Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 2001 An Art of Happy Accidents Sutton Taylor, 2008 Ceramic Review , 1999 Sutton Taylor , 1988 Ceramics , 1986 The Art Journal , 1855 The Writers Directory , 2013 The art journal London , 1855 Art-Union , 1855 Museums and the Construction of Disciplines Christopher Whitehead, 2013-11-20 Museums and museum politics were important elements in the development of the disciplines of Archaeology and Art History in nineteenth century Britain Here Christopher Whitehead explores some of the key debates and events which led to the conceptual differentiation and physical separation of archaeological and artistic material culture looking especially at the ways in which objects and histories were contested within museum politics For example in the 1850s the status of Egyptian antiquities as art or archaeology was keenly debated and this related closely to questions about which kinds of museum should house them and the possible histories and epistemologies in which they might figure This concise study serves as a basis for a discussion of the continued intellectual legacy of this for our understanding management and presentation of the past in the museum and in curricula It is argued that by understanding the politics and circumstances through which the two disciplines were delimited and distinguished from one another we may be able to glimpse retrospectively the possibility of alternative art histories and alternative archaeologies

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art , 1922 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance , 1922 Sculpture and the Garden Patrick Eyres, 2017-07-05 Although the integration of sculpture in gardens is part of a long tradition dating back at least to antiquity the sculptures themselves are often overlooked both in the history of art and in the history of the garden This collection of essays considers the changing relationship between sculpture and gardens over the last three centuries focusing on four British archetypes the Georgian landscape garden the Victorian urban park the outdoor spaces of twentieth century modernism and the late twentieth century sculpture park Through a series of case studies exploring the contemporaneous audiences of gardens the book uncovers the social political and gendered messages revealed by sculpture s placement and suggests that the garden can itself be read as a sculptural landscape

The Feathered World ,1908      The Illustrated sporting & dramatic news ,1877      The Sketch ,1913      The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular ,1926      New York Magazine ,1978-07-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
