Looking Back Arthur W. Hoffmann Ed.D. P.E.,2018-08-10 Arthur W Hoffmann looks back at a life well lived in this autobiography that celebrates his family values and engineering success His parents George and Amanda Theresa Hoffmann were German immigrants who came to America seeking freedom opportunity and employment in the years following World War I Desperate for work they settled in Detroit where the automobile industry offered some hope of successful employment He recalls that those growing up in cities and neighborhoods in the 1940s had an ingrained value system and appreciation of the enormous progress that had occurred in a short timeframe Those qualities helped the country reach new heights after the end of World War II Hoffman got his big break in October 1955 when he was selected by General Motors Ternstedt Division to join its drafting school After passing a test he was hired and after automobile safety became a national concern with the publication of Ralph Naders book Unsafe at Any Speed he become a leading automotive safety engineer and designer and eventually an expert witness consultant But he also had to face numerous personal challenges including his time in the army multiple divorces and being separated from his infant son from his first marriage a son he would not reconnect with until decades later

In The Name Of The Father Rebone Makgato, 2013-09-01 When unemployed Zimbabwean Promise Murewa was apprehended at a roadblock outside Polokwane City one night he did not have a drivers licence He also did not have legal papers to be in South Africa The police found that the car he was driving belonged to a Catholic priest called Father Dorota Promise was detained and later information emerged that Father Dorota was murdered on the same night So Promise became a suspect in the murder of the priest Promise s story plays out in the courtroom as the events leading to the death of Father Dorota are revealed before Judge Mulder While the state had been able to secure an attorney to defend Promise a social group of Zimbabwean expatriates believes that there is more to the crime Promise is accused of committing than meet the eye The group hires Solly ka Afrika a private investigator to find out what really took place And thus the audience gets transported back to the 60s and the 70s where they encounter the sordid life of the dead priest As the worms begin to crawl out of the woodwork the audience and the prosecution realise that Father Dorota was not a saint he was portrayed to be For the fight for Promise s survival centres around the repugnant sexual abuses that he suffered at the hands of the man he is tried for killing It is left to Judge Mulder to deliberate whether Promise is guilty of the crime or not But did Promise kill the priest or not
