appeared who belong to no single identifiable tradition The Western masters have not merely transplanted the Eastern spiritual traditions to the West they have transformed these traditions by their distinctively Western approach innovative entrepreneurial and combining elements from previously unconnected Eastern traditions The new teachers are changing Western culture by making available a view of the human condition which is new in the West but very attractive to large and growing numbers of Westerners an approach Dr Rawlinson calls spiritual psychology Spiritual psychology holds that human beings are best understood in terms of consciousness and its modifications that consciousness can be changed by spiritual practice and that there are enlightened masters who have done this and can teach others Messianism and

Sociopolitical Revolution in Medieval Islam Said Amir Arjomand, 2025-10-28 This study of messianism and revolution examines an extremely rich though unexplored historical record on the rise of Islam and its sociopolitical revolutions from Muhammad's constitutive revolution in Arabia to the Abbasid revolution in the East and the Fatimid and Almohad revolutions in North Africa and the Maghreb Bringing the revolutions together in a comprehensive framework Said Amir Arjomand uses sociological theory as well as the critical tools of modern historiography to argue that a volatile but recurring combination of apocalyptic motivation and revolutionary action was a driving force of historical change time and again In addition to tracing these threads throughout 500 years of history Arjomand also establishes how messianic beliefs were rooted in the earlier Judaic and Manichaean notions of apocalyptic transformation of the world By bringing to light these linkages and factors not found in the dominant sources this text offers a sweeping account of the long arc of Islamic history By Noon Prayer
