B. Murray, 2009-12-23 A collection that analyzes homophobic violence from an anthropological cross cultural perspective Daughters of Caliban Consuelo López Springfield, 1997 Essays by leading Caribbean scholars explore the shifting boundaries between public and private life cross culturally Daughters of Caliban demonstrates how gender race ethnicity and class shape human experience and interpersonal relationships in increasingly global societies The volume examines Caribbean women and women s studies women and work women law and political change women and health and women and popular culture Literature and Ageing Elizabeth Barry, Margery Vibe Skagen, 2020 New approaches to the topics of old age and becoming old depicted in a range of texts from modern literature The central focus of this book is the experience of growing old as represented in literature from the mid nineteenth century to the present day an experience shaped by changes in longevity a new science of senescence the availability of state pensions and other phenomena of recent history The collection considers the increasing prominence of stories of ageing challenging the idea that old age is an uneventful time outside of the parameters of literary narrative Instead age increasingly is the story As the older population swells political crises are construed as the old stealing from the young and the rights of older people are sacrificed to the economics of care it becomes ever more important to think about and question as literature does the symbolic aspects of ageing the cultural imaginary that determines the way that society sees old age The work in this volume explores age stories in relation to futurity precarity and climate change It brings to light narratives of resistance to colonial imperialism and reproductive futurism framed in terms of age and tests the lived experience of growing old and the challenge it offers to individualistic conceptions of selfhood work and care The literary works examined hailing from England North America Japan and the Caribbean and including texts by Margaret Drabble Samuel Beckett and Matthew Thomas ask how we feel about ageing so often the determinant of how we think about it

Libidinal Economy Jean-Francois Lyotard,2004-01-01 Is regarded as the most important response to the philosophies of desire as expounded by thinkers such as de Sade Nietzsche Bataille Foucault and Deleuze and Guattari It is a major work not only of philosophy but of sexual politics semiotics and literary theory that signals the passage to postmodern philosophy

The Topographic Imaginary Ari J. Blatt,2022-05-13 Since the early 1980s art photographers from metropolitan France have been training their lenses on ordinary landscapes throughout the country they call home The Topographic Imaginary is the first book to study this important and flourishing trend It examines work by artists who meld documentary and creative modes to attune viewers to places that mainstream culture tends to tune out but which as Ari J Blatt argues are in fact more meaningful than they initially appear From views of building sites in Paris peri urban edgelands or a tangle of trees in a forest to those that ponder the play of light and shadow on roadside fields in Normandy or the tacky colors painted on dated village shopfronts images that signal the emergence of a topographic turn in contemporary French photography constitute new ways of seeing and sensing France s diverse national territory As Blatt suggests they also represent a visual laboratory through which to investigate how landscape scapes our understanding of French culture In their efforts to reimagine a more traditional and time worn idea of France s shared common space topographic photographs animate conversations about capital and class cities and their peripheries the politics and impact of development migration and borders memory history and affect empire and postcolonialism national identity and the changing environment The Topographic Imaginary thus reveals how attending to place in pictures provides valuable insight into the disposition of a nation in flux

Culture and Customs of Namibia Anene Ejikeme,2011-07-22 This book provides an overview of the history culture and society of Namibia a country on which little information in English exists Namibia is a sizeable and significant country in southern Africa that is little known to the outside world A vast country of startling beauty with a storied history including one of the world s worst genocides and a war of independence that lasted nearly a quarter century this land between two deserts is a fascinating result of its African German and English influences Culture and Customs of Namibia is one of very few English language works written about Namibia s history culture and society The book reveals details about Namibian daily life gender relations modern youth culture and the influence of traditional cultures that allow readers to appreciate this country s unique character A section on tourism explains how Namibia an extremely arid country with an immense number and diversity of wildlife is on the cutting edge of ecotourism Regulating Sex Elizabeth Bernstein,Laurie Schaffner,2005-01-05

Regulating Sex is an anthology that presents debates over the role of the state in constructing and controlling erotic practice intimacy and identity The purpose of this edited volume is to address sexual dilemmas in law and the state in substantive areas such as same sex domestic partnerships sexual economies and childhood sexuality via a series of spirited dialogues between socio legal scholars from diverse disciplinary national and political perspectives The Kaleidoscope of Gender

Catherine G. Valentine,Mary Nell Trautner,Joan Z. Spade,2019-03-07 The authors are proud sponsors of the 2020 SAGE Keith Roberts Teaching Innovations Award enabling graduate students and early career faculty to attend the annual ASA pre conference teaching and learning workshop The Kaleidoscope of Gender Prisms Patterns and Possibilities provides an accessible timely and stimulating overview of the cutting edge literature and theoretical frameworks in sociology and related fields in order to understand the social construction of gender The kaleidoscope metaphor and its three themes prisms patterns and possibilities unify topic areas throughout the book By focusing on the prisms through which gender is shaped the patterns which gender takes and the possibilities for social change the reader gains a deeper understanding of ourselves and our relationships with others both locally and globally Editors Catherine Valentine Mary Nell Trautner and the work of Joan Spade focus on the paradigms and approaches to gender studies that are constantly changing and evolving The Sixth Edition includes incorporation of increased emphasis on global perspectives updated contemporary social movements such as BlackLivesMatter and MeToo and an updated focus on gendered violence IBSS: Sociology: 1999 ,2000-12-07 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge on the social sciences Space, Place, and Sex Lynda

Johnston,Robyn Longhurst,2010 This accessible and engaging book explores the ways that space place and sex are inextricably linked from the micro to the macro level from the individual body to the globe Drawing on queer feminist gender social and cultural studies Lynda Johnston and Robyn Longhurst highlight the complex nature of sex and sexuality and how they are connected to both virtual and physical spaces and places Their aim is to enrich our understanding of sexual identities and practices whether they be lesbian gay bisexual transsexual asexual queer or heterosexual They show that bodies are defined and connected through media such as television movies ads and the Internet as well as through real places such as homes churches sports arenas city streets beaches and wilderness Drawing on a diverse array of historical and contemporary examples the authors argue convincingly that sexual politics permeate all places and spaces at every level of geographical scale Thus they illustrate sexuality affects the way people live in and interact with space and place as space and place in turn affect people s sexuality Figuring Age Kathleen Woodward,1999-03-22 Figuring Age engages the virtually invisible subject of older women in western culture Like other markers of social difference age is given meaning by a culture Yet unlike gender and race the subjects of age and aging have received little sustained attention Central to Figuring Age is the crucial question of how women are aged by culture How are older women represented in a visual culture that is dominated by images of youth in television film and life performance How do psychoanalysis rejuvenation therapy and hormone replacement therapy the fashion system cosmetic surgery and midlife bodybuilding shape our views of aging as well as of the older body itself What is the timing of aging To what extent is aging a culturally induced trauma Research
