Cook,2024-07-20 Soteriology is the study of salvation The word soteriology is derived from the Greek words soter which means savior and logos which means a word about or the study of something Soteriology is the sphere of systematic theology that speaks to the nature means scope and purpose of salvation It is an important theme that runs throughout Scripture and reveals the God who saves. It touches on the attributes of God such as His holiness, righteousness and justice concerning sin as well as His love, mercy, grace and goodness to save lost sinners who cannot save themselves. Throughout this book we will examine the roles of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit concerning our salvation. We will also explore the sinfulness of mankind and our total unworthiness to merit salvation by means of our good works. Theosis Vladimir Kharlamov, 2011-03-03 that you may become partakers in the divine nature. 2 Peter 1:4. The theme of deification intimately touches on human identity and the actualization of humanity's ultimate purpose. It is predominantly an anthropological and soteriological expression of Christian theology. At the same time it testifies to the identity of a Christian God, divine universal design and God's economy where the trinitarian and christological apprehension receives the central place. Theosis both on an individual and cosmic scale is not exiguous in its eschatological perspective either. The testimony of theosis is testimony to the inexplicable mystery of divine intimacy. Deification penetrates all spheres of human existence and can be seen as an answer to most pending ultimate questions. It is essentially practical in its manifestation and uplifting in its content but nevertheless always evasive and arcane in its comprehension. From the Introduction. This book contains biblical and historical theological essays that offer innovative approaches to the issue of theosis. The interconnections between the theology of deification and the doctrines of the Trinity, Christology, anthropology, protology, hamartiology, soteriology and eschatology are made manifest in these fascinating new studies. It is aimed both at those who are already students of theosis and at those who are looking for an introductory text. It also contains a comprehensive and up to date bibliography for those seeking further resources on the theme. Hodge's Systematic Theology Volume III - Soteriology Charles Hodge, An Introduction to the New Testament, Volume 2 D. Edmond Hiebert, 2002-09-30. Volume One: The Gospels and Acts. With typical thoroughness Dr Hiebert has produced this volume of his New Testament introductions. Though not a commentary on the gospels and Acts, the book presents their message along with a discussion of such questions as authorship, composition and the Synoptic problem. Practical suggestions on how to study these five books are included. The bibliographies and annotated book lists are extremely helpful for pastors, teachers and laymen. Volume Two: The Pauline Epistles. This is a detailed introduction to all of Paul's writings, epistles that without question are among the most precious treasures of the Christian church. Dr Hiebert discusses the historical circumstances of their writing, deals with ethical problems and provides helpful general information on the content and nature of the books themselves. Discussed in general and separately these epistles are treated in chronological order with emphasis on their eschatology, soteriology, Christology or ecclesiology. The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1905. The Anointed Son Myk Habets, 2010-01-01. Spirit Christology complements Logos Christology in the same way in which Christ and the Spirit are mutually constitutive. Or at least this should be the case. The history of Christian thought shows that Logos Christology has dominated, resulting in both an eclipse of Trinitarian doctrine and a diminution of pneumatology. Recently there have been calls to reclaim a theology of the Third Article in order to present a Trinitarian theology that is faithful to Scripture the Great Tradition and one that is existentially viable While studies examine various aspects of Spirit Christology there has yet to appear a work that introduces the doctrine examines the various mutually exclusive proposals and offers a constructive trinitarian proposal The present work does just this introducing the constituent features of a Spirit Christology that is Trinitarian orthodox and contemporary The current work proposes a model of Spirit Christology that complements rather than replaces Logos Christology and does so in a robustly Trinitarian framework Within contemporary theology a pneumatically oriented approach to Christology is being advanced across denominational and traditional lines Those wanting to navigate their way through the many competing proposals for a Third Article theology will find a comprehensive map here
