Suspense Thriller Films In The Shadow Of Alfred Hitchcock:

The Suspense Thriller Charles Derry, 2010-06-21 This book is a comprehensive study of one of the most popular genres in the cinema From a perspective sympathetic to popular culture this study analyzes a large number of primarily American and European films by a variety of distinguished directors including Alfred Hitchcock Claude Chabrol John Frankenheimer Michelangelo Antonioni and Costa Gavras Indispensable to anyone interested in understanding how suspense thrillers work and what they mean this book provides insightful analysis of hundreds of memorable films while at the same time working as a virtual how to manual for anyone trying to write a Hitchcock like thriller The first section of the book is primarily theoretical It offers a bibliographical survey and then explains why we so profoundly enjoy these suspenseful films of murder and intrigue A chapter on Thrills or How Objects and Empty Spaces Compete to Threaten Us explores the psychological concept of the thrill and relates it to the psyche of the spectator To what extent does the suspense thriller represent a symbolic and vicarious experience of danger A chapter on Suspense That Makes the Spectator Take a Breath explores the crucial narrative concept of suspense and relates it to the psychological mechanisms of anxiety incited in the spectator Why do we like to be scared A final theoretical chapter offers a dynamic definition of the suspense thriller derived in part from Edgar Allan Poe and based primarily on content analysis The second section of the book is more of an historical survey and devotes one chapter to each of the suspense thriller s primary sub genres These chapters provide close readings of more than 150 major films and detailed analysis of the suspense thriller s conventions themes and recurrent iconography Sub genres include The Postman Always Rings Twice Body Heat The Manchurian Candidate The China Syndrome Missing The Passenger Spellbound Obsession Marathon Man and Blue Velvet A final chapter explores areas for further research and offers concluding insights

Historical Dictionary of Crime Films Geoff Mayer, 2012-09-13 The Historical Dictionary of Crime Films covers the history of this genre through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on key films directors performers and studios This book is an

The Late Films of Claude Chabrol Jacob Leigh, 2017-10-19 Studies the unique achievements of Chabrol s last fourteen years of filmmaking during which he made nine remarkable films which combine a formally complex and highly self conscious style with a thematic focus on the opacity of the relationship between human thought and action Alfred Hitchcock Jane Sloan, 1995-03-08 A concise and intelligent synthesis of what we know and think about Hitchcock and a road map to future work on the subject There is no complete index to Hitchcock s career like this one and critics and historians will mine Sloan s work with enormous profit The Critical Survey section constitutes an invaluable contribution to the project of metacriticism Matthew Bernstein author of Walter Wanger Hollywood Independent The "Disguised" Political Film in Contemporary Hollywood Betty Kaklamanidou, 2018-04-19 With strict guidelines on methodology and time frame films produced after September 2001 and a socio semiotic theoretical framework Betty Kaklamanidou unpacks the problematic terms and ideas that go along with defining a new genre Kaklamanidou considers a different sub genre per chapter placing each group of films in their socio historical context to reach conclusions about the production of political films in millennial Hollywood In shifting the terms of the debate The Disguised Political Film in Contemporary Hollywood offers a fresh new approach to the subject of the political film The political film is not a clearly delineated object but rather an elusive one and resistant to clear boundaries So what is a political film Can The Hunger Games 2012 belong to the same category as Lincoln 2012 Is Jarhead 2005 a political movie simply because it is set during the Gulf War but with no reference to the motives of the conflict and or American and Arab relations and thus in the same group of war films such as The Three Kings 1999 another narrative that focuses on the same military conflict but includes direct commentary to governmental and military strategies Are historical films by definition political since the majority deals with significant events and or people in a specific socio cultural landscape Blumhouse Productions Todd K. Platts,Victoria McCollum,Mathias Clasen,2022-05-15

Blumhouse Productions is the first book that systematically examines the corpus of Blumhouse s cinematic output Individual chapters written by emerging and established scholars consider thematic trends across Blumhouse films such as the use of found footage haunted bodies haunted houses and toxic masculinity Blumhouse s business strategies and funding model are considered including the company s high profile franchises Paranormal Activity Insidious The Purge Happy Death Day and Halloween alongside such key standalone films as Get Out and Black Christmas and nonhorror films like BlackKklansman Taken together the chapters provide a thorough primer for one of the most significant drivers behind the contemporary resurgence of horror cinema Alejandro Amenábar Barry Jordan,2019-01-04 Since the release of his first feature in 1996 Alejandro Amen bar has become the golden boy of Spanish filmmaking a bankable star director whose brand virtually guarantees quality big audiences and domestic box office success He has directed three of the highest grossing movies in Spanish film history and has enjoyed enormous international and critical acclaim including an Oscar for Best Foreign Film for Mar Adentro The Sea Inside 2004 This book is the first full length study in English of Amen bar s shorts and feature films It provides detailed analysis of his engagement with popular film genres as the basis for an auteur cinema and incorporates a reappraisal of his auteurism as fundamentally decentred and shared An essential resource for students scholars and fans of Amen bar the book will also appeal to a wider readership including professionals in the film media and culture industries as well as those who have a general interest in the best of Spanish European and world cinema Emotions, Genre, Justice in Film and Television Deidre Pribram,2012-05-23 Popular film and television are ideally suited in understanding how emotions create culturally shared meanings Yet very little has been done in this area Emotion Genre and Justice in Film and Television explores textual representations of emotions from a cultural perspective rather than in biological or psychological terms It considers emotions as structures of feeling that are collectively shared and historically developed Through their cultural meanings and uses emotions enable social identities to be created and contested to become fixed or alter Popular narratives often take on emotional significance aiding groups of people in recognizing or expressing what they feel and who they are This book focuses on the justice genres the generic network of film and television programs that are concerned with crime law and social order to examine how fictional police detective and legal stories participate in collectively realized conceptions of emotion A range of films Crash Man on Fire and television series Cold Case Cagney and Lacey serve as case studies to explore contemporarily relevant representations of anger fear loss and consolation and compassion

