking interest through the books and technology inherent in their curriculum. The volume offers 20 mentor texts plus in-depth collaborative lesson plans linked to the Common Core Standards for K-5 librarians. There are additional lessons for classroom teachers as well as activities that can easily be done in the library or classroom. Each lesson includes mentor text information, an overview of the lesson, step-by-step lesson plans, assessment options, and extension activities. By implementing these lessons in the library, librarians will be able to cover multiple Common Core State Standards and science standards and at the same time establish the library as a resource for teaching STEM subjects. Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Pamela J. Farris, 2024-01-11. The eighth edition continues to be an invaluable resource for creative strategies and proven techniques to teach social studies. Pamela Farris's popular, reasonably priced book aids classroom teachers in inspiring students to be engaged learners and to build on their prior knowledge. The book is comprehensive and easy to understand, providing instruction sensitive to the needs of all elementary and middle school learners. Creative concepts for teaching diverse learners. Strategies for incorporating the C3 Framework to enrich K-8 curriculum. Integration of inquiry skills with literacy and language arts skills. Multifaceted, meaningful activities emphasize problem solving, decision making, and critical thinking. Myriad ideas for incorporating primary sources as well as technology. Annotated lists of children's literature at the end of each chapter. Multicultural focus throughout the broad coverage of history, geography, civics, and economics. NCSS Standards, Linked Lesson Plans, C3 Framework Plans, and Interdisciplinary Thematic Units. Social studies explores the variety and complexity of human experience. The book emphasizes the value of social studies in preparing students to become valuable community members and to participate respectfully in a diverse society. Getting Through Robert N. Taylor, 2013-11. Getting Through is the story of an ordinary, undistinguished, retired aeronautical engineer who recounts his experiences from late childhood through an idyllic adolescence, a mediocre public school education, a thwarted flying career, a bitching time in the Air Force, a second-tier, now defunct engineering college, a marriage that went bad, and a career of underlying discontent with a few failures and some successes. Included are his father's life recollections and the author's thoughts on philosophy, religion, nature and nurture, warfare, and the meaning of life, ending with accumulations of life's journey, things done, places been, best books read, and the distance traveled on planet Earth. Getting Through replete with wit, wisdom, and ignorance tells us that no life is ever ordinary and that everyone's story is worth telling. The Andover Review, 1884.
