Reformed Systematic Theology, Volume 2 Joel Beeke, Paul M. Smalley, 2020-11-16 The aim of systematic theology is to engage not only the head but also the heart and hands Only recently has the church compartmentalized these aspects of life separating the academic discipline of theology from the spiritual disciplines of faith and obedience This multivolume work brings together rigorous historical and theological scholarship with spiritual disciplines and practical insights characterized by a simple accessible comprehensive Reformed and experiential approach In this volume Joel R Beeke and Paul M Smalley shift from the doctrine of God theology proper to the doctrine of humanity anthropology and the doctrine of Christ Christology This extensive reformed theology explores the Bible's teaching about who we are and why we were created as well as who Jesus is and why his divinity is essential to the Christian faith

In God's Hands Jaroslav Z. Skira, Michael S. Attridge, 2006 The articles on the church and ecumenism in this Festschrift celebrate Professor Fahey's contributions accomplishments and gifts to the academy and the Church They reflect his sensitivities and spirituality as a friend and pastor his support for the many voices in the church his engagement and mentoring of several generations of students and scholars his demand for honest and critical scholarship and his deep desire for a spirit of Christian unity among us all

Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine

Reformed Systematic Theology, Volume 3 Joel Beeke, Paul M. Smalley, 2021-12-01 Here is catechesis at its best instructing the student of theology providing pastors with a sermon enriching manual and giving growing Christians a resource book that will both inform and nourish them as well as provide endless theological enjoyment Sinclair B Ferguson Chancellor's Professor of Systematic Theology Reformed Theological Seminary Teaching Fellow Ligonier Ministries The aim of systematic theology is to engage not only the head but also the heart and hands Only recently has the church compartmentalized these aspects of life separating the academic discipline of theology from the spiritual disciplines of faith and obedience This multivolume work brings together rigorous historical and theological scholarship with spiritual disciplines and practical insights characterized by a simple accessible comprehensive Reformed and experiential approach In this volume Joel R Beeke and Paul M Smalley unpack the work and role of the Holy Spirit Pneumatology and salvation soteriology The authors examine the Holy Spirit s role in the history of salvation the order of salvation and the believers experience of salvation As readers consider the interrelationship between the Spirit and salvation they are invited to explore the direct activity of the Lord in their lives for their salvation

Introducing Christian Theologies II Victor I Ezigbo, 2016-08-25 Should Christianity s theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of Christian communities from around the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine

An Introduction to Theology in Global Perspective Stephen B. Bevans, 2009 A comprehensive work on doing theology as part of the Catholic ecclesial community in today s world

The Theology of Battlestar Galactica Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2014-01-10 The reimaged television series Battlestar Galactica 2005 to 2009 on the Sci Fi Channel features religion and theology among its central concerns but does not simply use its myriad faiths as plot devices or background material Battlestar Galactica is in and of itself a theological text Over the course of 87 episodes and two television movies the series narrative arc explores the meanings of salvation prophecy exile apocalypse resurrection and messianism and clearly demonstrates the working of a divine will in a material world The book offers a systematic theology for each of Battlestar Galactica s invented religions and surveys echoes of American Christianity in the groundbreaking series

A Companion to John of Ruusbroec, 2014-05-08 John of Ruusbroec 1293 1381 is one of the most important mystical authors in the Christian tradition This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of Ruusbroec studies including a survey of the mystical tradition in the Low Countries before Ruusbroec a discussion of his life and works the manuscript tradition the most significant mystical theological and literary themes Latin translations of his work and the widespread resonance of his thought across Europe until 1800 Finally it offers a summary of secondary research since the nineteenth century To complement the range of scholarly articles this Companion also includes the first English translation of a series of Middle Dutch texts that offer deeper insight into Ruusbroec his thought and his mystical and literary context Contributors include Jos Andriessen John Arblaster Guido De Baere Rob Faesen Bernard McGinn Hilde No Kees Schepers Loet Swart Rik Van Nieuwenhove and Lieve Uyttenhove

Introduction to Christian Theology Bradley Hanson, Students often find introductions to systematic theology too daunting or boring to wade through Here author and teacher Bradley Hanson offers an attractive accessible alternative for undergraduates Hanson draws on 16 years of successful teaching to create exciting and pertinent presentations of major topics illuminate options on key issues and nudge students to formulate a personal stance Climate Justice T.

