Sursum Corda The Collected Letters Of Malcolm Lowry 1926 1946:

Sursum Corda! Malcolm Lowry,1995 Sursum Corda!: 1926-1946 Malcolm Lowry,1995 Malcolm Lowry author of Under the Volcano and one of the most celebrated English novelists of this century was also a writer of superb letters Collected here for the first time are close to 800 letters spanning more than thirty years most of them never before published and all of them carefully annotated Lowry s letters range from his detailed erudite 35 page long exegesis of his masterpiece to impassioned letters and notes to his wives They include witty ironic self parodies letters to younger writers full of generous advice and literary discussion and letters with analysis and acute insight into politics and current affairs Lowry frequently illustrated his letters with drawings marginal sketches and symbols of good cheer such as his seagulls which adorn many of the later letters These illustrations have been reproduced in both volumes of The Collected Letters of Malcolm Lowry together with many photographs of Lowry and his correspondents and reproductions of interesting holograph letters

Malcolm Lowry's Poetics of Space Richard J. Lane,Miguel Mota,2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry s spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book s three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to Lowry s life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry s writing Published in English The Making of Malcolm Lowry's Under the Volcano Frederick Asals,1997 Ten years in the making Under the Volcano is the best known work of writer Malcolm Lowry Published first in 1947 it is a brilliant moving and complex novel perhaps the last fictional masterpiece to emerge from the modernist movement As the years went by Lowry s obsessive rewriting took him further and further into his book which changed relatively little in the outer semblance of action and main characters but became utterly transformed in texture from the thin and mediocre version of 1940 to the rich tapestry of 1947 The numerous manuscripts allow a look at the processes by which Lowry created not only his masterwork but also his own reputation as a modernist genius This study offers an extended examination of individual drafts as the novel slowly developed and in a final chapter an appraisal of the implications of Lowry s revisions for the book as published an appraisal that suggests bases for new readings of Under the Volcano Sursum Corda!: 1947-1957 Malcolm Lowry,1995 The Kaleidoscopic Vision of Malcolm Lowry Nigel H. Foxcroft,2019-10-28 The Kaleidoscopic Vision of Malcolm Lowry Souls and Shamans is an interdisciplinary investigation of the multifaceted intuitive insight of international modernist writer Malcolm Lowry through an analysis of a selection of works and correspondence Nigel H Foxcroft analyzes his psychogeographic perception of the interconnectedness of East West cultures and civilizations in terms of pre Columbian Mesoamerican customs the Mexican Day of the Dead festival the Atlantis myth surrealism and Russian literary filmic and political influences He traces his intellectual efforts in pursuing philosophical and cosmic knowledge to bridge the gap between the natural sciences and the humanities This monograph identifies Lowry s attempts to reintegrate modernism with primitivism in his quest for an elixir of life for the survival of humanity on the brink of global catastrophe as indicated in In Ballast to the White Sea and Under the Volcano It also examines his sustained endeavors to attain psychoanalytical atonement with himself and his environment in Ultramarine Swinging the Maelstrom The Forest Path to the Spring and October Ferry to Gabriola It also discusses the odyssey on which Lowry and his literary protagonists embark to connect with the past and to gain a deeper insight into human nature in Dark as the Grave Wherein My Friend is Laid La Mordida and Through the Panama Scholars of cultural studies history humanities Latin American studies literature and Russian studies will find this book particularly useful Reading Matters Joseph Tabbi, Michael Wutz, 2018-05-31 The convergence of twentieth century narrative and technology is one of the most important developments in current literary study A decade after the founding of the Society for Literature and Science and the appearance of such influential books as Kathleen Woodward s Culture of Information and William Paulson s The Noise of Culture Joseph Tabbi and Michael Wutz have edited a landmark volume to summarize this still emerging field Twelve original essays and the editors introductory overview show how these theoretical concerns can contribute to the practical study of narrative Reading Matters covers the range of contemporary literature from the canonical novels of high modernism and postmodernism through subjects new to the academic agenda