Civil Society and the Aid Industry Alison Van Rooy, 2020-04-14 This book is valuable for and beyond the international development industry It deftly leads a non specialist through the maze of ideas and arguments plaguing the concept of civil society and critically examines how and what happens when the international aid system tries to turn confusing and complex political theory into effective development policy and practice fitting the individual preconditions and historical trajectories of the worlds varied nations The comparative evidence analysis and recommendations on offer are essential reading for anyone attempting to understand or build someone else s as well as their own civil society especially when justifying the use of tax payers money to do so ALAN FOWLER CO FOUNDER INTRAC This book will be really useful to numerous readers 011 a subject becoming ever more topical in the world of development and beyond It puts order into the deeply confused debate about civil society describes what the aid donors are doing to pursue their new goals offers four penetrating case studies and concludes with sensible suggestions for future policy The authors have made a practical and lucid assessment of the huge civil society literature they have also contributed valuably to it and deserve to be listened to PROFESSOR ROBERT CASSEN LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS Northern governments and NGOs are increasingly convinced that civil society will enable people in developing countries to escape the poverty trap Civil Society and the Aid Industry the product of extensive research by the prestigious North South Institute in Canada makes a critical appraisal of this new emphasis in the aid industry It explores the roles of Northern governmental multilateral and non governmental agencies in supporting civil society presenting in depth case studies of projects in Peru Kenya Sri Lanka and Hungary and gives detailed policy recommendations intended to improve the effectiveness and appropriateness of future projects Originally published in 1998 NGO Management Alan Fowler, Chiku Malunga, 2020-09-23 The task environment of NGOs is changing rapidly and significantly making new demands on their management and leadership This Companion discusses the complexities involved It illustrates how NGOs can maintain performance and remain agile amidst increasing uncertainties These factors include the position of NGOs in civil society their involvement in governance and coping with the effects of the securitisation of international aid Complementing The Earthscan Reader in NGO Management selected contributions and specially commissioned pieces from NGO thought leaders and practitioners provide the reader with insights on the emerging thinking competences and practices needed for success in managing and leading tomorrow's NGOs International Encyclopedia of Civil Society Helmut K. Anheier, Stefan Toepler, 2009-11-24 Recently the topic of civil society has generated a wave of interest and a wealth of new information Until now no publication has attempted to organize and consolidate this knowledge The International Encyclopedia of Civil Society fills this gap establishing a common set of understandings and terminology and an analytical starting point for future research Global in scope and authoritative in content the Encyclopedia offers succinct summaries of core concepts and theories definitions of terms biographical entries on important figures and organizational profiles In addition it serves as a reliable and up to date guide to additional sources of information In sum the Encyclopedia provides an overview of the contours of civil society social capital philanthropy and nonprofits across cultures and historical periods For researchers in nonprofit and civil society studies political science economics management and social enterprise this is the most systematic appraisal of a rapidly growing field The Virtuous Spiral Alan Fowler, 2013-11-05 The Virtuous Spiral is without doubt a most welcome addition to the body of knowledge that will continue to be highly valued in the NGO sector Ezra Limiri Mbogori Director Mwelekeo wa NGO MWENGO Harare Fowler demonstrates how development NGOs can engage in a virtuous spiral of performance based learning that regenerates public trust This is a timely book dealing squarely with the confidence crisis faced by many NGOs in the South and North Louk De La Rive Box Director European Centre for Development Policy Management Maastricht Sustainability is crucial for all institutions involved in international development This work offers practical guidance on how to achieve it There are three main kinds of sustainability and a section of the book is devoted to each making the impact of the organization's work sustainable ensuring continuity of funding and making the organization itself sustainable to remain viable Achieving all three creates a virtuous spiral The book takes an organizational rather than a technical or impact based approach to sustainability It is based on extensive international research and offers many practical examples of sustainability and the difficult trade offs involved
