As a nonpublic school devoted to Indian students it has the prerogative to be as distinctive as the ethnic group it serves. USE SHORT BLURB COPY FOR CATALOGS This ethnography of the Pueblo Indians and Indian High School explores some of the ways that host communities in our decentralized society use the prerogatives of local custom to create schools that fit local cultural inclinations.

Neither Victim nor Survivor Marilyn Nissim-Sabat, 2009-07-16 In Neither Victim nor Survivor: Thinking toward a New Humanity Marilyn Nissim Sabat offers a comprehensive critique of the interrelated concepts of victim and survivor as they have been ideologically distorted in Western thought. Framed by the phenomenological perspective of Edmund Husserl, Nissim Sabat carries out her argument through an intense engagement with current scholarly work on Toni Morrison's Beloved, Sophocles' Antigone, akrasia, psychoanalysis, critical race theory, feminist philosophy of science, and Marxism. Nissim Sabat ultimately proposes that a new consciousness enabled by the phenomenological attitude of the way in which ideological distortion of the concepts of victim and survivor helps to perpetuate victimization will empower us to find ways to end victimization and its anti-human consequences. The book's interdisciplinary approach will make it appealing to a broad range of students and scholars alike.

Causal Inference Paul R. Rosenbaum, 2023-04-04 A nontechnical guide to the basic ideas of modern causal inference with illustrations from health, the economy, and public policy. Which of two antiviral drugs does the most to save people infected with Ebola virus? Does a daily glass of wine prolong or shorten life? Does winning the lottery make you more or less likely to go bankrupt? How do you identify genes that cause disease? Do unions raise wages? Do some antibiotics have lethal side effects? Does the Earned Income Tax Credit help people enter the workforce? Causal Inference provides a brief and nontechnical introduction to randomized experiments, propensity scores, natural experiments, instrumental variables, sensitivity analysis, and quasi-experimental devices. Ideas are illustrated with examples from medicine, epidemiology, economics, and business, the social sciences, and public policy.

Soles of a Survivor Nhi Aronheim, 2021-05-25 The Unbelievable True Story of a Vietnamese Refugee Who Not Only Made the United States Her Home But Learned the True Value of Hope, Love, and Religion Along the Way. The soles of Nhi Aronheim's feet still bear the scars of her escape from Vietnam, trudging through the jungles of Cambodia as a twelve-year-old with a group of strangers seeking the land of opportunity, America. Her quest for survival through the Cambodian jungle eventually led her to a boat that took her to Thailand and an orphanage where Nhi lived for two years until she qualified for refugee status in the United States. Years later she returned to Vietnam with a film producer to reunite with the family she never thought she'd see again. A second trip to Vietnam brought her two mothers, birth and adopted, face to face. Yet Soles of a Survivor isn't just another inspirational survival story. It's about the lessons Nhi learned about humanity, diversity, and unconditional love since arriving in the United States She now has a deeper appreciation for the parallels between the Jewish and Vietnamese cultures and others After she met her Jewish beau they got married She eventually converted to Judaism though the process was challenging for an Asian woman adopted into a Christian household Her story shows it matters less what religion we re part of as long as we radiate goodness to those we meet Now she relishes being a Vietnamese Jew Having come full circle from prosperity to poverty and back Nhi hopes to encourage others to believe that in spite of overwhelming odds all things are possible if one has an intense desire focused energy and the audacity to grasp presented opportunities

Entangled Territorialities Francoise Dussart,Sylvie Poirier,2017-04-24 Entangled Territorialities offers vivid ethnographic examples of how Indigenous lands in Australia and Canada are tangled with governments industries and mainstream society Most of the entangled lands to which Indigenous peoples are connected have been physically transformed and their ecological balance destroyed Each chapter in this volume refers to specific circumstances in which Indigenous peoples have become intertwined with non Aboriginal institutions and projects including the construction of hydroelectric dams and open mining pits Long after the agents of resource extraction have abandoned these lands to their fate Indigenous peoples will continue to claim ancestral ties and responsibilities that cannot be understood by agents of capitalism The editors and contributors to this volume develop an anthropology of entanglement to further examine the larger debates about the vexed relationships between settlers and indigenous peoples over the meaning knowledge and management of traditionally owned lands

The Living Church ,1904 The Living Age ,1872 Africa as a Living Laboratory Helen Tilley,2011-04-15 Tropical Africa was one of the last regions of the world to experience formal European colonialism a process that coincided with the advent of a range of new scientific specialties and research methods Africa as a Living Laboratory is a far reaching study of the thorny relationship between imperialism and the role of scientific expertise environmental medical racial and anthropological in the colonization of British Africa A key source for Helen Tilley s analysis is the African Research Survey a project undertaken in the 1930s to explore how modern science was being applied to African problems This project both embraced and recommended an interdisciplinary approach to research on Africa that Tilley argues underscored the heterogeneity of African environments and the interrelations among the problems being studied While the aim of British colonialists was unquestionably to transform and modernize Africa their efforts Tilley contends were often unexpectedly subverted by scientific concerns with the local and vernacular Meticulously researched and gracefully argued Africa as a Living Laboratory transforms our understanding of imperial history colonial development and the role science played in both Surviving the French Revolution Bette W. Oliver,2013-06-10 The unleashing of the French Revolution in 1789 resulted in the acceleration of time coupled with an inability to predict what might happen next As unprecedented events outpaced the days those caught up in the whirlwind had little time to make judicious decisions about which course of action to follow The lack of reliable information and delays in communication between Paris and the provinces only exacerbated the situation Consequently some fled into exile in Europe and the United States while others remained to take advantage of new opportunities provided by the revolutionary government Between 1789 and 1794 the government moved from a position of hopeful cooperation to one of desperate measures instigated during the Terror of 1793 1794 As a result those French citizens who had fled early in the revolution including many aristocrats and the king's brothers as well as the artist Elisabeth Vigée LeBrun could not return until many years later while those who had remained such as Vigée LeBrun's husband the art dealer Jean Baptiste Pierre LeBrun as well as the artist Jacques Louis David the writers St Bastien Chamfort and André Chénier and expelled Girondin deputies chose survival strategies that they hoped would be successful For all those concerned timing was key to survival and those who lived found that they had crossed a bridge between the Ancien Régime and the beginning of the modern world It would not be possible to grasp the full import of the period between 1789 and 1795 until time had decelerated to a more reasonable level after the fall of Robespierre in 1794 Yet few could have then imagined that almost one hundred years would pass before a stable French republic would be established
