Saussure and his Interpreters Roy Harris, 2019-07-30 This text is a reassessment of the reception of Saussure's ideas throughout the 20th century Each chapter focuses on one particular interpreter of Saussure's work but many others are mentioned for purposes of comparison Made in Europe Klaus Nathaus, 2016-01-22 This edited collection studies the production and dissemination of popular music tourism cinema fashion broadcasting programmes advertising and coffee in Western Europe in the twentieth century Focusing on the supply side of popular culture it addresses a field of study that is neglected in European historiography Moreover it provides a theoretical and methodological discussion that takes into account the inherent dynamics of content production and the role of cultural intermediaries in the change of cultural repertoires Taking key developments in the culture industries in the USA as a point of reference the book highlights particularities of cultural production in Europe It identifies a greater autonomy of creatives stronger influence of critics and a lesser concern with audience research as three characteristics of the production regime in Western Europe It takes into view the transfer of popular culture across the Atlantic and between European countries and offers new insights into research on the cultural Americanisation of Europe This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History Essays in Semiotics /Essais de sémiotique Julia Kristeva, Josette Rey-Debove, Donna Umiker, 2010-12-14 No detailed description available for Essays in Semiotics Essais de s miotique Paris to New York Véronique Pouillard, 2021-05-04 Paris to New York shows how competition and cooperation between transatlantic designers and entrepreneurs built the groundwork of today s international fashion industry V ronique Pouillard tells the story of the fashion business as a negotiation between art and commerce and explores the complex relationship between these iconic fashion Undisciplined Women Pauline Greenhill, Diane Tye, 1997-09-22 Contributors demonstrate that informal centers traditional and popular expressive cultural forms continue to be central to Canadians gender constructions and clearly display the creation and re creation of women s often subordinate position in society They not only explore positive and negative images of women the witch the Icelandic Mountain Woman and the Hollywood killer dyke but also examine how actual women taxi drivers guilters spiritual healers and storytellers negotiate and remake these images in their lives and work Contributors also propose models for facilitating feminist dialogue on traditional and popular culture in Canada Drawing on perspectives from women s studies folklore anthropology sociology art history literature and religious studies Undisciplined Women is an insightful exploration of the multiplicity of women s experiences and the importance of reclaiming women's cultures and traditions Barthes Tiphaine Samoyault, 2017-01-13 Roland Barthes 1915 1980 was a central figure in the thought of his time but he was also something of an outsider His father died in the First World War he enjoyed his mother's unfailing love he spent long years in the sanatorium and he was aware of his homosexuality from an early age all this soon gave him a sense of his own difference He experienced the great events of contemporary history from a distance However his life was caught up in the violent intense sweep of the twentieth century a century that he helped to make intelligible This major new biography of Barthes based on unpublished material never before explored archives journals and notebooks sheds new light on his intellectual positions his political commitments and his ideas beliefs and desires It details the many themes he discussed the authors he defended the myths he castigated the polemics that made him famous and his acute ear for the languages of his day It also underscores his remarkable ability to see which way the wind was blowing and he is still a compelling author to read in part because his path breaking explorations uncovered themes that continue to preoccupy us today Barthes's life story gives substance and cohesion to his career which was guided by desire perspicacity and an extreme sensitivity to the material from which the world is shaped as well as a powerful refusal to accept any authoritarian discourse By allowing thought to be based on imagination he turned thinking into both an art and an adventure This remarkable biography enables the reader to enter into Barthes s life and grasp the shape of his existence and thus understand the kind of writer he became and how he turned literature into life itself Imaginary Spaces of Power in Sub-Saharan Literatures and Films Alix Mazuet, 2012-04-25 This collection of essays is unlike others in the field of African studies for it is based on three very precisely delineated focal points a particular geographical region the sub Sahara specific modes of cultural production literature and cinema and a focus on works of French expression This three fold approach to exploring the relationships between power and culture in a non Western environment greatly contributes to making this book unique from a variety of perspectives African Francophone and postcolonial studies as well as cross disciplinary cultural transnational and diasporic studies Moreover the book offers deft and innovative analyses that move beyond the rhetoric of crises on the African continent we so very often hear of so as to present a critical reflection on the subject at hand that is specific to the sub Sahara and at the same time intimately linked to global culture economy and politics The authors three fold approach also presupposes that disciplinary compartmentalization increases power conflicts in academia If only in part compartmentalization is the result of antagonistic and competitive relations between specialization and