Thorp, 2014-08-28 In this ground breaking work Teresa Thorp tackles the causes and effects of climate injustice by methodically mapping out an approach by which to reach a negotiated consensus with legal force to protect present and future generations Using the law and policy of climate change as a vehicle for illustrating how to shape our future she comprehensively overturns the widely held contemporary view of climate justice as inconstant charitable acts relative systemic notions and static concepts isolated from the common good and a congruent rule of law Responding to the adverse impacts of climate change heat waves extended drought severe flooding and desertification which represent an urgent and potentially irreversible threat to human societies and the planet requires a new and cohesive way of thinking about global policy and the law The mission of guaranteeing and realising human dignity human security and human rights is multi fold Looking through the lens of kaleidoscopic normativity a nextensible language anchored in common juridical elements should facilitate how norms enter the socio legal frame and interact within it Users need to be able to display and interpret the congruent legal norm in order to obey and apply it Galvanising this process by constitutionalising first principles and consequential norms is vital for attaining fraternity between nations and among all people Climate Justice A Voice for the Future is an essential read for scholars practitioners and all those genuinely interested in reaching consensus on a post 2015 global climate accord a unified development agenda and a cohesive pact for disaster risk reduction The Emerging

Diaconate William T. Ditewig, 2007 Sketches the current state of the permanent diaconate especially in the United States then offers the historical developments which led to the contemporary diaconate and finally suggests a vision of the diaconate for the future always within the matrix of a servant ecclesiology which should characterize the entire Church

Making Peace In and With the World Heon Kim, John Raines, 2011-12-08 Making Peace In and With the World The Glen Movement and Eco Justice is a representative study and working analysis of contemporary Islamic thought on eco justice It cuts through problems facing humanity today ranging from inequality and violence in the smaller globalized world to the end death of nature as signaled by various environmental and ecological crises Addressing these problems this volume sheds light on two dimensions of peace in the earth community making peace between differing human communities and making peace between humanity and nature The phrase Eco Justice in this volume signifies this dual reality thereby offering a unique and insightful view that justice in the world must go hand in hand with ecological justice if peace is to be made With its dual foci of peace this volume contributes to multi disciplinary academic areas It adds to a burgeoning field of religious ecology by exploring the dynamics at play in the interaction between religion human communities and nature and by providing natural scientific works with considerable theoretical philosophical and ethical implications This volume also corresponds to studies in the interdisciplinary field of war and peace Since it deals centrally with the question of religion and eco justice this volume challenges assumptions of exclusivist religion religion oriented violence and the religion based Clash of Civilizations The contributors of this volume from diverse academic backgrounds take G len and the G len movement as the case study Muhammed Fethullah G len is one of the most significant Islamic theologians in the contemporary world and his inspired G len movement is the fastest growing Islamic civic movement worldwide This volume provides a key reference to studies in G len and his movement for new discussions and criticisms And by taking this figure and his movement as a case it reveals a new dimension of peace among differing human communities and between humanity and nature The History of

Experience Wolfgang Leidhold,2022-10-14 In a wide arc from the Paleolithic to the present day this book explores the changing structure of human experience and its impact on the dynamics of cultures civilizations and political ideas The main thesis is a paradigm shift the structure of human experience is not a universal constant but changes over time Looking at the entire range of human history there are a total of nine transformations beginning with conscious perception and imagination in the Paleolithic and ending for the time being in modern times with the discovery of the unconscious In between this book explores six more transformations that took place in different regions and at different times which include a sense of order self reflection the eye of reason spiritual experience as well as the experience of creativity and of consciousness As such The History of Experience presents both a cross cultural and comparative theory of experience and cultural dynamics and an exploration of rich materials from East and West This book is of great use to upper level undergraduates postgraduates and scholars interested in the relationship between history human experience culture and political order Christian

Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process Susan Marie Smith,2011-11-15 Most people even non Christians know that Christians gather for worship once a week and that they are right there to support each other when there is a baptism or a wedding or a funeral But what about other poignant vulnerable or life changing times How does the church help people handle changes that in the past in Christendom were considered secular Does the church have a role at retirement when one s ministry changes or when a family s children leave home and familiar patterns seem to grind to a halt Is there any rite possible for someone who is called to Christian ministry but not to ordination Or to someone whose vows are broken in divorce Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process asserts that baptism marks the beginning of a process of participation in Christ s ministry so that no part of life can finally be considered secular Susan Marie Smith shows how every passage healing and ministry vocation is holy and she lays the groundwork needed for every church to create the rituals necessary to lament and celebrate the endings and beginnings that happen in every Christian life The Lord's Supper in the Reformed Tradition John W. Riggs,2015-08-24 In the Reformed tradition the Lord s Supper is a sacrament that draws on a rich and deep tradition in its theology and practice In this new volume in the Columbia Series in Reformed Theology John Riggs provides a comprehensive overview of the most important Reformed theologians and confessions on the sacrament of the Lord s Supper Riggs identifies the theology of true mystical union with Christ in the Supper as both a theological legacy the Reformed tradition inherited and a theological achievement that it refined Ideal for studies in Reformed and liturgical theology this is an important resource for investigating the eucharistic theology of the Reformed tradition Sacraments and Justice Doris Donnelly,2014 Sacraments and Justice describes the social implications of worship the history of each sacrament and reveals how the seven sacraments link to social justice publisher s description

Innovation within Tradition Mary Frances McKenna,2015-09-01 Innovation within Tradition explores Joseph Ratzinger s biblical interpretation of women and salvation history Arguing that Ratzinger s concept of a female line in the Bible brings the female characters of Scripture to the fore Mary Frances McKenna shows how this illustrates his creative approach to theology and hermeneutics as well as his response to feminist theology Pivotal as well are questions around the findings on the use of history in theology and the potential for the continuing development and deepening of the church s comprehension of the meaning of revelation The Freedom of God James Daryn Henry,2018-05-30 The Freedom of God wrangles with the unfolding legacy of Christian theologian Robert Jenson and presents the first in depth study of his teaching on the Holy Spirit It is a specialist monograph that will entice those with interest in academic theology systematics and twentieth and twenty first century Christian thought especially the post Barthian historicist electionism and the post Rahnerian immanent and economic trinitarian project conversations Devoted readers of the works of Robert Jenson scholars of pneumatology third article theology or pentecostal renewal movements practitioners of liberation theology and supporters of ecumenical theology will all be particularly gripped by the analysis developed in this work As a text the Freedom of God could find a home in graduate seminars seminary classrooms and in classes for advanced undergraduates for those studying Jenson as a way into systematic theology and contemporary Christian thought or in any thematic doctrinal courses on the Holy Spirit or the Trinity Anointed to Lead Stephen S. Wilbricht, CSC,Cristina Castillo,Michael Conrady, DMin,Caroline Okello,Rev.

Patrick Smith,2022-09-07 As leaders in the faith community the parish staff are to guide the faithful to embrace their baptismal call to make Christ tangibly present in the world To support them in this work this e book presents an examination of the communal nature of baptism by author Stephen S Wilbricht CSC concrete examples from pastoral ministers of ways discipleship is lived out and seven short prayer services that reflect on aspects of baptism Morality Truly Christian, Truly African Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor C.S.Sp.,2014-11-15 Given the largely Eurocentric nature of moral theology in the history of the Roman Catholic Church what will it take to invest the theological community in the history and moral challenges of the Church in other parts of the world especially Africa What is to be gained for the whole Church when this happens in a deep and lasting way In this timely and important study Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor brings greater theological clarity to the issue of the relationship between Christianity and African tradition in the area of ethical foundations He also provides a constructive example of what fundamental moral theology done from an African and Christian especially Catholic moral theological point of view could look like Following a brief history of the development of African Christian theology Odozor examines responses of African theologians to African tradition and Christian responses to the reality of non Christian religions In a context where the African religious experience and heritage are powerful sources of meaning and identity Christian evangelization raises questions both about the African primal religions and about Christianity itself and its claims Odozor takes up the subject of moral reasoning in an African Christian theological ethics and concludes with case studies that show how the African Church has tried to inculturate moral discourse on a religiously pluralistic continent and relate the healing gospel message to African situations Students and scholars of moral theology and ethics and church leaders will profit from the issues raised in Morality Truly Christian Truly African
