Taboos Of The Southern Negroes:

Taboos of the Southern Negroes Newbell Niles Puckett, 2005-12 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work Deep South Allison Davis, Burleigh Bradford Gardner, Mary R. Gardner, 2009 First published in 1941 Deep South is the cooperative effort of a team of social anthropologists to document the economic racial and cultural character of the Jim Crow South through a study of a representative rural Mississippi community Researchers Allison Davis Burleigh B Gardner and Mary R Gardner lived among the people of Natchez Mississippi as they investigated how class and caste informed daily life in a typical southern community This Southern Classics edition of their study offers contemporary students of history a provocative collection of primary material gathered by conscientious and well trained participant observers who found then as now intertwined social and economic inequalities at the root of racial tensions Expanding on earlier studies of community stratification by social class researchers in the Deep South Project introduced the additional concept of caste which parsed a community through rigid social ranks assigned at birth and unalterable through life a concept readily identifiable in the racial divisions of the Jim Crow South As African American researchers Davis and his wife Elizabeth along with his assistant St Clair Drake were able to gain unrivaled access to the black community in rural Mississippi unavailable to their white counterparts Through their interviews and experiences the authors vividly capture the nuances in caste enforcing systems of tenant landlord relations local government and law enforcement But the chief achievement of Deep South is its rich analysis of how the southern economic system and sharecropping in particular functioned to maintain rigid caste divisions along racial lines In the new introduction to this edition Jennifer Jensen Wallach situates this germinal study within the field of social anthropology and against the backdrop of similar community studies of the era She also details the subsequent careers of this distinguished team of researchers Folk Beliefs of the Southern Negro Newbell Niles Puckett, 1926 Taboo Memories, Diasporic Voices Ella Shohat, 2006-07-17 Since September 11 public discourse has often been framed in terms of absolutes an age of innocence gives way to a present under siege while the United States and its allies face off against the Axis of Evil This special issue of Social Text aims to move beyond these binaries toward thoughtful analysis The editors argue that the challenge for the Left is to develop an antiterrorism stance that acknowledges the legacy of U S trade and foreign policy as well as the diversity of the Muslim faith and the dangers presented by fundamentalism of all kinds Examining the strengths and shortcomings of area race and gender studies in the search for understanding this issue considers cross cultural feminism as a means of combating terrorism racial profiling of Muslims in the context of other racist logics and the homogenization of dissent The issue includes poetry photographic work and an article by Judith Butler on the discursive space surrounding the attacks of September 11 This impressive range of contributions questions the meaning and implications of the events of September 11 and their aftermath Contributors Muneer Ahmad Meena Alexander Lopamudra Basu Judith Butler Zillah Eisenstein Stefano Harney Randy Martin Rosalind C Morris Fred Moten Sandrine Nicoletta Yigal Nizri Jasbir K Puar Amit S Rai Ella Shohat Ban Wang The ^A Physiology of Sexist and Racist Oppression Shannon Sullivan, 2015-07-01 This book argues that gender and race are physiologically constituted through the biopsychosocial effects of sexism and racism Sullivan skillfully combines feminist and critical philosophy of race with the biological and health sciences to provide new strategies for fighting male and white privilege Taboo Jon Entine, 2008-08-05 In virtually every sport in which they are given opportunity to compete people of African descent dominate East Africans own every distance running record Professional sports in the Americas are dominated by men and women of West African descent Why have blacks come to dominate sports Are they somehow physically better And why are we so uncomfortable when we discuss this Drawing on the latest scientific research journalist Jon Entine makes an irrefutable case for black athletic superiority We learn how scientists have used numerous bogus scientific methods to prove that blacks were either more or less superior physically and how racist scientists have often equated physical prowess with intellectual deficiency Entine recalls the long hard road to integration both on the field and in society And he shows why it isn't just being black that matters it makes a huge difference as to where in Africa your ancestors are from Equal parts sports science and examination of why this topic is so sensitive Taboo is a book that will spark national debate Taboo Wilfred Reilly, 2020-01-28 You Can't Say That Do you have a right to be offended by the facts Against all the evidence the mainstream media insist that America has never been more racist and sexist The police are waging a war on Black people White privilege means minorities never get a fair shake Although this narrative of oppression is demonstrably fictitious it is taboo to question it and those who do so risk being labeled racist or sexist themselves America needs an honest conversation based on common sense and cold hard facts Honesty and respect for the facts are the specialty of Wilfred Reilly the celebrated author of Hate Crime Hoax In Taboo he fearlessly examines ten forbidden truths that have been buried by political correctness They include The Black rate of violent crime is roughly 2.5 times the white rate When demographic variables are taken into account there are no racial differences in the rate of police involved shootings Interracial crime is remarkably rare but 75 to 80 percent of it occurs against white people Minorities can be racist take the Nation of Islam which holds that white people are an inferior race created by a Black scientist Disparities between racial groups in IQ testing and SAT performance are the result of cultural variables such as the presence of a father in the home not racism Reilly goes where most social scientists fear to tread using objective statistics and common sense to tackle taboo topics Taboo is an essential takedown of the lies you hear every day from ideological activists and lazy biased media Negro Digest, 1945 Black American Cinema Manthia Diawara, 2012-10-02 This is the first major collection of criticism on Black American cinema From the pioneering work of Oscar Micheaux and Wallace

Thurman to the Hollywood success of Spike Lee Black American filmmakers have played a remarkable role in the development of the American film both independent and mainstream In this volume the work of early Black filmmakers is given serious attention for the first time Individual essays consider what a Black film tradition might be the relation between Black American filmmakers and filmmakers from the diaspora the nature of Black film aesthetics the artist's place within the community and the representation of a Black imaginary Black American Cinema also uncovers the construction of Black sexuality on screen the role of Black women in independent cinema and the specific question of Black female spectatorship A lively and provocative group of essays debate the place and significance of Spike Lee Of crucial importance are the ways in which the essays analyze those Black directors who worked for Hollywood and whose films are simplistically dismissed as sell outs to the Hollywood master narrative as well as those crossover filmmakers whose achievements entail a surreptitious infiltration of the studios Black American Cinema demonstrates the wealth of the Black contribution to American film and the complex course that contribution has taken Contributors Houston Baker Jr Toni Cade Bambara Amiri Baraka Jacquie Bobo Richard Dyer Jane Gaines Henry Louis Gates Jr Ron Green Ed Guerrero bell hooks Phyllis Klotman Ntongele Masilela Clyde Taylor and Michele Wallace Americans from Africa Peter I. Brown's A Negro Looks at the South John Edgar Tidwell, Mark A. Sanders, 2007-02-03 Using oral history and the printed word Sterling A Brown set out during the Second World War to capture the response of African Americans primarily living in the South to America's involvement in the war and how it affected them These responses brought together in extended non fiction essays of many different types illustrate the diversity of opinions in the Black South about the war and the war period in America For nearly sixty years the excerpts that were never published languished in Brown s manuscript collection at Howard University Now for the first time all of the completed pieces of unpublished writings are combined with the few published sections into the book that Brown envisioned The legacy Brown left us is not only a superb portrait of the way in which African Americans of the mid century talked and lived he also provided a methodology that oral and written historians will find extremely useful This is clearly a document from another time as its now outdated title reminds us but it reveals a world that still informs our sense of ourselves as a nation In fact it is an unforgettable history which Brown has cast in a bright elucidating new light Black and African-American Studies
