Survivor's Odyssey Richard Wiener, 2013-05 EXCERPTS FOR WEBSITE Survivor s Odyssey BID 112614 As I sit by my window gazing out over the autumnal park the turning leaves straining in the gusting west wind and a suggestion of morning sun stippling a clump of trees in the near distance my thoughts return to the view from my childhood room on Lutherstrasse a bourgeois cobblestone paved street in Wittenberg lined with neatly spaced lindens How tranquil it all seemed then Like other early childhoods contemplated late in life mine seems idyllic in retrospect A cozy home devoted parents playmates and relatives nearby Who could have predicted then that Wittenberg this ancient town the cradle of the Protestant Reformation would soon like the rest of Germany be swept up in the fanaticism and hysteria of National Socialism When did I first realize that I was not just another German child that I was merely tolerated later reviled and finally cast out How strange it seems now that it took so long for me to comprehend that what was happening to me and my fellow Jews was extraordinary Finally in November 1938 all the accumulated hatred reached critical mass And the dry tinder was ignited by an assassin s bullet The son of Polish Jews enraged by his parents deportation shot an attaché at the German Embassy in Paris and this provided a sufficient pretext for what came to be known as Crystal Night Kristallnacht the opening salvo of the Holocaust The official story was that the assassination so outraged the German people that they could not be restrained from seeking revenge The truth is that in a clearly coordinated effort across the entire country synagogues were set afire Jewish shops looted and destroyed and Jewish homes invaded and destroyed A mob mentality nurtured for years had at long last found its focus in action In the late 40s hitchhiking was still a viable option I was now in civilian attire and I knew that drivers even those open to hitchhikers had to decide on a dime whether to stop Most of those who picked me up whizzed past screeched to a halt twenty yards further on and watched me run to catch up Once I got into the car they checked me out and asked a few questions before deciding whether I was a keeper Over the succeeding months I learned a lot about people Because I was a stranger whom they would never see again many shared with me confidences that they could not share with family friends or people in their communities They told me of their addictions their adulteries their sexual proclivities It wasn't because of who I was Out of a deep need they would have shared these confidences with almost anyone And at times it was uncomfortable for me to listen I wanted them to stop talking but I needed the ride and kept my mouth shut Aware that I would have to work part time I answered an ad and landed a job with the Whelan's chain of drugstores as a soda jerker I worked two eight hour shifts one on Wednesdays from four to midnight the other on Saturdays Since I was low man on the totem pole my employers felt free to shift me around from store to store as vacancies occurred Most of my colleagues were unskilled drifters who worked only long enough to save a few bucks few were college students like me But I was soon disabused of any idea that this gave me special status The best I could hope for was the occasional gig at an upscale location but I was just as likely to be sent to a hellhole like the notorious hangout for pimps and drug dealers at the corner of Eighth Avenue and 42nd Street The pay was lousy the tips few and far between but what I learned about people was a valuable adjunct to what I learned in my college classes Until about 30 years later He was by now a gr Critical Essays on Doris Lessing Claire Sprague, Virginia Tiger, 1986 Adventures of the Spirit Phyllis Sternberg Perrakis, 2007 In Adventures of the Spirit Phyllis Sternberg Perrakis brings together eleven American and Canadian literary gerontologists to examine a new kind of adventure for the older woman in literature This volume of critical essays analyzes recent works by contemporary women writers whose characters midlife and later life changes are mapped in their narratives Rather than focusing on the painful losses undergone by women of a certain age recent narratives explore a new kind of adventure of aging one that is spiritual in nature enabling new ways of being and becoming but open ended and capable of great variation in practice In particular these journeys of the spirit focus on the retrospective movement undergone by a midlife or older woman as she is led by inner or outer forces to assess where she has come from and decipher a shape or pattern to her journey These journeys do not leave the body behind as they map new spiritual territory Rather they honor spirit's embrace of the natural world and relationships as well as its aspirations for evolving development and eternal existence The essays in Adventures of the Spirit employ a wide variety of critical lenses to chart these adventures including archetypal Sufi post colonial and feminist analysis archival research aboriginal life writing and trauma theory These studies bring a new understanding to women's adventure of age in both literary texts and in life Reality TV Susan Murray, Laurie Ouellette, 2004-04 Scholars explore this not so recent tv trend

Empire Boys: Adventures in a Man's World Joseph Bristow,2015-08-27 Originally published in 1991 Focusing on boys own literature this book examines the reasons why such a distinct type of combative masculinity developed during the heyday of the British Empire This book reveals the motives that produced this obsessive focus on boyhood In Victorian Britain many kinds of writing from the popular juvenile weeklies to parliamentary reports celebrated boys of all classes as the heroes of their day Fighting fit morally upright and proudly patriotic these adventurous young men were set forth on imperial missions civilizing a savage world Such noble heroes included the strapping lads who brought an end to cannibalism on Ballantyne s Coral Island who came into their own in the highly respectable Boys Own Paper and who eventually grew up into the men of Haggard s romances advancing into the Dark Continent The author here demonstrates why these young heroes have enjoyed a lasting appeal to readers of children s classics by Stevenson Kipling and Henty among many others He shows why the political intent of many of these stories has been obscured by traditional literary criticism a form of criticism itself moulded by ideals of empire and Englishness Throughout imperial boyhood is related to wide ranging debates about culture literacy realism and romance This is a book of interest to students of literature social history and education Tremors - Travel Adventures in Post Earthquake Japan Paul Broadhead,2017-03-09 The day before Paul Broadhead was due to travel to Japan for the first time an earthquake and tsunami rocked the North East coast of the country killing thousands and leaving a trail of destruction in its wake Undeterred he flew out for a three week trip through a country coming to terms with devastating loss Tremors is a personal account sometimes funny occasionally sad but always eye opening of a gaijin in Japan at a time when nothing is certain and everything is subject to change
