Julie Rak,2013-06-15 Since the early 1990s tens of thousands of memoirs by celebrities and unknown people have been published sold and read by millions of American readers The memoir boom as the explosion of memoirs on the market has come to be called has been welcomed vilified and dismissed in the popular press But is there really a boom in memoir production in the United States If so what is causing it Are memoirs all written by narcissistic hacks for an unthinking public or do they indicate a growing need to understand world events through personal experiences This study seeks to answer these questions by examining memoir as an industrial product like other products something that publishers and booksellers help to create These popular texts become part of mass culture where they are connected to public events The genre of memoir and even genre itself ceases to be an empty classification category and becomes part of social action and consumer culture at the same time From James Frey s controversial A Million Little Pieces to memoirs about bartending Iran the liberation of Dachau computer hacking and the impact of 9 11 this book argues that the memoir boom is more than a publishing trend It is becoming the way American readers try to understand major events in terms of individual experiences The memoir boom is one of the ways that citizenship as a category of belonging between private and public spheres is now articulated Science Fiction and Fantasy Book Review Neil Barron,R. Over a thousand books were covered during the single year of publication many of them having been reviewed nowhere else before or since The January 1980 issue includes a comprehensive index of all the works featured during the preceding year This reprint will be a welcome addition to the literature of science fiction and fantasy criticism Neil Barron is a retired bibliographer and literary critic editor of the acclaimed Anatomy of Wonder series Robert Reginald was the publisher for twenty five years of Borgo Press and has authored over 110 books of his own Literary Market Place John Keith Hanrahan, Anne Jones Richter, 1952 The business directory of American book publishing
