Loss, Survive, Thrive Meryl Hershey Beck, 2019-11-22 No one is prepared for the loss of a child No one It feels completely unnatural for children to predecease their parents Although it is not widely known each year there are over 135 000 under 40 year old deaths in the U S alone And according to one study 19% of parents outlive their children often carrying the weight of horrendous grief to their own graves Isolated and alone is how parents often describe the grief process Well meaning friends and family members usually rush to their side in the beginning Once the floral arrangements have wilted and the dinners from caring friends diminish there isn t really much that can be said to bring comfort to a suffering parent especially if those friends haven t experienced it themselves Unfortunately when these caring friends do bring up the loss quite often they say the wrong things Loss Survive Thrive offers a lifeline of hope Each chapter is an inspirational story written by a parent who also experienced the agony of losing a child reclaimed his her vitality and is now living a fulfilling life Every story is authentic and heartfelt designed to uplift and inspire The collective authors reach out through the pages to virtually hold hands with those who are suffering We the contributors have all been there We know their pain and we know about survival And now through our stories we offer comfort and support in helping them get through the toughest time of their lives Bereaved parents share an unspeakable bond And Loss Survive Thrive imparts insight from what s likely the only voices that grieving parents can hear others who have walked in their shoes This book is a giant step toward healing the grieving heart

Dark Angel Elizabeth Cowley Tyler, 2010-02-17 It is October 17 1849 Chopin has just taken his last labored breath Solange Dudevant Cl singer George Sand s unloved daughter is at his bedside but Sand herself is nowhere to be found Solange deeply grieved by the loss of Chopin with whom she feels she has always been in love takes a letter fragment from the last letter Sand wrote to Chopin breaking off their relationship In the letter fragment Sand accuses Chopin of taking sides with Solange in a family battle and tells him that this has sounded the death knell for their relationship Married to a man she doesn t love Solange Dudevant Cl singer decides to try to find out why her mother abandoned Chopin and does not show up at his deathbed She begins a search of the quays of Paris claiming that she believes she saw her mother wandering them in the past few days Her mother s friend Charlotte Marlinai assures her that Sand is not in Paris but in her country home at Nohant Something in Marlinai s evasive answers and her refusal to invite Solange into her home causes Solange to suspect that perhaps she is hiding her mother In her attempt to avoid her hard drinking abusive husband who is making his bid to sculpt Chopin s funeral monument Solange retreats to their home and begins a plan to try to find out where her mother is and why she didn t appear at Chopin s bedside She begins a series of visits to the people closest to Chopin to try to learn as much as she can about the history of the relationship between Sand and Chopin and also to find out more about what people knew or didn t know about her relationship with Chopin that could have triggered such enraged jealousy in her mother She visits Charlotte again the next day to find her much more welcoming now that she isn t trying to hide a lover from her husband Charlotte begins the process of educating Solange about the history of Sand s relationship with Chopin Solange s quest is interspersed with memories of past times in Chopin s company and with fantasies of wished for greater intimacy with him The influx of information that comes to her showing the initial deep bond between Chopin and Sand doesn t dissuade Solange from believing that Chopin was truly in love with her as she was with him and that that was what caused Sand to eventually abandon him so cruelly Solange alternates between a strong belief in the fact of the love between her and Chopin and in a need to discover evidence to prove the truth of it Auguste Cl singer comes home drunk and angry because Solange is so preoccupied with her grief over Chopin that she has forgotten to join him at a dinner where he is to make his bid to sculpt the funeral monument He comes upon her in the bath abuses her verbally and forces her to have sex with him She seeks refuge the next day in the studio of Eug ne Delacroix a devoted friend of both Chopin and Sand He says he has no idea where Sand is and why she didn t appear at Chopin s deathbed Delacroix sees the bruise on her eye and promises to try to play the diplomat in mending the rupture between Solange and her husband Solange seeks refuge in the Luxembourg Gardens and meets Count Albert Grzymala a Polish ex patriot and long time friend of both Sand and Chopin Grzymala too has no idea where Sand is and is deeply grieved by the loss of his dear friend Chopin He fills in some blanks for Solange about the early days of Sand s relationship with Chopin She tries to rationalize her jealousy over the truth of the deep bond between her mother and Chopin Throughout her quest Solange is visited with dreams both divine and nightmarish Her next visit is to Jane Stirling the Scotswoman who took care of Chopin at the end paying his rent at 12 Place Vend me and for his elaborate funeral at the Church of the Madeleine Solange and Jane find comfort in one another and share a playing of one of Chopin s nocturnes Solange contrasts the purity of Jane s love for Chopin with that of her mother and the dif
