American Encounters Peter C. Mancall, James Hart Merrell, 2000 A collection of articles that describe the relationships and encounters between Native Americans and Europeans throughout American history Arapahoe Politics, 1851-1978 Loretta Fowler, 1986-01-01 The Northern Arapahoes of the Wind River Reservation contradict many of the generalizations made about political change among native plains people Loretta Fowler explores how in response to the realities of domination by Americans the Arapahoes have avoided serious factional divisions and have succeeded in legitimizing new authority through the creation and use of effective political symbols Prehistoric Warfare on the Great Plains P. Willey, 2022-03-26 First Published in 1991 This study is the product of the discovery excavation processing data collection and analysis of nearly 500 human skeletons from the Crow Creek Massacre Project South Dakota In about 1325 AD nearly 500 American Indians were massacred and their remains were discovered excavated and cleaned in 1978 The general purpose of the Crow Creek osteological study were to describe the remains as fully as time permitted and compare these results with other samples This volume presents information concerning the Crow Creek bone elements paleodemography cranial affiliations mutilations and stature It emphasizes the unique feature of the sample and compares the Crow Creek sample with other skeletal samples from the Plains Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-25 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities

Pueblo, Hardscrabble, Greenhorn Janet Lecompte,1980-11-01 Pueblo Hardscrabble and Greenhorn were among the very first white settlements in Colorado In their time they were the most westerly settlements in American territory and they attracted a lively and varied population of mavericks from more civilized parts of the world from what became New Mexico to the south and from as far east as England The inhabitants of these little walled towns thrived on the rigor and freedom of frontier life Many were ex trappers full already of frontier expertise Others were enthusiastic neophytes happy to escape problems back home They sought Mexican wives in Taos or Santa Fe or allied themselves with the native Indian tribes or both The fur trade and the illegal liquor trade with the Indians were at first the mainstays of their economy As time went on they extended their activities to farming illegally on the land owned by the Indians and trading their crops and other trade articles They enjoyed themselves hunting gambling trading and with their women freely mixing Spanish Indian and Anglo American cultures in a community without laws or bigotry This idyll was brought to a close by the Mexican War and the lure of the California Gold Rush of 1849 The expectation of a railroad on the Arkansas brought many of the settlers back only to be scared away again by the massacre of Pueblo by the Utes in 1854 of which Mrs Lecompte has reconstructed a very complete record When the gold seekers rushed to Pikes Peak in 1858 and stayed to establish farms and towns some of the pioneers of the early days returned with them and shared their skills and knowledge to make possible the permanent settlements that resulted Mrs Lecompte has documented the history of the region from diaries letters and the reports of such distinguished passers by as J C Fremont and Francis Parkman The result is a complete and compelling account of a neglected part of American frontier life It is illustrated with more than fifty photographs and contemporary drawings Empires in Global History Markku Hokkanen, Kalle Kananoja, 2019-04-15 This book explores cross cultural medical encounters involving non Western healers in a variety of imperial contexts from the Arctic Asia Africa Americas and the Caribbean It highlights contests over healing knowledge and medicines through the frameworks of hybridisation and pluralism The intertwined histories of medicine empire and early globalisation influenced the ways in which millions of people encountered and experienced suffering healing and death In an increasingly global search for therapeutics and localised definition of acceptable healing networks and mobilities played key roles Healers engagements with politics law and religion underline the close connections between healing power and authority They also reveal the agency of healers sufferers and local societies in encounters with modernising imperial states medical science and commercialisation The book questions and complements the traditional narratives of triumphant biomedicine reminding readersthat traditional medical cultures and practitioners did not often disappear but rather underwent major changes in the increasingly interconnected Finding the West James P. Ronda, 2006-02-16 Documents not only the stories that Lewis and Clark offered about world their road across the continent but also the large and important stories by and about the Native peoples whose trails they followed and whose lands they described in their journals Completing the Circle Virginia Driving Hawk Sneve, 1998-01-01 Virginia Driving Hawk Sneve tells her own story and the story of her family An expert quilter she recalls her grandmother Flora Driving Hawk teaching her how storytelling enthralls and how a quilt can represent all that holds a family together I think of how she and her woman friends sat around the quilt frame gossiping laughing sighing as they stitched the joys and sorrows of their lives into the quilt Peace and Friendship Stephen Aron, 2022 For over 35 years the dominant histories of the American West have been narratives of horrific conflicts As dark and as bloody as western grounds have often been however there were also important episodes of concord instances of barriers breached accords reached and of people overcoming their differences as opposed to being overcome by them Peace and Friendship highlights the instances of cohabitation deepening our understanding of how the West came to be through colonization violence misunderstanding and surprisingly at times peace Ethnohistory of the High Plains James H. a classic reprint Missouri Historical Society Press restores this guidebook to its original splendor and returns it to the bookshelves With a current road map included with the book travelers can compare sights and tours described in the antiquated guide and see how they have developed or disappeared As Walter A Schroeder and Howard W Marshall describe in the updated introduction The unmarked dirt road impassable when wet that we encounter in reading the WPA guide is no longer a hurdle to be negotiated in order to reach an out of the way site Due to nearly thirty thousand additional miles of paved roadway and endless gas station and motel chains every corner of Missouri is now easily accessible And as Missouri Historical Society President Robert R Archibald states in the foreword If you are the kind of traveler who has no intention of stirring from a comfortable chair near the reading lamp this reprint is really all the equipment you require for a fascinating journey through the Missouri of the past Missouri A Guide to the "Show Me" State ,1941 The WPA Guide to Missouri Federal Writers' Project, 2013-10-31 During the 1930s in the United States the Works Progress Administration developed the Federal Writers Project to support writers and artists while making a national effort to document the country s shared history and culture The American Guide series consists of individual guides to each of the states Little known authors many of whom would later become celebrated literary figures were commissioned to write these important books John Steinbeck Saul Bellow Zora Neale Hurston and Ralph Ellison are among the more than 6 000 writers editors historians and researchers who documented this celebration of local histories Photographs drawings driving tours detailed descriptions of towns and rich cultural details exhibit each state s unique flavor The WPA Guide to the Show Me State of Missouri literally shows the reader the virtues of this lovely region by including vivid pictures of Art Deco skyscrapers in downtown Kansas City farm scenes the Ozark Mountains and the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers It includes historical essays about the influence of these rivers on the state as well as Missouri s important role in the American Civil War Vingt ans apres, Habitants et marchands Sylvie Dépatie, Catherine Desbarats, 1998-06-12 Habitants et marchands Twenty Years Later includes eleven essays seven of which are in French that highlight current research in Quebec studies Danielle Gauvreau Dale Miguelon and Louis Michel survey recent developments on population merchants and rural society respectively Allan Greer studies Kateri Tekakwitha the first Amerindian to be beatified William Wicken analyses relations between Mi kmag and Acadians Bruce White and Thomas Wien examine the fur trade with White focusing on the Lake Superior region and Wien on the St Lawrence Valley Catherine Desbarats looks at the role of the state as a buyer of goods and services in Canada Mario Lalancette and Alan M Stewart study the evolution of Montreal's urban geography in the seventeenth century Genevi ve Postolec analyses matrimonial practices at Neuville and Sylvie D patie examines the urban and peri urban countryside in Montreal's gardens and orchards The collection offers valuable perspectives on both the history of New France and the socio economic history of colonial societies Early Midwestern Travel Narratives Robert Rogers Hubach, 1998 First published in 1961 Early Midwestern Travel Narratives records and describes first person records of journeys in the frontier and early settlement periods which survive in both manuscript and print Geographically it deals with the states once part of the Old Northwest Territory Ohio Indiana Michigan Illinois Wisconsin and Minnesota and with Missouri Iowa Kansas and Nebraska Robert Hubach arranged the narratives in chronological order and makes the distinction among diaries private records with contemporaneously dated entries journals non private records with contemporaneously dated entries and accounts which are of more literary descriptive nature Early Midwestern Travel Narratives remains to this day a unique comprehensive work that fills a long existing need for a bibliography summary and interpretation of these early Midwestern travel narratives

