Suspended Animation F. Gonzalez-Crussi, 2009-06-02 Six beautifully wrought meditations on the art of embalming and related matters Dr Gonzalez Crussi's tone is measured grave and curiously formal with a mordant sense of humor and a courtliness and peculiar charm of his rococo style muscular dandyism as well as his sly and faintly risqu humor He is learned compassionate genuinely witty and at the most unexpected moments strangely moving His learning his diligence his lively curiosity together make a formidable lens that he brings to bear upon the enigma of what we are and how we cease to be He has delivered a missive that though the envelope may give off a whiff of formalin is in its essence a love letter to life in all its strangeness beauty and mystery John Banville The New York Times Book Review More graceful erudite and mind expanding essays from Gonzalez Crussi this time accompanied by haunting beautiful color photographs of skeletons skulls medical specimens and anatomical models In writing that smoothly integrates medical science history philosophy literature and the arts Gonzalez Crussi ponders the human condition The opening of a Gonzalez Crussi essay gives few hints as to where it may wander but the journey is always rewarding Kirkus Reviews Gonzalez Crussi weaves and bobs around monstrosity and death like a python about its victim and he is nearly as mesmerizing Publishers Weekly

Misplaced Objects Silvia Spitta, 2009-07-01 When things move things change Starting from this deceptively simple premise Silvia Spitta opens a fascinating window onto the profound displacements and transformations that have occurred over the six centuries since material objects and human subjects began circulating between Europe and the Americas This extended reflection on the dynamics of misplacement starts with the European practice of collecting objects from the Americas into Wunderkammern literally cabinets of wonders Stripped of all identifying contexts these exuberant collections including the famous Real Gabinete de Historia Natural de Madrid upset European certainties forcing a reorganization of knowledge that gave rise to scientific inquiry and to the epistemological shift we call modernity In contrast cults such as that of the Virgin of Guadalupe arose out of the reverse migration from Europe to the Americas The ultimate marker of mestizo identity in Mexico the Virgin of Guadalupe is now fast crossing the U S Mexico border and miracles are increasingly being reported Misplaced Objects then concludes with the more intimate and familial collections and recollections of Cuban and Mexican American artists and writers that are contributing to the Latinization of the United States Beautifully illustrated and radically interdisciplinary Misplaced Objects clearly demonstrates that it is not the awed viewer but rather the misplaced object itself that unsettles our certainties allowing new meanings to emerge

Ephemeral Bodies Julius Ritter von Schlosser, 2008 The critical history of wax is fraught with gaps and controversies These eight essays explore wax reproductions of the body or body parts throughout history and assess their conceptual ambiguity material impermanence and implications for the history of western art

The Pyrotechnic Insanitarium Mark Dery, 2007-12-01 A wide ranging collection of essays on millennial American culture that marshals a vast pop vocabulary with easy wit The New York Times Book Review From the far left to the far right on talk radio and the op ed page more and more Americans believe that the social fabric is unraveling Celebrity worship and media frenzy suicidal cultists and heavily armed secessionists modern life seems to have become a pyrotechnic insaniarium Mark Dery says borrowing a turn of the century name for Coney Island Dery elucidates the meaning to our madness deconstructing American culture from mainstream forces like Disney and Nike to fringe phenomena like the Unabomber and alien invaders Our millennial angst he argues is a product of a pervasive cultural anxiety a combination of the social and economic upheaval wrought by global capitalism and the paranoia fanned by media sensationalism The Pyrotechnic Insaniarium is a theme park ride through the extremes of American culture of which The Atlantic has written Mark Dery confirms once again what writers and thinkers as disparate as Nathanael West Fyodor Dostoyevsky Sigmund Freud and Oliver Sacks have already shown us the best place to explore the human condition is at its outer margins its pathological extremes Dery is the kind of critic who just might give conspiracy theory a good name Wired

Encyclopedia of Disability Gary L Albrecht,2006 Presents current knowledge of and experience with disability across a wide variety of places conditions and cultures to both the general reader and the specialist

The Transparent Body José van Dijck,2005 A fascinating discussion of the cultural context and social impact of medical imaging practices

Death and the Quest for Meaning Stephen Strack,Herman Feifel,1997 Essays in tribute to pioneering researcher Herman Feifel cover all aspects of thanatology the study of death and dying and the care of the dying and bereaved Topics include the role of the caregiver the process of grief religious and spiritual perspectives how children cope with death and assisted death Of interest to social workers nurses psychotherapists physicians clergy and educators Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Disability and Contemporary Performance Petra Kuppers,2013-06-17 Disability and Contemporary Performance presents a remarkable challenge to

