materials Domietta Torlasco argues that these digital films and multimedia installations radically transform our memory of cinema and our understanding of the archive Indeed such works define a notion of archiving not as the passive preservation of audiovisual signs but as an intervention and the creative rearticulation of cinema's perceptual and political textures Connecting psychoanalysis phenomenology and feminist theory in innovative ways Torlasco analyzes cutting edge digital works that engage with the past of European cinema and visual culture including video installations by Monica Bonvicini Destroy She Said and Pierre Huyghe The Ellipsis Agnès Varda's film The Gleaners and I Marco Poloni's multimedia installation The Desert Room and Chris Marker's CD ROM Immemory Torlasco's central claim is that if the archives of psychoanalysis and cinema have long privileged the lineage that runs from Oedipus to Freud the archives of the digital age what she calls the heretical archive can help us imagine an unruly porous multifaceted legacy one in which marginal figures return to speak of lost life as much as of life that demands to be lived Aloha Romance Series Box Set: Chris

Creating the Global Classroom Laurence Peters,2022-03-10 The book examines how to begin to think like a global educator first by examining how our own histories and experiences have formed our own cultural and professional identities and second how the varied frames by which global education can be understood pedagogical ideological and cosmopolitan have shaped the field Laurence Peters connects theory and practice about global education relevant to cultivating global awareness in primary and secondary students Rather than seeing global education as a special field separate from the other disciplines the author encourages integration of global perspectives into everything we do Showcasing how global awareness is a developmental issue dependent upon the student's ability to step outside of their own place based comfort zone this volume lays out a roadmap of major challenges and issues around instilling this awareness in students This book connects theory and practice about global education relevant to cultivating global awareness in primary and secondary students From this foundation the book engages with the challenge of integrating global perspectives within a crowded curriculum By convincing students and teachers alike of global education's centrality thinking globally becomes an integral component of learning across subject areas and grade levels and this work encourages students to exercise empathy for the other and to develop critical skills to see through media distortions and fake news so they can better resist the tendency of politicians in our increasingly multicultural countries to divide people along racial and ethnic lines
