

CHAP. XIII.
 THAT ONLY FAITH IN CHRIST
 justifieth before GOD.

Whether a man bee justified and accepted before God first, through faith, but afterwards is accomplished by works?

I (Said Luther) answer thereunto thus, A Creature which already is created, it cannot bee said of the same, that it shall bee created, seeing it is created already. Even so, one that is justified already, of him it cannot bee said, that hee shall bee justified, because hee is justified already.

As soon as I strive, and still do hold.

It were senselesly spoken to saie, Wee are at the first justified by faith, but afterwards Justification must bee finished and settled by works. These words (namely, The Righteous man is a new Creature of God, and is called the first-born of his Creatures) do flow from the mouths of all mankind. Therefore it followeth, that our works help nothing to justification. For we, or, the works of the Law, do not make us new creatures of God, but, as God onely hath begun to make us new creatures by faith, so doth hee also continue, end, and finish it.

Wee are created in Christ Jesus as good works, therefore works neither make, nor create us, otherwise wee were not God's creatures, but (as they saie concerning the point) wee should bee the creatures of our works. And although our works make us not their creatures (as they cannot) yet (according to their meaning) they force God to do so.

All manner of Evils are to be away.

If the beginning of a new Creature bee without the works of the Law, then also is both the middle and the end, otherwise these three, beginning, middle, and end, were not one manner of Creature nor of one Creator, nor of one Generation, but an ugly monster created partly without works, partly for the works sake, and God, who is moved without works to begin, should bee moved through works to accomplish that which hee hath begun. But the faithful, or the just, are born of God, works bear no creature (but God onely) therefore works justify not.

Job 1.

Of Philip Melancthon's disputations held onely with Luther, about the Article of Justification, Anno 1536.

This was touched in again afterwards in the Epistle doctrine on Justification.

Philip Melancthon said to Luther, The opinion of S<sup>r</sup> Austin of justification (as it seemeth) was more pertinent, fit, and convenient when hee disputed not, then it was when hee used to speak and dispute, for thus hee saith, Wee ought to censure or hold, that wee are justified by faith, that is, by our Regeneration, or by beeing made new Creatures. Now if it bee so, then wee are not justified onely by faith, but by all the gifts and virtues of God given unto us. That is S<sup>r</sup> Austin's opinion. From hence cometh also that Gratia gratum faciens of the School Divines, Grace which maketh acceptable. They allege also that Love is the same Grace that maketh us acceptable before God. Now what is your opinion, (Sir) do you hold, that a man is justified by this Regeneration, as is S<sup>r</sup> Austin's opinion?

*Declaration
 without cause.*

Luther answered, and said, I hold this, and am certain, that the true meaning of the Gospel, and of the Apostles is, that wee are justified before God Gratis, for nothing, onely by God's meer mercie, wherewith and by reason whereof, hee imputeth righteousness unto us in Christ.

Allen,2019-04-01 In this accessible resource author David L Allen carefully summarizes the doctrine of the atonement with definitions of key terms discussion of key Old and New Testament texts and a survey of the historical theories of the atonement      The Life of Luther (Vol. 1-6) Hartmann Grisar,2022-12-10 Luther is a six volume biography of Martin Luther German professor of theology and the Church reformer famous for his Ninety five Theses of 1517 and recognized as a seminal figure in the Protestant Reformation The aim of the work was to present accurate historical and psychological portrait of Luther s personality which is still a mystery from many points of view While presenting Luther s psychological picture the author chooses to do so in Luther s own words analyzing his writings and letters Analyzing Luther s writings he opts not to write about Luther s teachings and the history of dogma but reaches deeper in his endeavor to supply an exact portrayal of Luther as a whole which should emphasize various aspects of his mind and character      Selections from the Table Talk of Martin Luther Martin Luther,2019-11-20 In Selections from the Table Talk of Martin Luther the reader is presented with a rich tapestry of Luther s thoughts distilled from his informal discussions revealing the dynamic fusion of theology philosophy and personal anecdote that characterized his life Written in a conversational style these selections highlight Luther s innovative approach to doctrine and his challenges to ecclesiastical authority reflecting the tumultuous period of the Reformation The text mirrors the era s fervent quest for spiritual authenticity inviting readers to engage with ideas on faith grace and the nature of God as presented through Luther s candid reflections Martin Luther 1483 1546 a pivotal figure in the Protestant Reformation drew upon his experiences as a monk scholar and theologian to craft these dialogues His deep scrutiny of Church practices and his transformative theological insights were catalyzed by both personal convictions and the sociopolitical climate of his time Luther s emphasis on individual faith and direct engagement with

Selvaggio, 2017-01-20 Martin Luther 1483-1546 contributed so much to the development of Western civilization that it is not overstatement to declare that he changed the world as he set the Protestant Reformation in motion five hundred years ago In this brief sketch you will learn about the exciting historical facts and fascinating events surrounding this Reformer's influential life Luther's story provides a picture of the gospel an object lesson of faith grace and the forgiveness that can be found only in Jesus Christ

The Life and Letters of Martin Luther Perserved Smith, 2012-11-12 First published in 1968 It can hardly be denied that the men who have most changed history have been the great religious leaders Among the great prophets and with the possible exception of Calvin the last of world wide importance Martin Luther has taken his place His career marks the beginning of the present epoch for it is safe to say that every man in western Europe and in America is leading a different life to day from what he would have led and is another person altogether from what he would have been had Martin Luther not lived Granting as axiomatic that essential factors of the movement are to be found in the social political and cultural conditions of the age and in the work of predecessors and followers in short in the environment which alone made Luther's lifework possible there must still remain a very large element due directly and solely to his personality The present work aims to explain that personality to show him in the setting of his age to indicate what part of his work is to be attributed to his inheritance and to the events of the time but especially to reveal that part of the man which seems at least to be explicable by neither heredity nor environment and to be more important than either the character or individuality

Kierkegaard and Luther David Lawrence Coe, 2020-07-09 Søren Kierkegaard denounced nineteenth century Danish Lutheranism for exploiting Martin Luther's doctrine of justification without works as justification for an antinomian easy life Kierkegaard saw his own writing as a corrective I have wanted to prevent people in Christendom from existentially taking in vain Luther and the significance of Luther's life In 1847 Kierkegaard began an eight year reading of Luther's sermons forking through them for extracts to confirm his theological corrective rather than to comprehend the breadth of Luther's thought While he found much to laud Kierkegaard also found much to lance privately commenting that Luther was partially responsible for what he considered the problematic Lutheranism of his own day Furthermore David Coe argues Kierkegaard was unaware that his copy of Luther's church and house postils was a heavily abridged edition of extracts from those postils. Therefore his appraisal of Luther begs to be investigated. Kierkegaard and Luther examines the Luther sermons Kierkegaard read, what he praised and criticized, missed and misjudged of Luther, and spotlights the concord these two Lutheran giants actually shared, namely the negative yet necessary role that Christian suffering, Anfechtung, plays in Christian faith and life.