Contested Spaces of Early America Juliana Barr, Edward Countryman, 2014-03-07 Colonial America stretched from Quebec to Buenos Aires and from the Atlantic littoral to the Pacific coast Although European settlers laid claim to territories they called New Spain New England and New France the reality of living in those spaces had little to do with European kingdoms Instead the New World's holdings took their form and shape from the Indian territories they inhabited These contested spaces throughout the western hemisphere were not unclaimed lands waiting to be conquered and populated but a single vast space occupied by native communities and defined by the meeting mingling and clashing of peoples creating societies unlike any that the world had seen before Contested Spaces of Early America brings together some of the most distinguished historians in the field to view colonial America on the largest possible scale Lavishly illustrated with maps Native art and color plates the twelve chapters span the southern reaches of New Spain through Mexico and Navajo Country to the Dakotas and Upper Canada and the early Indian civilizations to the ruins of the nineteenth century West At the heart of this volume is a search for a human geography of colonial relations Contested Spaces of Early America aims to rid the historical landscape of imperial cores frontier peripheries and modern national borders to redefine the way scholars imagine colonial America Contributors Matthew Babcock Ned Blackhawk Chantal Cramaussel Brian DeLay Elizabeth Fenn Allan Greer Pekka H m l inen Ra l Jos Mandrini Cynthia Radding Birgit Brander Rasmussen Alan Taylor and Samuel Truett

Exploring Lewis and Clark Thomas P. Slaughter,2007-12-18 This provocative work challenges traditional accounts of Meriwether Lewis and William Clark s expedition across the continent and back again Uncovering deeper meanings in the explorers journals and lives Exploring Lewis and Clark exposes their self perceptions and deceptions and how they interacted with those who traveled with them the people they discovered along the way the animals they hunted and the land they walked across The book discovers new heroes and brings old ones into historical focus Thomas P Slaughter interrogates the explorers dreams how they wrote and what they aimed to possess their interactions with animals Indians and each other their sense of themselves as leaders and men and why they feared that they had failed their nation and President Slaughter s Lewis and Clark are more confused frightened courageous and flawed than in previous accounts They are more human their expedition more dramatic and thus their story is more revealing about our own relationships to history and myth
