Suspended judgments John Cowper Powys, 1969 Suspended Judgments John Cowper Powys, 1916 Suspended Judgments, Essays on Books and Sensations \(Classic Reprint\) John Cowper Powys, 2015-07-07

Excerpt from Suspended Judgments Essays on Books and Sensations The world divides itself into people who can discriminate and people who cannot discriminate This is the ultimate test of sensitiveness and sensitiveness alone separates us and unites us We all create or have created for us by the fatality of our temperament a unique and individual universe It is only by bringing into light the most secret and subtle elements of this self contained system of things that we can find out where our lonely orbits touch Like all primordial aspects of life the situation is double edged and contradictory The further we emphasise and drag forth out of their reluctant twilight the lurking attractions and antipathies of our destiny the nearer at once and the more obscure we find ourselves growing to those about us And the wisdom of the difficult game we are called upon to play lies in just this very antinomy in just this very contradiction that to make ourselves better understood we have to emphasise our differences and to touch the universe of our friend we have to travel away from him on a curve of free sky
