Catholic Modernism and the Irish "Avant-Garde:" The Achievement of Brian Coffey, Denis Devlin, and Thomas MacGreevey James Matthew Wilson, 2023-09-12 This study constitutes the first ever definitive account of the life and work of Irish modernist poets Thomas MacGreevey Brian Coffey and Denis Devlin Apprenticed to the likes of W B Yeats T S Eliot James Joyce and Samuel Beckett all three writers worked at the center of modernist letters in England France and the United States but did so from a distinctive perspective All three writers wrote with a deep commitment to the intellectual life of Catholicism and saw the new movement in the arts as making possible for the first time a rich sacramental expression of the divine beauty in aesthetic form MacGreevey spent his life trying to voice the Augustinian vision he found in The City of God Coffey a student of neo Thomist philosopher Jacques Maritain married scholastic thought and a densely wrought poetics to give form and solution to the alienation of modern life Devlin contemplated the world with the eyes of Montaigne and the heart of Pascal as he searched for a poetry that could realize the divine presence in the experience of the modern person Taken together MacGreevey Coffey and Devlin exemplify the modern Catholic intellectual seeking to engage the modern world on its own terms while drawing the age toward fulfillment within the mystery and splendor of the Church They stand apart from their Irish contemporaries for their religious seriousness and cosmopolitan openness of European modernism They lay bare the theological potencies of modern art and do so with a sophistication and insight distinctive to themselves Although MacGreevey Coffey and Devlin have received considerable critical attention in the past this is the first book to study their work comprehensively from MacGreevy's early poems and essays on Joyce and Eliot to Coffey's essays in the neo scholastic philosophy of science and on to Devlin's late poetic attempts to realize Dante's divine vision in a Europe shattered by war and modern doubt

Self-Interviews James Dickey, 1984-03-01 In Self Interviews James Dickey speaks thoughtfully and with candor of his life as a poet He recalls how poetry came to be his career tracing its growing importance in his life from his youth in Georgia through his years overseas with the Air Force as a student at Vanderbilt as a teacher and as a successful advertising executive He also tells of how he reworked the life around him into poetry of the fleeting impressions and lingering thoughts that were the seeds of some of his finest poems including Cherrylog Road The Lifeguard The Fiend and Falling Following only a rough outline Dickey recorded these spontaneous monologues in June 1968 not long after the publication of his Poems 1957 1967 which collected the work from his first five books These musings then date from what was in many ways a natural vantage point on his artistic development a moment ripe for recollection and analysis Dickey uses the occasion not only to look back on his career but also to consider his preferences and goals as a poet I would like to be able to write a poetry he reveals that would have something for every level of mind something that would be accessible to a child and would also give college professors and professional critics something maybe something they haven't had much of recently or indeed ever This book is not so much the autobiography of a poet as it is the biography of a poet's work Unique and revealing Self Interviews is an intimate profile of a decade in the art of one of America's finest poets

