Between the millstones, 2015-02-27 Since June 2014 the rapid spread of ISIS Islamic State of Iraq and al Sham forces across northern Iraq has triggered a wave of displacement with more than 2 million people uprooted Ethnic and religious minorities have been particularly targeted including Christians Kakai Shabak Turkmen and Yezidis with thousands killed and many more injured or abducted Summary executions forced conversion rape sexual enslavement the destruction of places of worship the abduction of children the looting of property and other severe human rights abuses have been committed repeatedly by ISIS This report Between the Millstones The State of Iraq's Minorities Since the Fall of Mosul draws on extensive interviews fieldwork and research to document the plight of Iraq's minorities since June 2014 While minorities have long been vulnerable to attacks by extremists this violence appears to be part of a systematic strategy to remove these communities permanently from areas where they have lived for centuries The current situation for the millions of displaced persons in Iraq many of whom belong to minority groups is characterized by deteriorating humanitarian conditions Many are without adequate food water health care shelter and other necessities with women and children especially vulnerable With little support or protection many Iraqis from minorities are now contemplating a life permanently outside the country To ensure their continued presence in Iraq

authorities and other stakeholders must not only ensure their immediate protection but also promote a more inclusive future for minorities in Iraq
