Swan Hill:

Green Fields, Brown Fields, New Fields David Nichols, Anna Hurlimann, Clare Mouat, Stephen Pascoe, 2010 The conference explores past and future approaches to managing and designing for growth development and decline This goes beyond debates over density frontier development and renewal It includes new fields of historical policy and social research which inform discussion of heritage growth environmental economic and other issues of urban life and urban form Page iii

Cultural Sustainability in Rural Communities Catherine Driscoll, Kate Darian-Smith, David Nichols, 2017-07-06 There has been a recent expansion of interest in cultural approaches to rural communities and to the economic and social situation of rurality more broadly This interest has been particularly prominent in Australia in recent years spurring the emergence of an interdisciplinary field called rural cultural studies This collection is framed by a large interdisciplinary research project that is part of that emergence particularly focused on what the idea of cultural sustainability might mean for understanding experiences of growth decline change and heritage in small Australian country towns However it extends beyond the initial parameters of that research bringing together a range of senior and emerging Australian researchers who offer diverse approaches to rural culture The essays collected here explore the diverse forms that rural cultural studies might take and how these intersect with other disciplinary approaches offering a uniquely diverse but also careful account of life in country Australia Yet in its emphasis on the simultaneous specificity and cross cultural recognisability of rural communities this book also outlines a field of inquiry and a set of critical strategies that are more broadly applicable to thinking about the rural in the early twenty first century This book will be valuable reading for students and academics of Geography History Literary Studies Cultural Studies Anthropology and Sociology introducing rural cultural studies as a new dynamic and integrative discipline

Burke and Wills Peter FitzSimons, 2017-10-31 The iconic Australian exploration story brought to life by Peter FitzSimons Australia s storyteller They have left here today he calls to the others When King puts his hand down above the ashes of the fire it is to find it still hot There is even a tiny flame flickering from the end of one log They must have left just hours ago MELBOURNE 20 AUGUST 1860 In an ambitious quest to be the first Europeans to cross the harsh Australian continent the Victorian Exploring Expedition sets off farewelled by 15 000 cheering well wishers Led by Robert O Hara Burke a brave man totally lacking in the bush skills necessary for his task surveyor and meteorologist William Wills and 17 others the expedition took 20 tons of equipment carried on six wagons 23 horses and 26 camels Almost immediately plagued by disputes and sackings the expeditioners battled the extremes of the Australian landscape and weather its deserts the boggy mangrove swamps of the Gulf the searing heat and flooding rains Food ran short and unable to live off the land the men nevertheless mostly spurned the offers of help from the local Indigenous people In desperation leaving the rest of the party at the expedition s depot on Coopers Creek Burke Wills Charley Gray and John King made a dash for the Gulf in December 1860 Bad luck and bad management would see them miss by just hours a rendezvous back at Coopers Creek leaving them stranded in the wilderness with practically no supplies Only King survived to tell the tale Yet despite their tragic fates the names of Burke and Wills have become synonymous with perseverance and bravery in the face of overwhelming odds They live on in our nation s history and their story remains immediate and compelling The Hackney Stud Book Hackney Horse Society,1888 Directory for Shires and Road Boards in Victoria, 1867 ,1867 Post and Telegraph Guide Australia. Postmaster-General's Dept,1917 The Post Office Directory of Gloucestershire, Herefordshire, Shropshire and the City of Bristol, Etc Directories. - Gloucester, County of,1863 The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills Ian Clark,Fred Cahir,2013-07-22 The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills is the first major study of Aboriginal associations with the Burke and Wills expedition of 1860 61 A main theme of the book is the contrast between the skills perceptions and knowledge of the Indigenous people and those of the new arrivals and the extent to which this affected the outcome of the expedition The book offers a reinterpretation of the literature surrounding Burke and Wills using official correspondence expedition journals and diaries visual art and archaeological and linguistic research and then complements this with references to Aboriginal oral histories and social memory It highlights the interaction of expedition members with Aboriginal people and their subsequent contribution to Aboriginal studies The book also considers contemporary and multi disciplinary critiques that the expedition members were on the whole deficient in bush craft especially in light of the expedition s failure to use Aboriginal guides in any systematic way Generously illustrated with historical photographs and line drawings The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills is an important resource for Indigenous people Burke and Wills history enthusiasts and the wider community This book is the outcome of an Australian Research Council project Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 47 - 1961 , Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 49 - 1963 , Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 46 - 1960 , Criminalizing Children David McCallum,2017-12-21 Incarceration of children is rising rapidly throughout of Australia with indigenous children most at risk of imprisonment Indigenous and non indigenous children have been subject to detention in both welfare and justice systems in Australian states and territories since colonization Countless governments and human rights enquiries have attempted to address the problem of the increasing criminalization of children with little success David McCallum traces the history of problem children over several decades demonstrating that the categories of neglected and offending children are both linked to similar kinds of governing Institutions and encampments have historically played a significant role in contributing to the social problems of today This book also takes a theoretical perspective tracking parallel developments within the human sciences of childhood and theories of race Applying a social theoretical analysis of these events and the changing rationalities of governing McCallum challenges our assumptions about how law and governance of children leads to their criminalization and incarceration Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 51 - 1965 Commonwealth Bureau of Census and Statistics,1965 Prepared under instructions from the Right Honorable the Treasurer by K M Archer Commonwealth

Statistician The Murray River Arthur active 19th century Kinloch,2023-11-12 In The Murray River Arthur Kinloch presents a rich tapestry of descriptive prose that immerses readers in the iconic Australian landscape The book serves as both a travelogue and a natural history account depicting the multifaceted beauty and cultural significance of the Murray River the country's longest river Kinloch's meticulous observations capture the river's ecosystems flora and fauna while also engaging with the indigenous narratives and colonial history that have shaped its lore The literary style is distinguished by vivid imagery and lyrical language transporting readers to a time when exploration and appreciation of nature were at the forefront of societal interest in the 19th century Arthur Kinloch an ardent nature enthusiast and promoter of Australia's natural heritage was influenced by his own experiences along the Murray River as well as broader themes of environmental conservation and identity during the colonial era His writings reflect the romanticism of 19th century explorations melding personal reflection with a profound commitment to documenting the land's untamed beauty Kinloch's observations derive not only from scientific interest but also from a deep rooted connection to the region rooted in both admiration and curiosity The Murray River is a must read for nature lovers historians and anyone interested in the nuanced relationship between landscape and culture Kinloch's evocative narrative invites readers to ponder the river's significance in shaping Australian identity making this work an essential addition to both literary and ecological studies Engage with this classic text to better appreciate the complex interweaving of environment and narrative that continues to resonate today
