Thomas Ugelvik,Jane Dullum,2011-07-29 In the growing field of comparative criminal justice the Nordic countries are regularly used as exceptions to the global move towards growing rates of imprisonment and tougher less welfare oriented crime control policies Why are the Nordic penal institutions viewed as so different from a non Nordic vantage point Are Nordic prisons and penal policies in fact positive exceptions to the general rule If they are what exactly are the exceptional qualities and why are the Nordic societies lucky enough to have them Are there important overlooked examples of Nordic bad practice in the penal area Could there be a specifically Nordic way of doing prison research contributing to the gap between internal and external perspectives In considering among others the above questions this book explores and discusses the Nordic jurisdictions as contexts for the specific penal policies and practices that may or may not be described as exceptional Written by leading prison scholars from the Nordic countries as well as selected researchers from the English speaking world looking in this book will be particularly useful for students of criminology and practitioners across the Nordic countries but also of relevance in a wider geographical context

The Political Power of Bad Ideas Mark Lawrence Schrad,2010-03-24 In The Political Power of Bad Ideas Mark Schrad uses one of the greatest oddities of modern history the broad diffusion throughout the Western world of alcohol control legislation in the early twentieth century to make a powerful argument about how bad policy ideas achieve international success His could an idea that was widely recognized by experts as bad before adoption and which ultimately failed everywhere come to be adopted throughout the world To answer the question Schrad utilizes an institutionalist approach and focuses in particular on the United States Sweden and Russia the USSR Conventional wisdom based largely on the U S experience blames evangelical zealots for the success of the temperance movement Yet as Schrad shows ten countries along with numerous colonial possessions enacted prohibition laws In virtually every case the consequences were disastrous and in every country the law was ultimately repealed Schrad concentrates on the dynamic interaction of ideas and political institutions tracing the process through which concepts of dubious merit gain momentum and achieve credibility as they wend their way through institutional structures He also shows that national policy and institutional environments count the policy may have been broadly adopted but countries dealt with the issue in different ways While The Political Power of Bad Ideas focuses on one legendary episode its argument about how and why bad policies achieve legitimacy applies far more broadly It also extends beyond the simplistic notion that ideas matter to show how they influence institutional contexts and interact with a nation's political actors institutions and policy dynamics

Alva and Gunnar Myrdal Thomas Etzemüller,2014-07-29 As two of the leading social scientists of the twentieth century Alva and Gunnar Myrdal tried to establish a harmonious organic Gemeinschaft community in order to fight an assumed disintegration of modern society By means of functionalist architecture and by educating sensible citizens disciplining bodies and reorganizing social relationships they attempted to intervene in the lives of ordinary men The paradox of this task was to modernize society in order to defend it against an ambivalent modernity This combination of Weltanschauung world view social science and technical devices became known as social engineering The Myrdals started in the early 1930s with Sweden and then chose the world as their working field In 1938 Gunnar Myrdal was asked to solve the negro problem in the United States and in the 1970s Alva Myrdal campaigned for the world's super powers to abolish all of their nuclear weapons The Myrdals successfully established their own modern American marriage as a media image and role model for reform Far from perfect their marriage was disrupted by numerous conflicts mirrored in thousands of private letters This marital conflict propelled their urge for social reform by exposing the need for the elimination of irrational conflicts from everyday life A just society according to the Myrdals would merge social expertise with everyday life and ordinary men with the intellectually elite Thomas Etzemüller's study of these two figures brings to light the roots of modern social engineering providing insight for today's sociologists historians and political scholars

Challenging Identities Peter Madsen,2016-08-12 Identity is a keyword in a number of academic fields as well as in public debate and in politics During the last decades references to identity have proliferated yet there is no simple definition available that corresponds to the use of the notion in all contexts The significance of the notion depends on the conceptual or ideological constellation in which it takes part This volume on one hand demonstrates the role of notions of identity in a variety of European contexts and on the other hand highlights how there may be reasons to challenge the use of the term and corresponding social cultural and political practices Notions of national identity and national politics are challenged by European integration as well as by the increasing demographic heterogeneity due to migration and migrants experience conflicts of identification stemming from clashes between cultural heritage and the cultures of the new habitat European horizons frames of mind historical memories and expectations at the level of groups or communities at the national level and at the general European level are at odds Analyzing a series of issues in European countries from Turkey to Spain and from Scandinavia to the Balkans the contributions demonstrate uses and abuses of the notion of identity