The Early Avant-Garde in Twentieth-Century Literature and Art Willard Bohn, 2018-05-11 This book focuses on avant garde literature and art in Europe and America during the first quarter of the twentieth century It examines five movements that shaped our response to the demands of the modern age and contributed to the creation of a modern sensibility Cubism Futurism the Metaphysical School Dada and Surrealism Each of these arose in response to recent scientific technological and or philosophical developments that drastically affected modern civilization In turn each was responsible for a major paradigm shift that altered the way in which we view and respond to the world around us The final chapter is comparative in nature and studies the role of the mannequin in literature and art during the same period Black World/Negro Digest, 1972-01 Founded in 1943 Negro Digest later Black World was the publication that launched Johnson Publishing During the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement Negro Digest Black World served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement Compleat Hysterion Stephen Kagarise, 2023-09-25 Compleat Hysterion is the third and final book in the Hysterion series It includes all of the poems in the first two books plus five bonus poems never before seen The Hysterion series consists of Hysterion Surrealist Love Poems Second Hysterion Compleat Hysterion Material for these poems is sourced from The Daily Astorian a historic newspaper first published in Astoria Oregon by the legendary newspaperman D C Ireland Though surrealist in technique the poems have a kernel of sense and should be accessible to any considerate reader looking for a humorous approach to the topic of love Flirtation lust and betrayal are just a few of the themes in such poems as Approved Jawbone Thus Are We Poor Thirsty Souls and Suddenly Prostrated Many characters are introduced like Elnora who promises marital bliss Uncle Jake the cynical miller and our friend Joseph dressed to impress in his outfit of corals and shells Art Journal, 1960 The Facts on File Companion to World Poetry R. Victoria Arana, 2008 The Facts On File Companion to World Poetry 1900 to the Present is a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems The Collected Poems of Philip Lamantia Philip Lamantia, 2019-10-22 The Collected Poems of Philip Lamantia represents the lifework of the most visionary poet of the American postwar generation Philip Lamantia 1927 2005 played a major role in shaping the poetics of both the Beat and the Surrealist movements in the United States First mentored by the San Francisco poet Kenneth Rexroth the teenage Lamantia also came to the attention of the French Surrealist leader Andr Breton who after reading Lamantia s youthful work hailed him as a voice that rises once in a hundred years Later Lamantia went on the road with Jack Kerouac and shared the stage with Allen Ginsberg at the famous Six Gallery reading in San Francisco where Ginsburg first read Howl Throughout his life Lamantia sought to extend and renew the visionary tradition of Romanticism in a distinctly American vernacular drawing on mystical lore and drug experience in the process The Collected Poems gathers not only his published work but also an extensive selection of unpublished or uncollected work the editors have also provided a biographical introduction Die Romische Republik EPUB 2-3, 2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems The Yale Anthology of Twentieth-century French Poetry Mary Ann Caws, 2004-01-01 An influential social thinker the late Richard Harvey Brown was professor of sociology at the University of Maryland and the author of Toward a Democratic Science Scientific Narration and Civic Communication published by Yale University Press Posting the Male Daniel Lea, Berthold Schoene-Harwood, 2003 The essays collected in Posting the Male examine representations of masculinity in post war and contemporary British literature focussing on the works of writers as diverse as John Osborne Joe Orton James Kelman Ian Rankin Carol Ann Duffy Alan Hollinghurst Ian McEwan Graham Swift and Jackie Kay The collection seeks to capture the current historical moment of crisis at which masculinity loses its universal transparency and becomes visible as a performative gender construct Rather than denoting just one fixed polarised point on a hierarchised axis of strictly segregated gender binaries masculinity is revealed to oscillate within a virtually limitless spectrum of gender identities characterised not by purity and self containment but by difference and alterity As the contributors demonstrate rather than a gender in crisis millennial manhood is a gender in transition Patriarchal strategies of man making are gradually being replaced by less exclusionary patterns of self identification inspired by feminism Men have begun to recognise themselves as gendered beings and as a result masculinity has been set in motion

Paul Celan's Encounters with Surrealism Charlotte Ryland, 2017-12-02 Paul Celan 1920-1970 one of the most important and challenging poets in post war Europe was also a prolific and highly idiosyncratic translator His post Holocaust writing is inextricably linked to the specific experiences that have shaped contemporary European and American identity and at the same time has its roots in literary philosophical and scientific traditions that range across continents and centuries surrealism being a key example Celan's early works emerge from a fruitful period for surrealism and they bear the marks of that style not least because of the deep affinity he felt with the need to extend the boundaries of expression In this comparative and intertextual study Charlotte Ryland shows that this interaction continued throughout Celan's lifetime largely through translation of French surrealist poems and that Celan's great oeuvre can thus be understood fully only in the light of its interaction with surrealist texts and artworks which finally gives rise to a wholly new poetics of translation Charlotte Ryland is Lecturer in German at St Hughs College and The Queens College Oxford

Narcissus Sous Rature Jody Norton, 2000 In Narcissus Sous Rature Jody Norton argues that Contemporary American poetry's characteristic problematic is the subject's contestation of his discursive condition While self comprehension is a central recurrent concern in post literate poetry most poetries in English since the Enlightenment have conceived their lyric subjects in accordance with the foundational Western philosophical assumption of the rationality of being However after Freud Heisenberg Saussure Derrida and Lacan conceptions of the lyric I as representative of a more or less permanent self conscious and self possessed personality inhabiting an ontologically dependable natural and historical world in a consistent way are no longer credible The problems of how to conceptualize the psycho linguistic structuration of the male putatively masculine subject and his relation to his cultural environment and of how to represent both the subject and his relations in a medium language that is complexly involved in the construction of both the subject and his representation and in a certain sense of the subject as representation emerge for Contemporary poets out of an historic moment particularly strongly marked by theoretical developments in extra literary fields Norton asserts that the lyric speaker in Contemporary American poetry cannot be understood unless the explicit and implicit dialogic relations between religious philosophical psychological linguistic aesthetic critical and poetic texts are made central to the interpretive project
