

Land Surveyor Exam - Professional Land Survey Career

If you want to become a Professional Land Survey Career, you better love taking exams! Or at least be able to conquer your fear and get a passing score. Even compared with lawyers, doctors, and civil engineers, land surveyors take a lot of exams. We have to pass two national exams and one state exam for our first license. For more information you can visit here landsurveycareer.com

The first license that must be passed is the fundamentals of surveying exam. The fs exam is administered by the national council of examiners for engineering and surveying known as ncees. This exam is custom-built for "recent graduates and students who are close to finishing an undergraduate surveying degree from an abet accredited program." many students have passed the fs exam even without a college degree, but its much tougher without the surveying college courses that set you up for success. Pass rates are typically about 50% for first-time takers and 25% for second tries. So be sure to pass this thing on the first try! Want help? Check out <https://landsurveycareer.com/>
