Sweden And National Liberation In Southern Africa Formation Of A Popular Opinion 1950-1970:

Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Formation of a popular opinion (1950-1970) Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994

Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Formation of a popular opinion, 1950-1970 Tor Sellström, Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa Volume I Tor Sellström, 1999 Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa, 2nd Ed T (Tor). Sellstroem, 2003

Liberation in Southern Africa Tor Sellström, 2002 The interviews in this book were conducted for the Nordic Africa Institute's research project National Liberation in Southern Africa The role of the Nordic countries Around 80 representatives of the Southern African liberation movements as well as Swedish and other opinion makers administrators and politicians reflect on the Nordic support to these struggles Prominent contemporary leaders among them Joaquim Chissano from Mozambique Kenneth Kaunda from Zambia and Thabo Mbeki from South Africa give their views on a relationship that largely developed outside the public arena and of which there is scant evidence in open sources The book is a reference source to a unique North South relationship in the Cold War period Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Solidarity and Assistance, 1970-1994 Tor Sellström, 1999 Denmark and National Liberation in Southern Africa Christopher Munthe Morgenstjerne, 2003 The book describes and documents the development of Danish support to national liberation in Southern Africa including Namibia and the two sided humanitarian and political character of this support It is based on previously restricted Danish ministry records and on NGO archives and interviews Key questions are how Danish support was established as a purely humanitarian facility that later developed into supporting the liberation movements and how boycott was first considered to be an issue for the individual but eventually became national policy The study seeks to describe why support and sanctions developed in the way and at the pace they did Liberation of Southern Africa Olof Palme, 1990 Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements Jocelyn Alexander, JoAnn McGregor, Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2020-05-21 Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements offers new perspectives on southern Africa's wars of national liberation drawing on extensive oral historical and archival research Assuming neither the primacy of nationalist loyalties as they exist today nor any single path to liberation the book unpicks any notion of a straightforward imposition of Cold War ideologies or strategic interests on liberation wars. This approach adds new dimensions to the rich literatures on the Global Cold War and on solidarity movements. The contributors trace the ways that ideas and practices were made adopted and circulated through time and space through a focus on African soldiers, politicians and diplomats. The book also asks what motivated the men and women who crossed borders to join liberation movements, how Cold War influences were acted upon, interpreted and used, and why certain moments, venues and relations took on exaggerated importance. The connections among liberation movements between them and their hosts and across an extraordinarily diverse set of external actors reveal surprising exchanges and lasting legacies that have too often been obscured by the assertion of monolithic national histories. Tracing an extraordinarily diverse set of interactions and exchanges, Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements will be of great interest to scholars of Southern Africa, Transnational History, the Cold War and African Politics. The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies.
