Slave Of The Passion:

Not Passion's Slave Robert C. Solomon, 2003-01-30 The idea that we are in some significant sense responsible for our emotions is an idea that Robert Solomon has developed for almost three decades Here in a single volume he traces the development of this theory of emotions and elaborate it in detail Two themes run through his work the first presents a cognitive theory of emotions in which emotions are construed primarily as evaluative judgments The second proposes an existentialist perspective in which he defends the idea that as we are responsible for our emotions Indeed sometimes it even makes sense to say that we choose them While the first claim has gained increasing currency in the literature his claim about responsibility for emotions has continued to meet with considerable resistance and misinterpretation The new emphasis on evolutionary biology and neurology has mistakenly reinforced the popular prejudice that emotions happen to us and are entirely beyond our control This volume is also a kind of intellectual memoir of Solomon's own development as a thinker The essays written in the 1980s elaborate the themes of the intentionality of emotion and the claim that emotions are judgments in this period he is also increasingly preoccupied with how emotions vary and are identified in a variety of cultures In the 1990s his interests evolve to consider the social and political role of emotions and theories about emotion The final section presents his current philosophical position on the seeming passivity of the passions Despite his own critical assessment of his earlier work he continues to argue that in the final analysis we are responsible for our emotions and existential quality of our lives

The Passion for Happiness Adam Potkay, 2000 Although widely perceived as inhabiting different even opposed literary worlds Samuel Johnson 1709-1784 and David Hume 1711-1776 shared common ground as moralists Adam Potkay traces their central concerns to Hellenistic philosophy as conveyed by Cicero and to earlier moderns such as Addison and Mandeville Johnson's and Hume's large and diverse bodies of writings Potkay says are unified by several key questions What is happiness What is the role of virtue in the happy life What is the proper relationship between passion and reflection in the happy or flourishing individual In their writings Johnson and Hume largely agree upon what flourishing means for both human beings and the communities they inhabit They also tell a common story about the history that led up to the enlightened age of eighteenth century Europe On the divisive topic of religion these two great men of letters wrote with a decorum that characterizes the Enlightenment in Britain as compared to its French counterpart In The Passion for Happiness Adam Potkay illuminates much that philosophers and historians do not ordinarily appreciate about Hume and that literary scholars might not recognize about Johnson

Harvey,2013-07-23 A modern mystic and religious scholar presents a stunning collection of Rumi poems and reveals how the Sufi poet s words can guide us through spiritual and ecological crisis The minds of two mystics intermingle in a work of inspired vision and clarity Jalalud Din Rumi enlightened spiritualist poet of Sufism has been venerated by Moslems everywhere since his death in 1273 No other poet in history not even Shakespeare or Dante has made so exalted and comprehensive an impact on his own civilization In the latter part of the 20th century he has become for people of every race and creed the poet of the new mystical Renaissance that is slowly but surely coming to its flowering No one has done more than Andrew Harvey to spread popular awareness of Rumi s message Himself a charismatic mystic he has spent the last 20 years of his life in search of the essential truths that could transform the spiritual barrenness at the heart of modern Western civilization In his books Love s Fire and Speaking Flame he has re created Rumi s poems with a brilliance that speaks eloquently to us today The Way of Passion draws on the poems to present a guide to the contemporary spiritual and ecological crisis Each chapter Harvey tells us is a dance a dance of mirrors in which essential spiritual themes return to be reflected in different constellations and harmonies a dance around Rumi and that mystery of Love he lived and expressed so completely Inspired by Rumi s voice and by his own startling ability to see into the innermost heart of life Harvey urges us to change to have faith and to act through Love to transform this time of Apocalypse into the time of Resurrection The passion of his words shines from the pages with an intensity that can embrace and inspire us all Regulating Passion Kelly A.

Ryan,2014-03-25 Sexual regulation and reputation were critical tools in maintaining early Massachusetts hierarchy A reputation for sexual virtue was most easily maintained by elites who had the means to avoid sexual regulation Regulating Passion examines how the American Revolution changed the nature of patriarchal rule by shattering old ways of penalizing and publishing illicit sexual behavior and more people embarked on policing the sexual morality of society Bulletin University of South Carolina,1907 Passion Narratives and Gospel Theologies Frank Matera,2001-06-28 Although the passion narratives of the synoptic gospels can be read as free standing narrative each one of them is the goal and climax of the Gospel story that precedes it In Passion Narratives and Gospel Theologies Frank Matera describes the intimate relationship between the theology of each of the synoptic gospels and its passion narrative Matera s study of the Markan passion narrative in light of the Gospel s theology shows that no one can confess that Jesus is the Son of God until he or she acknowledges Jesus as the crucified Messiah and no one can be Jesus disciple unless he or she accepts the scandal of the cross While the Gospel of Matthew continues to develop the great themes of Mark s gospel Matera argues that its passion narrative manifests a distinctive ecclesiological and ethical outlook in light of its unique gospel theology Finally Matera demonstrates how the Lukan passion narrative by presenting Jesus as a model of innocent suffering also contains a distinctive outlook in light of its gospel theology God s righteous suffer afflictions by trial and persecution Comprehensive in scope and clearly written Passion Narratives and Gospel Theologies provides a much needed introduction to the synoptic passion narratives and the theology of each evangelist It will be welcome by students and pastors

Radical Passion Andrew Harvey,2012-10-23 This culmination of award winning author Andrew Harvey s life s work bridges the great divide between spiritual resignation and engaged spiritual activism A manifesto for the transformation of the world through the fusion of deep mystical peace with the clarity of radical wisdom it is a wake up call to put love and compassion to urgent focused action According to Harvey we are in a massive global crisis reflected by a mass media addicted to violence and trivialization at a moment when what the world actually needs is profound inspiration a return to the heart centered way of the Divine Feminine the words of the mystics throughout the ages and the cultivation of the nonviolent philosophies of Gandhi Nelson Mandela Aung San Suu Kyi and the Dalai Lama Harvey s concepts of radical passion and sacred activism fly in the face of restraint of pessimism of denial of all that is inhumane fusing the mystic's passion for God with the activist's passion for justice and for healing the division between heaven and earth heart and will body and soul prayer and action Sacred activism asks that we engage deeply on a personal spiritual and political level so as to become a fully empowered fully active and contemplative humanity that can turn tragedy into grace and desolation into the opportunity to build and co create a new world Unlike many spiritual books Radical Passion does not veil the dark with artificial hope It explores the catastrophes of our current times and celebrates the ecstatic hope and divinity that is possible right now and in the future

Literary Passion, Ideological Commitment Dawn Duke, 2008 This study examines Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian women writers as well as analysing the roles of women of African descent in Cuban and Brazilian literature Initially literary imagination locked women into circumscribed roles a result of hierarchies embedded in slavery and colonialism and sustained by hierarchical theories on race and gender The discussion illustrates how these negative aspects have influenced the mainstream literary imagination that contrasts with the self portrayals created by women writers themselves Even as there continues to be disadvantageous constructions there is no doubt that a modification has occurred over time in images representation and articulation It is a change directly associated with the instances when women themselves are the writers The historiographic image of the Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian woman as a written object is ideologically replaced by a vision of her as a writing subject It is here that the vision of a creative multifaceted and diversified literature becomes important