Modern Mummies Christine Quigley, 2015-09-17 For many a mummy is an Egyptian pharaoh wrapped in cloth found thousands of years later in a pyramid by archaeologists But mummies need not be ancient Modern day mummies can be found under glass in special tombs built in their honor in private collections where they have come to rest after decades on the carnival circuit in dissecting rooms of medical schools and in the basements of funeral homes waiting for decades to be claimed by the next of kin Stories about the famous Vladimir Ilyich Lenin Ho Chi Minh Eva Peron and the not so famous Leslie Hansell wanted her body mummified to bask in the sun rather than being buried in the cold ground mummies are told here in great detail along with a broader look at the history and process of mummification The book includes a comprehensive study of the successful prolonged preservation of the human body and delves into the law and science of modern mummification

Serious Daring Susan Letzler Cole, 2016-11-01 Serious Daring is the story of the complementary journeys of two American women artists celebrated fiction writer Eudora Welty and internationally acclaimed photographer Rosamond Purcell each of whom initially practiced but then turned from the art form ultimately pursued by the other For both Welty and Purcell the art realized is full of the art seemingly abandoned Welty's short stories and novels use images of photographs photographers and photography Purcell photographed books texts and writing Both women make compelling art out of the seeming tension between literary and visual cultures Purcell wrote a memoir in which photographs became endnotes Welty re-emerged as a photographer through the publication of four volumes of what she called her snapshots magnificent black and white photographs of small town Mississippi and New York City life Serious Daring is a fascinating look at how the road not taken can stubbornly accompany the chosen path how what is seemingly left behind can become a haunting and vital presence in life and art

Savage Pastimes Harold Schechter, 2005-03 In this cogent and well researched book Harold Schechter argues that unlike the popular conception of the media inciting violence through displaying it without these outlets of violence in the media a basic human need would not be met and would have to be acted out in much more destructive ways Schechter demonstrates how violent images saturated the earliest newspaper how art and disturbing images are not incompatible and how the demoralisation of comic books in the 1950s set up a pattern of equating testosterone fuelled entertainment with aggression

Swallow Mary Cappello, 2011 Discusses what it means to ingest things humans weren't meant to eat and how the line between human bodies and foreign bodies can sometimes blur

Mummy Congress Heather Pringle, 2001-07-01 Mummies experts and breaking science revealed in journalist Pringle's fascinating dive into a little known arena of human studies Perhaps the most eccentric of all scientific meetings the World Congress on Mummy Studies brings together mummy experts from all over the globe and airs their latest findings Who are these scientists and what draws them to this morbid yet captivating field The Mummy Congress written by acclaimed science journalist Heather Pringle examines not just the world of mummies but also the people obsessed with them The Spiritual Gifts of Travel James O'Reilly, Sean O'Reilly, 2002 In this lively collection from an array of accomplished writers readers meet an old woman who imparts an invaluable midnight message on a Greek island brothers who heal old family wounds in Ireland and travelers who awaken to the mystery of their souls in such disparate places as St Peter's in Rome and a dusty road in India Contributors include Phil Cousineau Kim Chernin David Yeadon Don George and Jan Morris The Spiritual Gifts of Travel reveals the myriad ways that travel renews the spirit The tales ring clear and loud with the universal need to travel the road toward self Francesca de Grandis author of Be a Goddess Anatomy Museum Elizabeth Hallam, 2016-06-15 The wild success of the traveling Body Worlds exhibition is testimony to the powerful allure that human bodies can have when opened up for display in gallery spaces But while anatomy museums have shown their visitors much about bodies they themselves are something of an obscure phenomenon with their incredible technological developments and complex uses of visual images and the flesh itself remaining largely under researched This book investigates anatomy museums in Western settings revealing how they have operated in the often passionate pursuit of knowledge that inspires both fascination and fear Elizabeth Hallam explores these museums past and present showing how they display the human body whether naked stripped of skin completely dissected or rendered in the form of drawings three dimensional models x rays or films She identifies within anatomy museums a diverse array of related issues from the representation of deceased bodies in art to the aesthetics of science from body donation to techniques for preserving corpses and ritualized practices for disposing of the dead Probing these matters through in depth study Anatomy Museum unearths a strange and compelling cultural history of the spaces human bodies are made to occupy when displayed after death The Ultimate Journey James O'Reilly, Sean O'Reilly, Richard Sterling, 2000 The Ultimate Journey provides an inspiring look across all religious and geographic boundaries into life's final adventure revealing how much dying has to teach us about living Pilgrimage Sean O'Reilly, James O'Reilly, 2000 This book showcases a diverse array of spirit renewing journeys from pilgrims of many kinds from places as far away as Tibet's Mount Kailash and as near as sacred New Mexico soil A soulful blend of more than 20 stories Pilgrimage is ideal for all with an affinity for travel a practice of mindful living and a thirst for the unknown The World to Come Jim Shepard, 2017 These ten stories ring with voices belonging to among others English Arctic explorers in one of history's most nightmarish expeditions a young contemporary American negotiating the shockingly underreported hazards of our crude oil trains eighteenth century French balloonists inventing manned flight and two mid nineteenth
