Tacit Knowledge In Professional Practice Reasearcher And Practitioner Perspectives:

Tacit Knowledge in Professional Practice Robert J. Sternberg, Joseph A. Horvath, 1999-02 This book which pairs theoretical and applied perspectives on a variety of professions reveals just how much successful professionals rely on largely unarticulated knowledge For business education and psychology professionals and students Tacit Knowledge and Spoken Discourse Michele Zappavigna, 2013-03-14 Professional Linguistics is an emergent area of study within applied linguistics using discourse analysis to assist people working in professional domains This book examines tacit knowledge that expertise that is considered to be lost when skilled practitioners leave an institution Traditionally it has been argued that some aspects practical knowledge cannot be articulated However the premise of Polyani s theory of Tacit Knowing we know more than we can tell does not account for latent patterns that linguists can uncover in spoken language Understanding these discourse patterns provides a way to explore the assumptions people invoke but do not make explicit in their work and working relationships This book demonstrates an interview method grounded in systemic functional linguistics that probes the spoken discourse of IT professionals through three field studies with actual corporations It argues that we tell more than we know and this telling more resides in the taken as given patters of grammar and semantics making meaning in ways which speakers themselves may not be attuned to Tacit Knowledge in Organizational Learning Busch, Peter, 2008-01-31 Understanding the complexity of tactic knowledge has become increasingly important to the enhancement of organizational flow Tacit Knowledge in Organizational Learning aims to advocate the need for human factor consideration from a tactic knowledge capital point of view Tacit Knowledge in Organizational Learning offers academians and practitioners an illustration of the importance of tacit knowledge to an organization presenting a means to measure and track tacit knowledge in individuals and recommendations on firm attributes and their ideal utilization of the tacit knowledge resource
