Adventures in the Stone Age Leopold Jaroslav Pospíšil, 2021-11-01 When Leopold Posp il first arrived in New Guinea in 1954 to investigate the legal systems of the local tribes he was warned about the Kapauku who reputedly had no laws Dubious that any society could exist without laws Posp il immediately decided to live among and study the Kapauku Learning the language and living as a participant observer among the Kapauku Posp il discovers that the supposedly primitive society possesses laws rules and social structures that are as sophisticated as they are logical Having survived the Nazi occupation of Czechoslovakia and fled the Communist regime Posp il has little patience for the notion that so called advanced civilizations are superior to the stone age society in which he now lives On the basis of his research and experiences among the Kapauku he would stay with them five times between 1954 and 1979 Pospil pioneered in the field of legal anthropology holding a professorship at Yale serving as the anthropology curator of the Peabody Museum of Natural History and publishing three books of scholarship on the Kapauku law As Jaroslav Jik and Martin Soukup write in their afterword however His three previously published works are about the Kapauku this one is about the anthropologist among the Kapauku The memoir is filled with charming anecdotes and thrilling stories of trials travels and war told with humor and humility and accompanied by a wealth of the author's personal photos from the time
