Susie And Herman A Story Of Love And Caregiving:

Susie & Herman L. B. Smith, 2002 No disease is more tragic than dementia There are no physical symptoms of this disease no need for hospital stays no need for intrusive chemical therapy the mind just slowly slips away Smith tells his story as a caregiver for Susie and Herman his mother and stepfather as they suffer from dementia Often amusing and told in a comic vein Smith shares meaning in his struggle to care for Susie and Herman despite their ever increasing disconnection from reality Susie and Herman is intended for adult caregivers with jobs families responsibilities and commitments who have dedicated themselves to caring for their elderly parents or other dependent family members This is not a how to book or a manual on the care and feeding of the elderly nor is it offered as advice counsel or coaching for the caregiver It is instead a memoir of the ordeals and adventures Smith encountered in caring for Susie and Herman incidents similar to those that other caregivers face daily It is a reminder to caregivers that if they deny the anger frustration and sadness that are a natural part of the task they have undertaken then the negative effects of those denied feelings will intensify and harden into resentment pessimism and contempt Most of all this book is about dignity Susie and Herman will help readers discover that by lighting a candle through our empathy and compassion today we each can illuminate the darkness of the specter of our fears of tomorrow the aging process that awaits us all Help for the Caring Brenda Parris Sibley, 2002 This much needed bibliography and filmography brings together lists of books about Alzheimer's and caregiving including biographies poetry and even fiction as well as in instructional and dramatic films The Publishers Weekly, 1896 New Books on Women and Feminism, 2003 Miz Suzie's Boy Herman Flora, 2005-09-15 Miz Suzie's Boy is a remarkable book about a Negro boy born into abject poverty during the Great Depression to a teenage mother Hardships of the depression included shooting crows for meals and keeping hand me down shoes together with string and newspaper Negroes in the town of West Munden a few miles south of Norfolk cared deeply for each other Poverty was pervasive and the old folks talked incessantly about becoming millionaires but children were unaware of the degree of how badly things really were Together families banded together to combat blatant racism and rise above the negative impact of the Ku Klux Klan His early home training fostered a love of God Country and Family He was taught to work hard practice thrift speak honestly and with integrity maintain his individuality and relentlessly pursue an education Childhood was a happy time for Herman and he spent many hours playing with relatives neighborhood children and make believe toys Flora moved to an adjoining community South Norfolk when he was eleven and made new friends He joined the Boy Scouts and strictly lived by the Scout Oath and its precepts This later helped to keep him mentally awake and morally straight Friendship puppy love for a classmate hastened his efforts to enter the U S Army as an under aged youth with the hope of finding her in the Philippines Flora entered the Army trained at Aberdeen Maryland and cavorted with prostitutes and pimps whenever he was granted leave He journeyed overseas on a troopship with fifteen hundred soldiers The boredom and tedium of the voyage was downplayed by the laughter witty banter and frequent exchange of incredible lies Arriving overseas he started his first job as a latrine orderly Flora found the Army reasonably challenging thrived and became Acting First Sergeant of a medical detachment within months Frequent interactions and frank discussions with long time career soldiers constantly reminded him of the need for a good education He returned to Norfolk from the Army finished his last year of high school and enrolled at Howard University College was demanding of his mind and time during the week and only the weekends were available for frolicking football fraternities and girls Beautiful young ladies consumed every spare moment until he identified and pursued the one a ministers daughter Together they lovingly reared seven college educated children Herman pursued ownership of several businesses and finally decided to make his million dollars brokering real estate He accepted an Executive Level position with the U S Department of Commerce Office of Minority Business Enterprise OMBE where he patiently assisted national minority businesses with their growth and expansion In a very poignant letter sent from Africa to his grandchildren and other grandchildren of the world he reflected on several world problems encouraged them to diligently educate and prepare themselves for the next century and never lose sight of God goals and a good life American Book Publishing Record ,2007 The Historic Oakland Cemetery of Atlanta: Speaking Stones Cathy J. Architectures of Grace in Pastoral Care Douglas B. Olds, 2023-05-23 An updating of virtue ethics for modern pastors and the souls they care for this book proposes innovations for the craft of ministry in the theology of grace how virtues radiate to tame strife and other destructive behaviors It presents a comprehensive alternative to the top down proclamations of biblical counseling approaches that try to impart from an eclectic biblicist lens cognitive authorities for consequential change Instead Christ s bottom up practice of virtues heals and fulfills by focusing on neighbor first and subordinating the ego s strategic considerations more graciously spreading God s will in ministry through participatory and experiential knowledge Virtuous pastoral ministries integrate the common grace of humanist learning to address the range of the care seeker's contemporary context her upbringing struggles and affiliations This book presents more the how than the what of pastoral theology more how the dance of mutuality and chivalry enters the spiritual flow of healing metaphysical grace than the what of right belief Even so pastoral care from the virtue ethical approach inevitably reconsiders vending machine theologies destructive doctrinal boundaries and context lite biblicisms This presentation introduces how virtue ethics apply to ministry the household individual trauma and addictions and the contemporary political and cultural arena

Fred & Nettie's Love Letters Suzanne Fister Levine, 2016-12-06 Creative non fiction based upon the romance actual love letters between two Kentuckians from 1900 1904 Before radio television and autos they carried on their romance separated by 100 miles a full day's round trip by train and not manageable by buggy or horseback Times and love were fraught with danger They faced deadly plagues putrid water systems horrific accidents violence murders and vicious political turmoil that included the assassinations of Kentucky Governor William Goebel and U S President William McKinley Women had no vote few rights and were blocked from many occupations Men were expected to be sole financial providers reliably smart brave and stable Life's choices thwarted dreams as both yearned for a bit of sweetness to make life bearable About the only reliable things they had were local daily newspapers and US Postal Service mail delivery 365 days a year 366 in leap years including Sundays and holidays Their letters engendered curiosity this book

Thelma & Louise Susan Kollin, 2023-09-15 Thelma Louise the 1991 film directed by Ridley Scott and starring Susan Sarandon and Geena Davis has been described as a road movie a buddy movie a feminist parable and only incidentally as a Western An Oscar winner for first time screenwriter Callie Khouri Thelma Louise catalyzed a national conversation about women violence and self determination in a Hollywood still shrugging off the West of John Wayne and in an America that still viewed women as accessories to the national mythology In this latest volume in the Reel West Series series Susan Kollin recreates this watershed moment for women's movies in general and women's Westerns in particular
