Evans invited him to join the New Deal's Farm Security Administration. As a photographer, Shahn documented the Depression in the American South with Evans and Dorothea Lange. During the war years, he worked for the Office of War Information (OWI) producing propaganda posters before returning to painting. Toward the end of his life, he worked as a commercial artist, taught, and wrote about art, including The Biography of a Painting (1956) and The Shape of Content (1960). Howard Greenfeld's biography is the first complete life of the artist and is illustrated with 90 of his photographs, pictures, and paintings. Howard Greenfeld's approach scrupulously balances the personal and the political to provide a rounded portrait that gives a convincing sense of a determined individual making his mark as an immigrant in the turbulent America of depression and war, social upheaval, and reaction.