such as cyberpunk and hypertext fiction In an age that has proclaimed the death of the novel many times over the contributors argue persuasively for the continued vitality of literary narrative By responding in ingenious ways to the capabilities of other media they assert the novel has enlarged and redefined its territory of representation and its range of techniques and play while maintaining its viability in the new media assemblage Conrad et Lowry Faculté des lettres et des sciences humaines. Société conradienne française, 2000 Ce numéro de L époque Conradienne rassemble la plupart des communications présentées lors du colloque international organisé en septembre 1999 à l Université Lumière Lyon II sur le thème Conrad and Lowry Esthétique de la fiction Les comparaisons rapprochements thématiques et divergences esthétiques entre ces deux auteurs dominent donc dans cette livraison et enrichissent notre vision de deux œuvres majeures du XXe siècle Conrad moins omniprésent que d'habitude profite cependant de ces regards croisés qui soulignent une fois de plus son rôle fondamental dans l'évolution de la modernité Rewriting/Reprising in Literature Claude Maisonnat, Josiane Paccaud-Huguet, Annie Ramel, 2009-10-02 This volume includes a series of 17 selected essays preceded by a methodological introduction whose purpose is to offer a fresh outlook on the question of rewriting reprising The argument taking for granted the phenomenon of intertextuality develops along three main axes the first one reconsiders the already debated issue of authority on post structuralist premises arguing that the origin of a text is untraceable The second looks at a phenomenon often associated with reprising especially in a post colonial context trauma whether individual or historical in relation to creative repetition The third axis offers a re reading of the question of voice introducing the notion of the textual voice understood as that part of the enunciative act over which the author has no control When writers make of reprising a deliberate practise we are tempted to believe that their position between homage and pillage presupposes the existence of a traceable source of the literary Word We must however face the problematic nature of enunciation the void on which is is founded Which leads us to the proposition that the act of reprising is a creation ex nihilo a certain mode of organisation around that void Besides in a century of major man made traumas whose effect was the tearing up of social fabrics reprising will assume a more complex significance the symptomatic repetitive stitching of what is being constantly ripped up Think to New Worlds Joshua Blu Buhs, 2024-07-03 This book is about Charles Fort his followers and the surprising influence they have had on science fiction the avant garde UFOlogy and more broadly on the role of spirituality and conspiracy in the modern world Fort was an author and maverick philosopher who wrote four non fiction books about anomalies rains of frogs mysterious disappearances unexplained lights in the sky for which he offered hypotheses that even he did not always accept as true His books developed into a monistic philosophy that denounced science as a machine for generating truth In his view science was a small part of a larger system in which truth and falsity were constantly transforming one into the other This was not a rejection of the modern world but instead its fulfillment Fort prophesied the next stage in intellectual evolution after the scientific era He inspired four overlapping groups members of the Fortean Society science fiction fans and writers avant garde artists and flying saucer enthusiasts First We Must Think to New Worlds takes up each of these groups in turn to ask How can the human imagination be expanded What is the fundamental structure of the universe And how does power move As they developed their responses Fort s followers mixed Forteanism with Fundamentalism New Agery and conspiracy as well as a host of other forms of modern enchantments such as the ironic imagination scientific wonder and Theosophical syncretism Each chapter is interrupted by and concludes with shorter sections that focus on particular Fortean events as a way to deepen themes The Complete Poems William Empson, 2000 Empson s poetry occupies a central place in 20th century literature Acclaimed as the author of Seven types of ambiguity 1930 William Empson was applauded also for the dazzling intelligence and emotional passion of his poems T S Eliot praised the brain power and intense feeling of his poetry F R Leavis hailed him as the first true successor to John Donne Other writers as diverse as W B Yeats Dylan Thomas and John Betjeman have admired his elegant humane and moving work Robert Lowell told Empson I think you are the most intelligent poet writing in our language and perhaps the best I put you with Hardy and Graves and Auden and Philip
