Israel and the Creation of a Palestinian State J. H. H. Weiler, 2024-10-31 To many outside observers of the Israeli Palestinian conflict there would appear to be one eminently sensible solution in exchange for recognition and adequate security guarantees Israel should return the West Bank and the Gaza strip subject to minor boundary modifications to the Palestinians led by a moderate PLO. The Palestinians would then exercise their right to self determination and establish an independent state with or without a link to Jordan. And yet this solution has found favor neither with successive Israeli governments nor with the PLO. First published in 1985 Israel and the Creation of a Palestinian State now with a new preface by the author analyses the reasons for the rejection of this solution by the protagonists. It then sets up a vision of a possible solution which by taking account of the subjective fears and aspirations of the parties may be regarded as more feasible. The author's vision draws inspiration from the experience of reconstructing a new transnational order in Europe after the ravages of the Second World War. The underlying theme focuses on the limitations of the purely national context as a framework for resolving the current political problems of the Israeli Palestinian dilemma.

A Salesman's Tricks of the Trade Winston Nash, 2008-05-12 Introduction Sales is first and foremost the art of persuasion. A salesperson persuades someone to part with his or her money in exchange for a product or service. This is done by convincing the customer that he wants the product or service more than he wants his own money. Often this is a formidable task because the goods and services offered by professional salespeople usually cost a lot of money. The good news for the salesperson is that the approach used can significantly improve the odds of success. Like any profession a sales job becomes a lot easier once you learn the tricks of your trade. I believe that how well a salesperson learns the tricks of the trade can have a big effect on his success income and career. The degree of success can also affect the salesperson's happiness family life and sense of self worth. I am convinced that learning these tricks can be financially rewarding and prudent for any salesperson's career. Perhaps Wesley Autrey a New York construction worker understood achievement best when he simply said Good things happen when you do good. This book is designed to help you do a good job at selling people things. It describes explains and provides examples of the best tricks of the trade I have used in the real world for over twenty five years in my sales career. Several but not all tricks of the trade require specific rhetorical techniques. In those cases I will explain the recommended rhetorical procedure as well. When needed I will explain what questions a salesperson should ask when to ask these questions and why we ask these particular questions I will explain not only the tricks of the trade but I will explain when and why we use specific tricks I will also do my best to explain how and why these tricks actually work All the tricks will work for most products and services sales professional typically are asked to sell They work for inside salespeople as well as outside sales representatives I have years of experience in both types of sales and the tricks in this book are important and valuable regardless of your sales environment My own career attests to how well these tricks of the trade can succeed Because I have used them while working for some of the largest corporations in America I have frequently won incentive trips to wonderful resorts in the United States as well as those in Cancun the Bahamas and even Europe My goal in this book is to suggest ways in which salespeople at any stage of their careers can improve their techniques hone their strategies and ultimately succeed more fully in sales Vernon Law once warned Experience is the worst teacher it gives the test before presenting the lesson In this book I am going to try to change the natural order of things This book is designed to give you the lessons first thereby leveling the playing field between rookies and experienced salespeople The way I am going to do that is by letting out the secrets I have learned in the real world to everybody in this book Over the course of my career I have been to several conferences set up to train the beginning salesperson This book takes what I have learned in those classes to a more advanced level with concrete suggestions based on my years of actual sales experience As a result this book is designed to benefit both novice and experienced salespeople While each chapter focuses on a different fundamental principle of selling I also give a very practical spin to what else in addition to fundamentals salespeople should understand This book explains not only how to make a great presentation but all the other things you need to know to be an effective salesperson Let me give you an example of the type of insight you can expect to gain by reading this book Usually the first thing a new salesperson receives is training on how to explain what eventually he is supposed to be selling This includes a detail

Gabriella's life where she ever felt safe. But once there she discovers that facing the demons from her past may be harder and more dangerous than facing the one who hunts her. As Ty and Theo battle their own personal monsters, Gabriella begins to fall for a man who carries a guilt she can't even begin to imagine. The predator who stalks Gabriella and her family tracks them down and corners his prey as a full moon rides high in the night sky and lightning explodes on the mountaintop. Then all their lives and demons collide in a final apocalyptic celebration of one man's madness. Gabriella's only hope lies in the unexplainable power of 2 000 year old tree. Is it strong enough to save them? Can a single perfect bristlecone pine somehow determine the fate of them all?

Images, Reality, and Digital Culture Krešimir Purgar, 2025-09-30 Focusing on the moment of transition from the pictorial to the post pictorial condition, this book advocates the opinion that what fundamentally distinguishes pictorial representation in Western civilization is one's ability to distinguish what the picture shows from what the picture refers to and to that extent the reality inside the picture cannot be confused with what is outside it. The contributions in this book serve as kind of a missing link connecting the genealogy of traditional images with contemporary environmental visualizations in the world that in this very moment undergoes a transition into a new exciting age in which many old knowledges are rapidly becoming obsolete and new ones are seeking their legitimacy. Instead of leading the reader to reconciliation with the fatal diagnosis of the world under the rule of technological determinism, this book indicates the key points of transition between the pictorial representation that traditionally belonged to the history of art and the virtual presence that is approached in quite different ways today. This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, image philosophy, image studies and digital studies.

Military Strategy and Tactics Reiner Huber, 2013-11-11 This volume brings forth a set of selected papers from the Conference on Modeling Land Battle Systems for Military Planning, Sponsored by the Special Programme Panel on Systems Science of the NATO Science Committee. The conference took place in Ottobrunn, Germany, at the War Gaming Centre of Industrieanlagen Betriebsgesellschaft. The idea to organize a conference on land battle system models was first suggested to me in 1972 by Andreas Mortensen, then a member of the Norwegian Defence Research Establishment and presently at the SHAPE Technical Centre. When we discussed the apparent inconsistencies of various evaluations of force capability within NATO, frequently decision makers are confronted by contradictory results of different studies addressing essentially the same problem, leaving them with the impression that the tools of systems analysis and operations research may not be very objective guides. However, experienced systems researchers know that a detailed comparison of models, their assumptions and inputs would generally show that results are not really contradictory. But not only seem the decision processes in large national and international organizations to be such that a comparison can hardly ever be accomplished, also the documentation available is rarely sufficient to really comprehend the differences in results. For these reasons we felt that an effort to review the state of the art of modeling in support of force capability assessments was overdue.