Gender and Genre in 1990s Hollywood Patricia Di Risio,2024-11-14 The 1990s was a decade of significant turmoil in Hollywood cinema which resulted in a watershed moment in the interplay of gender and genre Patricia Di Risio argues that cinematic representations of unconventional women had an important effect on traditionally male oriented genres such as the crime thriller road movie western film noir war film sci fi and horror Di Risio analyses seven key films from the decade including Blue Steel 1990 Thelma Louise 1991 The Quick and the Dead 1995 Bound 1996 Jackie Brown 1997 G I Jane 1997 and Alien Resurrection 1997 paying particular attention to their use of irony allusion and pastiche She highlights how their female protagonists a majority of whom are decidedly queer or gender questioning personas produce an intense crossover in genre conventions largely driven by their gender rebellion She examines how a deconstruction of gender simultaneously allows genre hybridity and intertextuality taking these films into unexpected new directions In doing so she delineates a clear line between the unconventional nature of the representation of the female protagonists and innovative changes to genre filmmaking practices

Dark Dreams 2.0 Charles Derry,2009-12-21 Greatly expanded and updated from the 1977 original this new edition explores the evolution of the modern horror film particularly as it reflects anxieties associated with the atomic bomb the Cold War 1960s violence sexual liberation the Reagan revolution 9 11 and the Iraq War It divides modern horror into three varieties psychological demonic and apocalyptic and demonstrates how horror cinema represents the popular expression of everyday fears while revealing the forces that influence American ideological and political values Directors given a close reading include Alfred Hitchcock Brian De Palma David Cronenberg Guillermo Del Toro Michael Haneke Robert Aldrich Mel Gibson and George A Romero Additional material discusses postmodern remakes horror franchises and Asian millennial horror This book also contains more than 950 frame grabs and a very extensive filmography

La Dolce Morte Mikel J. Koven, 2006-10-02 With the exception of die hard aficionados of European or Italian horror cinema most people may not have heard of giallo cinema or have seen many films in this subgenre of horror Most academic film studies tend to ignore horror cinema in general and the giallo specifically Critics often deride these films which reveal more about the reviewers own prejudices than any problem with the works themselves As a counter to such biases Mikel J Koven argues for an alternative approach to studying these films by approaching them as vernacular cinema distinct from popular cinema According to Koven to look at a film from a vernacular perspective removes the assumptions about what constitutes a good film and how a particular film is in some way artistic In La Dolce Morte Vernacular Cinema and the Italian Giallo Film Koven explores the history and evolution of this aspect of cinema and places these films within the context of Italian popular filmmaking He addresses various themes motifs and tropes in these films their use of space the murders the role of the detective the identity of the killer issues of belief excess and the set piece In addition to being the first academic study of the giallo film in English this book surveys more than fifty films of this subgenre In addition to filmmakers like Mario Bava and Dario Argento Koven also looks at the films of Lucio Fulci Sergio Martino Pupi Avati Umberto Lenzi and others In all the works of twenty five different filmmakers are considered in this book Also explored are the inter relationships between these films how one influences others how certain filmmakers take ideas and build off of them and how those ideas are further transformed by other filmmakers Koven also explores the impact of the giallo on the later North American slasher genre

Globalization and Contemporary Chinese Cinema Xuelin Zhou, 2017-06-21 This pivot considers key transformations within the Chinese film industry since the country opened its doors to the outside world in the late 1970s and moved from an ideologically centred censorship system to one of contestation and cooperation between politics art and market Focusing on Zhang Yimou arguably one of China's most innovative and controversial filmmakers and directors the author addresses the challenges faced by contemporary Chinese cinema in the face of Hollywood dominance notably making genre films in an increasingly globalized context and the necessary compromises between the local and global the national and the international Through a combination of textual analysis and context study it examines action oriented films Zhang made as responses to a rapidly changing film market and industry