multidisciplinary education This book is thus a modest attempt at presenting an alternative to excessively fixed and homogeneous academic frontiers while considering that disciplinary expertise remains a must Keeping in mind that an increasing number of scholars in Anglophone Postcolonial studies and Francophone African studies have been attempting for quite some time now to open interstices and build crossroads that can better connect them to each other keeping in mind that these scholars work at revealing mechanisms by which any antagonistic discourses can mix influence act upon or react to one another this book seeks to take a constructive step in establishing enduring grounds for multidisciplinary cross disciplinary and transnational academic research and collaboration The Cambridge Companion to Hermeneutics Michael N. Forster, Kristin Gjesdal, 2019-01-03 Explores the relevance of hermeneutics for modern human sciences its history and development and its Fashion Theory Malcolm Barnard, 2020-08-03 This thoroughly revised and updated edition of key philosophical debates Fashion Theory A Reader brings together and presents a wide range of essays on fashion theory that will engage and inform both the general reader and the specialist student of fashion From apparently simple and accessible theories concerning what fashion is to seemingly more difficult or challenging theories concerning globalisation and new media this collection contextualises different theoretical approaches to identify analyse and explain the remarkable diversity complexity and beauty of what we understand and experience every day as fashion and clothing This second edition contains entirely new sections on fashion and sustainability fashion and globalisation fashion and digital social media and fashion and the body prosthesis It also contains updated and revised sections on fashion identity and difference and on fashion and consumption and fashion as communication More specifically the section on identity and difference has been updated to include contemporary theoretical debates surrounding Islam and fashion and LGBT communities and fashion and the section on consumption now includes theories of prosumption Each section has a specialist and dedicated Editor's Introduction which provides essential conceptual background theoretical contextualisation and critical summaries of the readings in each section Bringing together the most influential and ground breaking writers on fashion and exposing the ideas and theories behind what they say this unique collection of extracts and essays brings to light the presuppositions involved in the things we all think and say about fashion This second edition of Fashion Theory A Reader is a timeless and invaluable resource for both the general reader and undergraduate students across a range of disciplines including sociology cultural studies and fashion Aims and Prospects of Semiotics Herman Parret, Hans-George Ruprecht, 1985 Annotation The two monumental studies volumes making up this collection of essays hold the names of the world's most renowned and respected scholars in the field of semiotics and does more than full justice to the extraordinary career of Algirdas Julien Greimas Before this mer boire of some seventy five essays kicks off the editors present a state of the art introduction which is followed by a unique bio bibliography of A J Greimas that trails the career of the master writer in unparalleled fashion through the years Arabian & les Arméniens de la mode, XVIIe-XXIe siècle Sylvie Richoux, Musée de la mode, 2007 Celebrating Armenia vear in France this book and this exhibition take a look back over Armenian expertise in crafts and trades shoemakers tailors embroiderers knitters hosiers and their role in fashion design in France It also includes the contemporary in the form of the shoes bags and costume jewellery of third generation Armenian accessory designer Karine Arabian Modern French Thought Christopher John Murray, 2013-01-11 In this wide ranging guide to twentieth century French thought leading scholars offer an authoritative multi disciplinary analysis of one of the most distinctive and influential traditions in modern thought Unlike any other existing work this important work covers not only philosophy but also all the other major disciplines including literary theory sociology linguistics political thought theology and more Handbook of Phenomenological Aesthetics Hans Rainer Sepp, Lester Embree, 2010-03-11 Historically phenomenology began in Edmund Husserl's theory of mathematics and logic went on to focus for him on transcendental rst philosophy and for others on metaphysics philosophical anthropology and theory of interpretation The c tinuing focus has thus been on knowledge and being But if one began without those interests and with an understanding of the phenomenological style of approach one might well see that art and aesthetics make up the most natural eld to be approached phenomenologically Contributions to this eld have continually been made in the phenomenological tradition from very early on but so to speak along the side The situation has been similar with phenomenological ethics A great deal of thought about art and aesthetics has nevertheless accumulated during a century and a handbook like the present one is long overdue. The project of this handbook began in conversations over dinner in Sepp s apa ment in Baden Baden at one evening of the hot European summer in the year 2003 As things worked out he knew more about whom to ask and how much space to allocate to each entry and Embree knew more about how to conduct the inviting preliminary editing and prodding of contributors who were late returning their criticized drafts and copyedited entries and was able to invest the time and other resources from his endowed chair That process took longer than anticipated and there were additional unfortunate delays due to factors beyond the editors s control
