Karl Lagerfeld

Tadao Ando Vitra House:

Tadao Ando - Vitra House Karl Lagerfeld, 1998 Architecture which acquires tranquility and balance thanks to geometric order obtains dynamism thanks to natural phenomena and human movements This quotation from architect Tadao Ando introduces this book of photographs by Karl Lagerfeld of Ando's Vitra conference pavilion This is not the first time Lagerfeld has focused his considerable energies on architectural photography and the results are impressive He transfers the basic ideas of Ando's architecture into photographic form and presents both close ups of geometric detail as well as views of the whole building and environs Lagerfeld finds a sensitive language to reveal the characteristics implicit in Ando's creation

Karl Lagerfeld: A Line of Beauty Andrew Bolton, Tadao Ando, Anita Briey, Stefania D'Alfonso, Olivia Douchez, Amanda Harlech, Patrick Hourcade, Mellissa Huber, Nicole Lefort, Kai Toussaint Marcel, Jacqueline Mercier, Loïc Prigent, Anna Wintour, 2023-05-01 This investigation into Karl Lagerfeld's 1933-2019 artistry explores his extraordinary sixty-five year career from the designs for Chloé and Fendi in the 1960s and 1970s to his celebrated leadership in the 1980s and beyond at Chanel and his own label Inspired by the line of beauty theorized by eighteenth century English painter William Hogarth this dazzling publication pursues the straight and serpentine lines and their intersections in Lagerfeld's work as a means of understanding his unique creative process Architects Today Kester Rattenbury, Robert Bevan, Kieran Long, 2006-08-10 This volume offers both an introduction to and an insight into key contemporary architects as well as giving a snapshot of the varied nature of architecture today For each architect there are details of their life and work and illustrations of their most representative and iconic buildings The Making of Mexican Modernist Architecture Celia Esther Arredondo Zambrano, 2023-05-03 This book presents the making of Mexican Modernist architecture through five power structures academic social status economic political gender and postcolonial and by interviews and analysis of 13 key Mexican architects These include Luis Barragán José Villagrán García Juan O'Gorman Pedro Ramírez Vázquez Agustín Hernández Abraham Zabludovsky Carlos Mijares Ricardo Legorreta Juan José Díaz Infante Enrique Norten Alberto Kalach Javier Sordo Madaleno and Clara de Buen Although the five power structures framed what was built the testimony of these Mexican architects helps us to recognize and discover subtleties and nuances Their views thereby shed light on what contributed to making Mexican Modernist architecture so distinctive globally Even if these architects were not always aware of the power structures their projects nonetheless supported discrimination marginalization and subjugation In that sense the book also reveals the extent to which these power structures are still present today The Making of Mexican Modernist Architecture's uniqueness lies in uncovering the remarkable buildings that arose amid the five power structures while at the same time questioning their validity It also voices the urgent need today for a new kind of architecture outside these boundaries The book is essential reading for anyone studying Mexican and Latin American architecture Tadao Ando - Vitra House Karl Lagerfeld, 1998 Architecture which acquires tranquility and balance thanks to geometric order obtains dynamism thanks to

Basics Architecture 02: Construction & Materiality Lorraine Farrelly, 2019-01-10 Basics Architecture 02 Construction Materiality is an in depth exploration of the key materials used in modern architecture The book covers materials including stone and brick concrete timber glass steel and composites It examines their history development and practical application in contemporary architecture Discussion is supported by a variety of case studies and examples of work taken from the best of contemporary architecture as well as practical student exercises and resources

Key Modern Architects Andrew Higgott, 2018-05-31 Key Modern Architects provides an accessible and thought provoking introduction to the work of the most significant architects of the modern era Fifty short chapters introduce fifty key architects from Le Corbusier to Aldo Van Eyck to Zaha Hadid exploring their most influential buildings and developing a critique of each architect s work within a broader cultural and historical context The selection represents the most influential architects working from 1890 to the present those most likely to be taught on survey courses in modern architectural history along with some lesser known names with an equal claim to influence Emphasis is placed on a critical and interpretative approach allowing the student to position each architect in a cultural and intellectual context quickly and easily Artistic technical social and intellectual developments are brought to the fore built and unbuilt projects writings and influences This approach brings to light the ideology behind architectural work offering insights into each architect s working practice Helps students to develop a critical approach to understanding modern architectural history One chapter per architect meaning chapters may be read individually as a concise resource for the study of an architect or together as a coherent book length history of the whole period of modern architecture Chapters are supported by boxed lists of each architect s most significant projects along with suggestions for further reading as a springboard to further study and research Combining the clarity and accessibility of a textbook with in depth reading and a critical approach Key Modern Architects provides an invaluable resource for both the classroom and for independent study in architectural and art history

Dwell , 2001-02 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Through the Lens , 2002 Max Dupain a famous Australian photographer well known for his architectural photography once said words to the effect A photographer of architecture

takes the building cycle full circle in reducing a completed building to a similar scale of the original Nearness of the distant Werner Blaser, 2005 Tadao Ando born in 1941 in Osaka is one of the most important contemporary Japanese architects He developed a radically new architecture characterised by the use of unfinished reinforced concrete structures Using a geometric simplicity which reveals a rich and subtle approach to space the buildings share the serenity and clarity that characterise traditional Japanese architecture This book focuses on the Japanese influences upon Western architecture and presents three buildings of Tadao Ando the Vitra Seminar House in Weil am Rhein Germany the Naoshima Contemporary Art Museum Japan and Fabbrica Benetton Communication Research Center in Villorba Treviso Italy Shinkenchiku, 1995

Workmanship Klaus-Dieter Weiss, 2012-12-13 today the name RKW Architektur Stadttebau evokes two hundred architects whose work never fails to convince The reason does not lie in the narrowly defined architectural language of individual leaders of the firm More than in any other firm the various teams are given generous latitude for independent initiative Thus this documentation of the last ten years with cross references to the development of this unique partnership since 1950 doesn't just present sixty five structures and projects from an internationally sought after firm On the contrary in its search for the secret of the firm's success it looks behind the scenes in numerous interviews and essays The works considered range from the research facilities for AUDI the new sciences campus of RWTH Aachen University and the corporate headquarters of Vodafone Debitel and Arag to urban revitalization projects residential buildings schools sports halls railroad stations city halls banks urban office buildings and shopping centers and the stadium for the 2012 European Soccer Championship in Gdansk Analysing Architecture Simon Unwin, 2013-12-17 Now in its fourth edition Analysing Architecture has become internationally established as the best introduction to architecture Aimed primarily at those wishing to become professional architects it also offers those in disciplines related to architecture from archaeology to stage design garden design to installation art a clear and accessible insight into the workings of this rich and fascinating subject With copious illustrations from his own notebooks the author dissects examples from around the world and all periods of history to explain underlying strategies in architectural design and show how drawing may be used as a medium for analysis This new edition of Analysing Architecture is revised and expanded Notably the chapter on Basic Elements of Architecture has been enlarged to discuss the powers various architectural elements offer the architect Three new chapters have been added to the section on Themes in Spatial Organisation covering Occupying the In between Inhabited Wall and Refuge and Prospect Two new examples a Mud House from Kerala India and the Mongyō tei a tea house from Kyoto Japan have been added to the Case Studies at the end of the book The Select Bibliography has been expanded and the Index revised Works of architecture are instruments for managing orchestrating modifying our relationship with the world around us They frame just about everything we do Architecture is complex subtle frustrating but ultimately extremely rewarding It can be a difficult discipline to get to grips with nothing in school quite prepares anyone for the particular demands of an architecture course But this
