Barbara Storck

Svec 2004 1 Espaces Du Feminin Dans Le Roman Francais Du 18s:

The Other Rise of the Novel in Eighteenth-Century French Fiction Olivier Delers, 2015-09-01 The rise of the novel paradigm and the underlying homology between the rise of a bourgeois middle class and the coming of age of a new literary genre continues to influence the way we analyze economic discourse in the eighteenth century French novel Characters are often seen as portraying bourgeois values even when historiographical evidence points to the virtual absence of a self conscious and coherent bourgeoisie in France in the early modern period Likewise the fact that the nobility was a dynamic and diverse group whose members had learned to think in individualistic and meritocratic terms as a result of courtly politics is often ignored The Other Rise of the Novel calls for a radical revision of how realism the language of self interest and commercial exchanges and idealized noble values interact in the early modern novel It focuses on two novels from the seventeenth century Furetiere's Roman bourgeois and Lafayette's Princesse de Clèves and four novels from the eighteenth century Prevost's Manon Lescaut Graffigny's Lettres d'une Péruvienne Rousseau's La Nouvelle Héloïse and Sade's Les infortunes de la vertu It argues that eighteenth century French fiction does not reflect material culture mimetically and that character action is best analyzed by focusing on the social and discursive exchanges staged by the text rather than by trying to create parallels between specific behavior and actual historical changes The novel produces its own reality by transforming characters and their stories into alternative social models different articulations of how individuals should define their economic relations to others The representation of interpersonal relations often highlights personal conceptions of private interest that cannot be easily reconciled with the traditional narrative of a transition towards economic modernity Realism then is not only about verisimilar storytelling and psychological depth it is an epistemological questioning about the type of access to reality that a particular genre can give its readers

Interiors and Interiority

Ewa Lajer-Burchard, Beate Söntgen, 2015-11-13 Veranschaulichungsformen von Innerlichkeit finden in der Moderne in Darstellungen des Interieurs ihr prägnantes Bild Die Beiträge der Publikation untersuchen die Verbindungen zwischen architektonischen Innenräumen visuellen und literarischen Darstellungen von Interieurs und dem Konzept der Innerlichkeit vom 18. Jahrhundert bis heute Jene Darstellungen sind Effekt aber auch Produzenten spezifischer Vorstellungen von Innerlichkeit als einer wenn nicht der subjektkonstituierenden Praxis der Moderne

Regressive Fictions

R. J. Howells, 2007 In a cultural shift around the mid point of the French eighteenth century the mode of wit is increasingly displaced by bourgeois pathos Social sophistication and sexual experience are rejected in favour of a retreat into ideal imagination Instead of the novel of worldliness we encounter fictions of better worlds original natural familial innocent and harmonious protected against reality and time The regressive shift is traced in this study in general terms and then through detailed analysis of three of the best selling novels of the period The turning point is represented by Mme de Graffigny's Lettres d'une Péruvienne 1747-1752 with its profound ambivalence towards knowledge A new order is revealed and set out but still declared lacking in Rousseaus Julie ou la Nouvelle Heloise 1761 The visionary return to the organic wholeness of nature is offered by Bernardins Paul et Virginie 1788 Bulletin de la Société française d'étude du XVIIIe siècle, 2006
