Having To (Routledge Revivals) E. Cashmore, 2013-10-14 First published in 1985 Having To summarises the situation of more than a million parents in the UK alone that survive as single parents This thought provoking book is based on interviews with more than 200 women and men of all ages and backgrounds The accounts of what life can be like in the world of one parent families are revealing sometimes disturbing and above all moving In this book parents talk in depth about their experiences when confronted by violence infidelity lesbianism child abuse and paranoia They portray stories that will provoke many questions about the state of the nuclear family

The Family: Change or Continuity? Faith Robertson Elliot, 1986-10-27 Faith Elliot's book has a coherence unusual in a textbook As its title suggests it directs our attention to change and continuity in the family It reviews debates about the biological origins of the nuclear family and gender roles accounts of the development of the conjugal family as the dominant family form in modern Western societies and of change in the roles of men and women within and without the family the remodelling of the conjugal family consequent on the legitimization of divorce and the emergence of one parent families and remarriage families and the development of alternative lifestyles as exemplified in unmarried cohabitation same sex pairings and group living The book considers Marxist and feminist approaches alongside the functional approaches which have been more traditional in the sociological study of the family The Legal Status of Women in the United States of America, January 1, 1938 Ethel Lombard Best, Florence Patteson Smith, Harriet Anne Byrne, Jean Collier Brown, Margaret Jane Thompson Mettert, Mary Elizabeth Pidgeon, Sara Louise Buchanan, Arthur Theodore Southerland, 1937
