Solar Pons Omnibus Volume 2:

The Original Text Solar Pons Omnibus Edition August Derleth, 2000      The Solar Pons Omnibus August Derleth, 1982

The Solar Pons Omnibus is a collection of detective fiction stories by author August Derleth. The set collects all of the Solar Pons stories of August Derleth. The stories are pastiches of the Sherlock Holmes tales of Arthur Conan Doyle. The stories are arranged by their internal chronology rather than by the date of their release. The stories had earlier appeared under the Arkham House imprint of Mycroft Moran.

The Railroad in American Fiction Grant Burns, 2015-01-28. Nothing better represented the early spirit of American expansion than the railroad. Dominant in daily life as well as in the popular imagination, the railroad appealed strongly to creative writers. For many years fiction of railroad life and travel was plentiful and varied. As the nineteenth century receded, the railroad's allure faded as did railroad fiction. Today it is hard to sense what the railroad once meant to Americans. The fiction of the railroad, often by railroaders themselves, recaptures that sense and provides valuable insights on American cultural history. This extensively annotated bibliography lists and discusses in 956 entries novels and short stories from the 1840s to the present in which the railroad is important. Each entry includes plot and character description to help the reader make an informed decision on the source's merit. A detailed introduction discusses the history of railroad fiction and highlights common themes such as strikes, hoboes, and the roles of women and African Americans. Such writers of pure railroad fiction as Harry Bedwell, Frank Packard, and Cy Warman are well represented along with such literary artists as Mark Twain, Thomas Wolfe, Flannery O'Connor, and Ellen Glasgow. Work by minority writers including Jean Toomer, Richard Wright, Frank Chin, and Toni Morrison also receives close attention. An appendix organizes entries by decade of publication, and the work is indexed by subject and title.

Horrors and Unpleasantries Sheldon Jaffery, 1982      The Universal Sherlock Holmes Ronald Burt De Waal, 1994      Arkham House Books Leon Nielsen, 2015-02-18. This reference work covers the supernatural and speculative fiction published by Arkham House Publishers Inc. of Sauk City, Wisconsin. In 1937, promising Wisconsin writer August Derleth decided to publish a collection of the stories of his recently deceased friend H.P. Lovecraft. After two years of failed attempts, Derleth and another Lovecraft fan, Donald Wandrei, published the collection themselves under the name of Arkham. In the years that followed, Arkham House published the works of many of the foremost American and British writers of weird fiction, including Basil Copper, Lord Dunsany, Robert E. Howard, and Robert Bloch. Arkham published Ray Bradbury's first book, Dark Carnival, in 1947. The work begins with a history of the house and biography of August Derleth; it also includes a chapter on H.P. Lovecraft's connection to Arkham. The main body of the text consists of chronologically listed descriptions and current values of the more than 230 titles published by Arkham House and its two imprints, Mycroft Moran and Stanton Lee. These entries detail editions, reprints, special points, restoration care, buying and selling, investment, and future trends. Other features include alphabetical indexes of titles and authors, lists of scarcity and value, ranking, a list of annual stock lists and catalogs, and a bibliography of reference.
