System Structure And Contradiction The Evolution Of Asiatic Social Formations:

System, Structure, and Contradiction Jonathan Friedman, 2000-01-01 The first edition of System Structure and Contradiction was an important step in merging the materialist determinism of the structuralist Marxists with the cultural ideological approach favored by anthropologists By reconciling these two traditionally warring schools of thought the author provided a more nuanced understanding of the various factors that drive social change and social complexity Though viewed through the lens of an ethnographic and historical case study of the Kachin of Burman Friedman s theory has had a major impact on the work of archaeologists anthropologists world systems scholars and Marxist theorists alike This new edition of Friedman s much cited work contains the full text of the original volume never published in North America along with two related articles by the author and a comprehensive new introduction that brings his theoretical notions and the debate over this book to the present A classic work of anthropological and social theory it will be of interest to scholars and their advanced students in anthropology and related disciplines System, Structure, and Contradiction in the Evolution of "Asiatic" Social Formations Jonathan Friedman, 1975 Historical Dictionary of the Peoples of the Southeast Asian Massif Jean Michaud, Margaret Byrne Swain, Meenaxi Barkataki-Ruscheweyh, 2016-10-14 Dwelling in the highland areas of Northeast India Bangladesh Southwest China Taiwan Burma Myanmar Thailand Cambodia Vietnam Laos and Peninsular Malaysia are hundreds of peoples Together their population adds up to 100 million more than most of the countries they live in Yet in each of these countries they are regarded as minorities This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Peoples of the Southeast Asian Massif contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on about 300 groups the ten countries they live in their historical figures and their salient political economic social cultural and religious aspects This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more Prehistoric Hunter-Gatherers RABIGER, 2014-06-28 Prehistoric Hunters Gatherers The Emergence of Cultural Complexity Stories from an Ancient Land Magnus Fiskesjö, 2021-08-13 The Wa people have a rich civilization of their own and a deep history in the mountains of Southeast Asia Their mythology suggests their land is the first place inhabited by humans which they care for on behalf of the world This book introduces aspects of Wa culture including their approach to the world s troubles and the lessons others might learn from it It also presents a new interpretation of Wa headhunting questioning explanations that see it as a primitive custom and instead placing it within the fraught history of the last few centuries Harvests, Feasts, and Graves Ryan Schram, 2018-04-15 Ryan Schram explores the experiences of living in intercultural and historical conjunctures among Auhelawa people of Papua New Guinea in Harvests Feasts and Graves In this ethnographic investigation Schram ponders how Auhelawa question the meaning of social forms and through this questioning seek paths to establish a new sense of their collective self Harvests Feasts and Graves describes the ways in which Auhelawa people and by extension many others produce knowledge of themselves as historical subjects in the aftermath of diverse and incomplete encounters with Christianity capitalism and Western values Using the contemporary setting of Papua New Guinea Schram presents a new take on essential topics and foundational questions of social and cultural anthropology If as Marx writes the tradition of all dead generations weighs like a nightmare on the brains of the living Harvests Feasts and Graves asks Which history weighs the most And how does the weight of history become salient as a ground for subjective consciousness Taking cues from postcolonial theory and indigenous studies Schram rethinks the ontological turn in anthropology and develops a new way to think about the nature of historical consciousness Rather than seeing the present as either tragedy or farce Schram argues that contemporary historical consciousness is produced through reflexive sociality Like all societies Auhelawa is located in an intercultural conjuncture yet their contemporary life is not a story of worlds colliding but a shattered mirror in which multiple Auhelawa subjectivities are possible Envisioning Power Eric R. Wolf,1999 This text explores the historical relationship of ideas power and culture Looking at several case studies it analyses how the regnant ideology intertwines with power around the pivotal relationships that govern social labour The Emergence of Civilization Charles Keith Maisels,2003-12-16 The Emergence of Civilisation is a major contribution to our understanding of the development of urban culture and social stratification in the Near Eastern region Charles Maisels argues that our present assumptions about state formation based on nineteenth century speculations are wrong His investigation illuminates the changes in scale complexity and hierarchy which accompany the development of civilisation The book draws conclusions about the dynamics of social change and the processes of social evolution in general applying those concepts to the rise of Greece and Rome and to the collapse of the classical Mediterranean world History and Theory in Anthropology Alan Barnard,2000-06-15 Anthropology is a discipline very conscious of its history and Alan Barnard has written a clear balanced and judicious textbook that surveys the historical contexts of the great debates and traces the genealogies of theories and schools of thought It also considers the problems involved in assessing these theories The book covers the precursors of anthropology evolutionism in all its guises diffusionism and culture area theories functionalism and structural functionalism action centred theories processual and Marxist perspectives the many faces of relativism structuralism and post structuralism and recent interpretive and postmodernist viewpoints The Wet and the Dry Patrick Vinton Kirch,1994 Scholars and researchers have long believed that the ability to irrigate is crucial to the development of civilizations In this book archaeologist Patrick Kirch challenges this hydraulic hypothesis and provides a more accurate and detailed account of the role of wet and dry cultivation systems in the development of complex sociopolitical structures Examining research on cultural adaptation and ecology in Western Polynesia and utilizing extensive data from a variety of important South Pacific sites Kirch not only reveals how particular systems of production developed within the constraints imposed by environmental conditions but also explores the tension that arises between contrasting productive systems with differential abilities to produce surplus He shows that the near total neglect of short fallow dryland cultivation as well as arboriculture or tree cropping has seriously distorted the picture that archaeologists and anthropologists have of agricultural intensification and its relation to complex social structure This work likely to become a classic will be central to all future discussions of the ecology and politics of agricultural intensification The Value of Comparison Peter van der

Veer, 2016-05-19 In The Value of Comparison Peter van der Veer makes a compelling case for using comparative approaches in the study of society and for the need to resist the simplified civilization narratives popular in public discourse and some social theory He takes the quantitative social sciences and the broad social theories they rely on to task for their inability to question Western cultural presuppositions demonstrating that anthropology's comparative approach provides a better means to understand societies This capacity stems from anthropology's engagement with diversity its fragmentary approach to studying social life and its ability to translate difference between cultures Through essays on topics as varied as iconoclasm urban poverty Muslim immigration and social exclusion van der Veer highlights the ways that studying the particular and the unique allows for gaining a deeper knowledge of the whole without resorting to simple generalizations that elide and marginalize difference ASIAN HIGHLANDS PERSPECTIVES 28 Ian G Baird, Dpa' mo skyid, Gerong Pincuo, Henrëtte
